HUGE PER-BALLOT COST CREATED BY SPARCE VOTER INTEREST IN PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

Boston witnessed on Tuesday a complete and detailed setting up of its election facilities and machinery, staffed to handle even a maximum turnout of voters. A diminutive number of Boston citizens, however, went to the polls in this, the 1956 Presidential Primary election called for the purpose of electing delegates to the Democratic and Republican national conventions in June, and of electing the members of the State and Ward committees of the two major political parties. Although the number is not yet officially totaled, estimates are that approximately 25,000 persons — or barely 7 per cent of the total registered vote — exercised their privilege to vote at Boston's 290 polling places on Tuesday.

Figures showing the cost to the taxpayers of the primary election have yet to be tabulated but, again, estimates run up to $100,000, and range from three and one-half to five dollars for every vote cast.

The cost of a primary, or an election, is the concern of several city departments. The Election Commissioners staff the polls and pay the officials and workers in each of the 290 voting precincts. The Police Department guards the polls, picks up ballots and tally sheets at City Hall and delivers them back again when the polls close. Overtime pay is involved in extra police details where necessary. Although the official ballots are supplied by the state, our City Printing Plant prepares a mass of printed material incidental to serving the constitutional right of each and every one of some 363,000 citizens of Boston to go to the polls and express their preference in Tuesday's primary. Few city departments escape some extra effort or some extra expense involved in a primary or an election.

The obviously high cost of the Presidential Primary has given rise to various recommendations. Mayor Hynes described as sensible the suggestion of Election Commission Chairman David Lasker that the number of polling places be cut by one-half in the 1960 primary. Mr. Lasker said this would save the city tens of thousands of dollars. He said he favors an amendment to the law to advance the date of the primaries four weeks to the third Tuesday in May, instead of the last Tuesday in April. The present schedule, according to Mr. Lasker, creates a "log jam" in his department in the certification of nomination papers — the deadline for which is March 23 — by reason of the fact that long lists of candidates file for positions on 44 Boston ward committees, delegate slates, and for positions on the state committees. This situation, however, had no effect on the voting in the primary. It placed an unreasonable burden on the Election Department.

Tuesday's primary was described by election officials as possibly the smallest, percentagewise, in votes recorded in any previous election of this kind.

Other observers are expressing the view that no one can predict the interest which the public-at-large may generate in the Presidential Primary four years from now, or in any Presidential election year, hence the wise course is to keep the city's polling facilities ready for any voter load.

Several cities and towns in Massachusetts cut the number of polling places in Tuesday's primaries.

All but 46 of Boston's 290 precincts were served by voting machines on Tuesday. The complete mechanization of balloting will take another year or so. By the time of the September primaries of 1958, according to Election Department officials, the voting precincts will be completely machine. The paper ballot precincts are scattered in Wards 15 and 17, Dorchester; 18, Hyde Park-Mattapan; 19, Roslindale; 20, West Roxbury, and 21, Brighton.

The designation of suitable buildings to house the heavy voting machines is the principal problem in the program of complete abandonment of paper balloting in Boston. Many of the older balloting places have to be by-passed in favor of stronger structures. This involves selection of central locations for the convenience of the voters and the realignment of precinct lines to conform with the shifted locations.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MAYOR SEEKS MORE FUNDS FOR TRAFFIC LIGHTS; SAYS URGENT NEEDS DEMAND $150,000

Mayor John B. Hynes on Monday, April 23, submitted to the City Council a request for further allocation of funds, in the amount of $50,000, for installation of needed traffic lights in various sections of the city. The order was referred by Council President Edward J. McCormack, Jr., to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

The Mayor's message to the Council, in this regard, was as follows:

GENTLEMEN:

There is a pressing need for additional traffic signal lights in our city. It is difficult to keep abreast of traffic developments with the consequent necessity for installing lights at various intersections. On January 30 of this year, I submitted to your Honorable Body an order for the transfer of $20,000 from the Sales of City Property Fund for this purpose. I submit a further order in the amount of $50,000 from the same available source, for traffic lights.

The Chairman of the Traffic Commission estimates that $150,000 would be needed to meet the current requirements for traffic signal lights. Herewith is a list of intersections which deserve priority treatment.

I most respectfully request that your Honorable Body give approval to the order submitted today and the order submitted on January 30, so that the Traffic Department may proceed without delay in the installation of traffic lights at some of the most dangerous intersections in our city.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

BOSTON MOURNS DEATH OF THEODORE HAFFENREFFER, SERVANT AND BENEFACTOR

The death, on Monday, April 23, of Theodore C. Haffenreffer ended a quarter of a century of continuous public service in which this outstanding business executive gave, without compensation, of his time and talent as a member of the commission which controls and guides the Parks and Recreation Department of the City of Boston. Mr. Haffenreffer was first appointed in 1930, and, as each of his terms expired, he was reappointed by succeeding mayors. His latest term was due to expire in 1959.

Mr. Haffenreffer was president of the Haffenreffer & Co., Inc., brewery firm. He was 75 years of age.

Mayor Hynes paid tribute to the memory of the late Park Commissioner, as follows:

"I am most deeply affected by the death of Theodore Haffenreffer. For over 25 years he has been an active member of the Boston Park Board, receiving no compensation. He loved Boston and our park system. He literally knew every blade of grass in it. We who have known him over the years of his public service will sorely miss his genial personality. Always thoughtful, always considerate, he was a courtly gentleman of the old school. Boston has lost a fine citizen and our Park Department has lost a devoted friend."

THIRD BOOKMOBILE TO BE ADDED TO LIBRARY FLEET

With the approval of Mayor Hynes, the Trustees of the Public Library have awarded a contract to put into service one more bookmobile in addition to the two already serving the needs of the residents in the various sections of Boston. Award was made, without advertising, based on the following communication from the trustees to the Mayor:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Public Library respectfully request that your Honor approve the award of a contract to the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., 26 Reading street, Roxbury, Mass., for the provision of bookmobile service for the period from April 1, 1956, through March 31, 1957. The contractor will provide one completely equipped vehicle built to the library's detailed specifications.

The bookmobile to be provided under this contract will serve as an addition to the library's complement of two vehicles and will enable the library to offer library service to sections of the city in which branch library units are to be closed during 1956.

For the past six years the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., formerly the H. B. Church Truck Service Company, Inc., has provided the bookmobile service on a contractual basis. The vehicles have been kept in excellent condition; the service rendered has been prompt and efficient; and the company's drivers have become thoroughly familiar with the library's requirements. The cost of the service to be rendered for the period of the contract will be approximately $16,000.

In 1955 the library sought, by public advertising, to obtain competitive bids for the provision of bookmobile service. No bids were received. In this instance, public advertising would appear to serve no useful purpose or to be to the advantage of the City of Boston. The trustees have therefore taken the following action:

"Voted, That there be awarded, without public advertising, to the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., 26 Reading street, Roxbury, Mass., the contract for providing bookmobile service, using one bookmobile built to specifications provided by the library for the period April 1, 1956, through March 31, 1957, at the rate of two hundred and fifty-three dollars ($253) per week (Monday through Friday), plus three dollars and seventy-five cents ($3.75) for each hour beyond forty (40) hours in any one week (Monday through Friday), and for all hours worked on Saturday at the rate of one dollar and thirty cents ($1.30) per hour for the first four (4) hours and three dollars and seventy-five cents ($3.75) per hour for all hours worked thereafter."

Inasmuch as the total cost of the bookmobile service will exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), there is requested permission of your Honor to enter into this contract without publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY
OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
by MILTON E. LORD,
Director.

MOVEMENT TO SUBURBS

Continuance of the population movement to smaller places is seen in the comparison of 1955 with 1945 which shows that of the 252 towns in Massachusetts under 10,000 population, 87 per cent had a net immigration of residents. Of the places above 40,000 population, only two, Newton and Weymouth, had a net immigration. Every large city center lost in the movement of people to the suburbs. Boston in the ten-year period had a net outmigration, that is, population change, exclusive of the balance of births over deaths, of 109,251, as calculated from the state census and reports of the Division of Vital Statistics. Practically all small suburban towns gained, the only small places showing net outmigration being those remote from a large center.

HUB PORT TOPS TEN-YEAR TONNAGE RECORD

Foreign trade shipping at the Port of Boston showed marked gains during 1955 with tremendous advances in tonnage and only a slight decrease in export value registered for dry cargo vessels, according to data received by Mayor Hynes this week from the Field Office here of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

The highest foreign trade movement by vessel at the Port of Boston over the past ten years was recorded for 1955 with a total volume of 5,010,000 long tons. That tonnage of export and import commercial shipments (excluding transshipments and defense cargoes) was a gain of 774,100 tons or 18.3 per cent more than that of 1954. Dry cargo ship tonnage amounted to 1,909,300 tons, an advance of 441,100 tons or 30 per cent. Total tanker tonnage movement was 3,100,700 tons which was an increase of 333,000 tons or 12 per cent.

Total value of the port's foreign trade movement was $481,100,000, an increase of $700,000 or 0.1 per cent above 1954. Value of commodities moved by dry cargo ships totaled $439,900,000 which was a decrease of $5,700,000 or about 1.3 per cent less than the previous year. Movement by tanker vessels (which included some grain exports) valued at $41,200,000 registered an increase of $6,400,000 or 18.4 per cent.

Tonnage movement through the Port was exceptionally good during 1955 with exports by dry cargo vessel totaling 458,000 tons, representing a gain of 217,000 tons or 90 per cent above that for 1954. Import tonnages also registered appreciable advances. Imports by dry cargo vessels totaled 1,451,300 tons which was an increase of 224,100 tons or 18.3 per cent. Imports by tankers aggregated 3,080,600 tons which was a gain of 327,000 tons or almost 12 per cent.

Considering dry cargo vessel movement, the ratio of imports to exports through the Port of Boston was 3.2 to 1 in tonnage and 5.1 to 1 in value.

A copy of a summary report on foreign trade activity of the Port of Boston during 1955, with a tabulation for the years 1946 through 1955, may be obtained free of charge from the Boston Field Office, U. S. Department of Commerce, Boston 9, Mass.

HIGH RENTS BOOMERANG

"Higher rents and larger families are underlying reasons for at least 60 per cent of new home buying," declared Malcolm G. Dunnan, Boston real estate executive. Even 10 per cent rent increases have caused tenants to look for houses to purchase. Oftentimes only a minor stimulus is necessary to change a family from a tenant to a home owner.

BIG INCREASE IN CENTRAL HEATING

According to fuel industry figures, more than 27,000,000 homes in the United States are centrally heated. In 16,750,000 of these homes the heating equipment is operated automatically. Ten years ago there were only 4,500,000 automatically operated heating systems in about 17,500,000 centrally heated homes.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR NEW GREENWOOD SCHOOL IN HYDE PARK DISTRICT

With the approval of Mayor John B. Hynes, on April 18, the Department of School Buildings has awarded to M. Solimando Company, 584 Columbia road, Dorchester, a contract in the total amount of $677,233, for the erection and completion of an elementary school in the Elihu Greenwood District, Fairmount area, Hyde Park.

Bids on the contract were opened March 22. The Solimando Company was the lowest of six qualified bidders, as follows:

M. Solimando, $677,233; M. S. Kelihier, $709,273; M. Slotnick Corporation, $734,396; John Capobianco, $760,000; Sciaba & Co., Inc., $774,400; Edward R. Warden Corporation, $787,079.

A bid for $700,262 was filed late by the Hadley Construction Company, of Medford, which bid was automatically eliminated. Substituted was the subbid for marble and terrazzo of the Zani Marble and Tile Company, in the amount of $17,480, for that of the Freeport Tile and Marble Company in the amount of $16,650, which latter subcontractor was carried in the proposal of M. Solimando, for the reason that the Freeport Marble and Tile Company failed to submit with their bid the correct amount of bid deposit required by the published invitation for proposals.

COMPENSATION APPROVED FOR 130 BASKETBALL OFFICIALS

John A. Breen, Director of Administrative Services, on April 23, approved compensation for a list of 130 basketball officials for the 1956 season, as submitted by Parks and Recreation Commissioner Frank R. Kelley, who wrote Director Breen as follows.

DEAR SIR:

CONTRACTS AWARDED

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.

Purchasing Division.

Surgical Dressings

Mayor Hynes, on March 30, approved the award of contracts by the Purchasing Agent, for furnishing surgical dressings to various city departments as follows:

No bids were received on Items 32 to 47, inclusive, and on Item 71; these items will be purchased in the open market.

C. H. Goldthwaite Company was the lowest bidder meeting specifications on Item 8. However, this company failed to file a copy of their bid in the Auditor's office. Inasmuch as their bid cannot be accepted as responsive, all bids on Item 8 have been rejected. Since the materials originally requested on Item 8 are urgently needed and owing to the fact that the intent of section 30, chapter 486, Acts of 1909, as amended, has been carried out, permission was granted to dispense with advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to C. H. Goldthwaite Company for 400 cases Conco brand adaptic bandages at $12.45 per case. Approximate total amount of contract was $4,980, less 2 per cent discount, time of payment. Prices are guaranteed for 90 days, subject to change thereafter. It is the opinion of the Purchasing Agent that by awarding the contract in this way the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amounts of other awards were as follows:

Contracts for: Johnson & Johnson, $64,362.17; E. F. Mahady Company, $8,551.80; Bauer & Black, division of the Kendall Company, $7,010.35.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Public Library respectfully request the approval of your Honor for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the McBee Company, 367 Boylston street, Boston, for the purchase of Keysort book loan cards.

Spraying of Trees

The Mayor, on April 13, approved the award of a contract, by the Parks and Recreation Department, for the spraying of trees, without the formality of advertising. Approval was based on the following communication from the commissioner:

DEAR SIR:

We have just received invitation bids for spraying all trees throughout the park system and on city streets. In order to expedite the work, which must be done at once, we asked for bids rather than go through the formality of public advertising. There are only a few concerns that have the necessary equipment and personnel for doing this work. The first spraying must be done now, before the trees come into bud or flower.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

Bids for doing this work were received as follows:

Fred Ralston & Co., Inc., 47 Braintree street, Allston, $11 per hour.

Superior Tree Service, Inc., 15 Littlejohn street, Arlington, $11 per hour.

Stephen Hopkins Associates, Inc., 71 Proctor street, Roxbury, $11.75 per hour.

Eastern Tree & Landscape Corporation, 280 Bridge street, Dedham, $12.70 per hour.

Blueview Nursery, 32 Gaston street, Roxbury, $13 per hour.

The lowest bid received was submitted by two concerns, namely, Fred Ralston & Co., Inc., and Superior Tree Service, Inc. Both these low bidders submitted a unit price of $11 per hour. This is the lowest figure we have received in recent years for this work, and we consider it a very fair price.

Under the terms of the proposal the successful bidder is required to furnish a truck and hydraulic sprayer and three men to operate the truck and sprayer, and all necessary equipment for spraying, including oil and gasoline for the truck. The spray material to be used is to be furnished by the Parks and Recreation Department.

In order to have the spraying completed before the spring season is too far advanced, I feel that it is necessary to divide the work between the two low bidders, at the same unit price quoted by both.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that we be permitted to dispense with public advertising for bids and to award a contract to Fred Ralston & Co., Inc., 47 Braintree street, Allston, Mass., for spraying trees throughout the park system and on city streets, at the unit price of $11 per hour, the total amount of this contract not to exceed $5,500, to be charged to the regular Parks and Recreation Department budget, Item 29-5.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Chelsea St. Bridge

The Mayor, on April 17, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, by the Public Works Department, for emergency work on the Chelsea Street Bridge, based on the following communication from the commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Division Engineer McCall has called to my attention a matter that should be adjusted immediately, and which occurred on Saturday, March 17, 1956, at the Chelsea Street Bridge on the day of the first of the three snowstorms that occurred in March.

He has informed me that at approximately 6 A.M. on Saturday, March 17, the drawtenders on duty at the Chelsea Street Bridge attempted to make a bridge opening, but could not raise the drawspan. The men on duty could not locate the source of the trouble and, therefore, notified Mr. Edmund Barrett, engineer in charge of bridge maintenance and operation. Mr. Barrett assumed that the trouble was caused by electrical failure, but a quick examination by the department electrician and Mr. Taylor of the Skillings Electric Company disclosed that the source of the trouble was not electrical, but mechanical. It was further discovered that there was a broken section of the toothed rack of the operating strut on the downstream side of the bridge.

This was a serious type of failure which could not be remedied by our department forces and, therefore, Mr. Barrett tried to get in touch with Division Engineer McCall, to inform him of the conditions and to obtain the necessary authority to engage the services of a contractor to effect the repairs. At that time, however, Mr. McCall was busily engaged in snow removal activities in South Boston, and Mr. Barrett could not reach him. Therefore, the latter, on his own initiative, called in the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., to effect the necessary repairs, as this firm was the only one familiar with the work; having made almost identical repairs on the bridge in 1950. Mr. Barrett assumed that the repair work could be done for under a thousand dollars and, therefore, felt no hesitancy in engaging the services of the above-referenced contractor to effect the repairs and put this important bridge back in operation.

However, in addition to the defect described hereinbefore, it developed that the main structural member to which the rack sections are connected had suffered damage in the nature of bent channel irons, plates, etc. Therefore, far more extensive repair work was required than was anticipated at the time that the bridge first failed to function. As a result, it was necessary for the repair crews to work the regular time and four hours additional overtime on Saturday, March 17, and also to return on Sunday, at 8 A.M., and work continuously until 6.30 A.M., Monday, March 19.

We have checked on the cost of the repair work with representatives of the General Ship and Engine Works, and it is estimated that the cost to the city will be approximately $2,750.

I am sorry that this repair work was authorized without obtaining the prior approval of your Honor to the award of a contract, without publicly advertising for proposals, but the weather conditions prevented Mr. Barrett from contacting Division Engineer McCall, and as stated, he assumed that the work could be done for less than a thousand dollars. I feel that he acted properly in engaging the services of the General Ship and Engine Works to effect the repairs, as the work was of an emergency nature and could not be postponed for any period of time. If he had been able to contact Division Engineer McCall or the undersigned on March 17, the date of the breakdown of the bridge, I am certain that I would have authorized him to engage the services of the above-referenced contractor, as said contractor has done similar work for us in a very satisfactory manner, and it was absolutely necessary to place the drawspan back in operation as soon as possible.

In any event, I feel that this matter can be adjusted at this time by executing a contract with the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., in the maximum amount of $2,750 to pay for the repair work.

I respectfully request your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract in an amount not in excess of $2,750 to the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., of 336 Border street, East Boston, for effecting mechanical repairs to the Chelsea Street Drawbridge on a force account basis and under the direction of Engineer Edmund Barrett of the Bridge Division of this department.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Sweeper Brooms

The Mayor, on April 17, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, by the Public Works Department, for refilling of broom cores on mechanical street sweepers. Approval was based on the following communication from the commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the present time, the department operates an average of 24 mechanical street-cleaning machines for the purpose of cleaning streets and supplementing the manual work done by our employees.

In connection with the operation of the machines, it becomes necessary to change the main fiber brooms every week or two, depending on the volume of work done by a particular machine. We find that it is more desirable, more economical, and more satisfactory, from every point of view, to have the broom cores refilled by outside shops who specialize in this particular work. Heretofore, we have awarded contracts to the New England Broom and Supply Company and to the E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company for performing this service.

Both of the above-referenced companies have agreed to fill the broom cores during the current year at the following established rates, which are the same as those in effect last year:

Elgin sweepers, $30 per core.

Wayne sweepers, $24 per core.

It is necessary to have both concerns do this work, in order to insure an adequate supply of brooms at all times, so that the sweepers may be kept in daily operation. It is difficult, at this time, to state accurately the city's total requirements in respect to the refilling of the brooms during the remainder of the current year, but we estimate that it will cost approximately $7,000. No advantage would accrue, in my opinion, by publicly advertising for bids for this work, as the Bleiler Company is the authorized agent for the Elgin sweeper in this area, and the New England Broom and Supply specializes in this type of work and has been performing it for the department satisfactorily for a great number of years.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the New England Broom and Supply Company of 191 Forest Hills street, Jamaica Plain, in an amount not to exceed $3,500, and to the E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, 15 Crawford street, Needham, in an amount not to exceed $3,500, for refilling broom cores used on our Elgin and Wayne street-cleaning machines during the current year.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

Cleaning Vacant Lots

Mayor Hynes, on April 18, approved the award of contracts, without advertising, by the Real Property Department, for cleaning city-owned vacant lots, based on the following communication from the commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Real Property Board from time to time engages the services of contractors to clean refuse from vacant lots of land under its jurisdiction. During the course of a year the total cost of such cleanings will total over $1,000. However, it is impossible to determine or even approximate the cost, due to the fact that we order the cleaning generally upon complaints of the Complaints Department, Health Department, Fire Department, Police Department, and of private citizens. In each case the cleaning job is an emergency at the time of the complaint, necessitating the employment of a contractor at that specific time to do emergency work.

In view of the above-mentioned facts, it would be impractical to advertise for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given this department to employ such contractors as are necessary from time to time to clean lots of land without public advertising.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Tabulating Machines

Mayor Hynes, on April 17, approved the award of a contract by the Collecting Division, without advertising, for tabulating machinery, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with the usual form of advertising and to award a contract for maintenance of two sorters, one interpreter, two tabulating machines, and four punch machines to Remington Rand, Inc., 857 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, at an annual cost of $3,014.44, from April 1, 1956, to March 31, 1957, inclusive.

There is no competition in the awarding of this contract as Remington Rand, Inc., is the only company with available facilities to properly service their machines.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES E. GILDEA,
Collector-Treasurer.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION.

Court House Painting

On April 16, the Mayor approved the award of a contract, without advertising, for painting and waterproofing the Old Court House, based on the following communication from the Chairman of the Court House Commission:

DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

An appropriation has been provided in the Court House Custodian Budget to cover the cost of pointing and waterproofing the Old Court House. It is important that this work be done immediately as leakage is causing considerable damage to the interior of the building.

Upon recommendation of Mr. James Mooney, Superintendent of the Department of School Buildings, we have had a survey made and an estimate submitted by Mr. Henry C. Sheils of the National Waterproofing Company.

The waterproofing of leaking walls has developed into a specialty business and, for satisfactory results, should be entrusted to only such a specialist. This is not the type of job which lends itself to competitive bidding. The leakage, while extensive, is not a general condition and its causes are principally from defective joints, defective caulking, and absorption. It is not possible to determine which joints are defective without a staging job and testing each and every joint with an air hammer and cutting tool. Where testing shows that a joint is defective, that joint should be cut out and properly repointed with waterproof mortar. Where the job is as large as the Old Court House and where the amount of work cannot be determined until stagings are hung and the walls tested, it is good economy to have this work done on a stock and labor basis and, because of this, we are of the opinion that to make an inspection and write specifications for this work would be an unnecessary expense. After thorough investigation we are confident that the National Waterproofing Company is the most capable firm to do this work, and feel that nothing would be saved or gained by advertising.

Payment will be made according to a method of computing compensation to be approved by the City Auditor.

We request your permission, under section 30 of the Amended City Charter, to enter into a contract with the National Waterproofing Company to have this work done as per specifications supplied by them on a stock and labor basis at a cost not to exceed $60,000.

Very truly yours,

ARNO I. DREW, Chairman.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, April 16, 1956.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President McCORMACK in the chair, and all the members present.

The Right Reverend Christopher P. Griffin, of the Chapel of Our Lady of the Railways, South Station, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY RT. REV. CHRISTOPHER P. GRIFFIN.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.
The power, the presence, and the benediction of God be upon us.

Eternal and Heavenly Father, Who art of all friends the first and the most faithful, of all counselors the most wise, of all helpers the most willing and most powerful, shed the light of Thy spirit within the minds and hearts of these, Thy servants. Bless, we beseech Thee, infinite God of power and mercy, with vigor and strength the Mayor of this city, the esteemed members of this City Council, and all others who under Thy divine providence are entrusted with the responsibility of public office.

We know that our plans and purposes, our efforts and endeavors for the building of a better city are futile and fruitless unless Thou dost help us with Thy divine wisdom and power.

Under Thy blessed guidance, may we all seek to make this city a place where democracy is achieved without vulgarity, difference without hate; where the majority is without tyranny, and the minority without fear; where the least of our citizens has the freedom to struggle for his rights; where respect for the past is not reaction, where hope and plans for a brighter future is not revolution.

We thank Thee, O Lord, that here in our great land we have faith without fear, love without hate, truth without the necessity of concealing it, life without the need of warping it. We have grace to fortify us; good men to lead us. We have Thee, our God, to save us. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

Referred to the Committee on Confirmations.

ANNUAL SOLICITATION BY LIBRARY FOR CONTRIBUTIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 13, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Director of the Boston Public Library in regard to your resolution of March 26, 1956, relative to considering the desirability of initiating for the Boston Public Library a continuing program of annual solicitation and giving similar to that which has in recent years been carried on by the New York Public Library.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Public Library,
April 5, 1956.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your transmittal, under date of March 29, 1956, of the resolution adopted by the City Council on March 26 requesting the Trustees of the Boston Public Library, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the desirability of initiating for the Boston Public Library a continuing program of annual solicitation and giving similar to that which has in recent years been carried on by the New York Public Library.

This matter will be brought to the attention of the trustees for discussion at their next meeting. After they have had an opportunity to examine the suggestion and consider the possibilities in the matter, there will be sent to his Honor the Mayor a report on the matter in behalf of the Trustees of the Public Library.

Yours sincerely,
MILTON E. LORD, Director.

Coun. WHITE in the chair.

TURNER STREET, BRIGHTON, ONE WAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 16, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of April 2, 1956, in regard to making Turner street, Brighton, one way, from Washington street to Faneuil street, Brighton.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
April 6, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

In response to City Council order dated April 2, 1956, requesting the Traffic Commission to consider the advisability of making Turner street, Brighton, one way, from Washington street to Faneuil street, I wish to report that our commission is planning to make a considerable number of streets one way as a result of the experience in the recent snowstorm.

In the case of Turner street and others we should like to have a petition from the residents indicating the direction in which they prefer to have the one-way traffic.

When a street is made one way, inconvenience results to residents sometimes, and to minimize that inconvenience we would like to have a petition indicating that the residents want a one-way street and that the direction of the one way be indicated so that the final regulation will be satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Respectfully yours,

WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

SURVEY OF TRAFFIC CONDITIONS AT UNION SQUARE, ALLSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 13, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of March 5, 1956, pertaining to traffic conditions in Union square, Allston.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
April 10, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to City Council order of March 5, 1956, pertaining to traffic conditions in Union square, Allston, I submit the following report.

An accident study reveals that a very hazardous situation prevails in Union square. As a practical matter, however, it is not possible to signalize the entire Union square because of the existing rotary traffic island layout and streetcar tracks.

To properly signalize the entire square would require the removal of the existing islands, the installation of new channelizing islands, and the relocation of the streetcar tracks. This latter feature would involve considerable expense to the M.T.A. which is not in a financial position to assume such an expense. However, plans are in existence whereby, if the streetcar tracks are ever eliminated from the square, the city will make an improvement which will reduce traffic congestion and improve safety.

Meanwhile, however, a partial solution is available by installation of a pedestrian signal only in North Beacon street, at Union square. Observations show that the preponderance of pedestrian traffic is at this crossing, and accident studies show that at least 17 out of a total of 35 accidents occurred at that crossing. The installation of this signal will afford immediate relief, and the signal system can further be expanded later through the entire square when the streetcar track problem and the circle redesign is accomplished.

I shall bring to the Traffic Commission meeting on Thursday, April 12, the proposal that this traffic signal be installed at North Beacon street, at Union square, as soon as funds are made available to us for traffic signals, and this commission will provide the specified relief from present hazardous conditions at the earliest possible moment following the receipt of funds for traffic signals.

Sincerely yours,

WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

President McCORMACK in the chair.

RELEASE OF RESTRICTION ON LAND, ALBANY STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 16, 1956.
To the Honorable City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication received from the American Oil Company requesting the release of certain conditions and restrictions contained in deeds of six lots of land situated on the northwesterly side of Albany street, between East Newton street and Sharon street.

The release of these restrictions will enable the American Oil Company to go forward with its plans to modernize the premises.

I submit herewith an order which would permit the releasing of the conditions and restrictions and recommend its adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

American Oil Company,
555 Fifth Avenue, New York,

April 11, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

The Honorable the City Council.
Gentlemen:

This is a petition for relief from certain restrictions that the City of Boston imposed about 75 years ago on land that the American Oil Company now owns on Albany street, Boston.

The land is on the northwest side of Albany street, between East Newton street and Sharon street. Its area is about 12,229 square feet. It has frontages of 152 feet on Albany street, 80 feet on East Newton street, and 80 feet on Sharon street.

The American Oil Company took title to the land on November 1, 1933, by deed recorded with Suffolk Registry of Deeds, in Book 5460, at page 129.

Originally the land was owned by the City of Boston, having been reclaimed by the city from the flats. The land then comprised six lots. The city sold these lots as follows:

1877: Lot 1, to Lewis Coleman, by deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1381, page 110.

1877: Lot 2, to Lewis Coleman, by deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1381, page 111.

1874: Lots 3 and 4, to Milton J. Putney, by deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1223, page 89.

1881: Lot 5, to Triphenia N. Hayes, by deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1540, page 391.

1881: Lot 6, to Triphenia N. Hayes, by deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1540, page 393.

Each of these deeds recited that the respective lots were subject to certain "conditions," which, incidentally, have since been construed to be restrictions, not conditions. Ayling v. Kramer, 133 Mass. 12. These restrictions were the following:

1. Taxes were to be paid by the grantees.
2. The front lines of the buildings which might be erected on the lots were to be parallel with Albany street.
3. There were to be a setback of 6 feet from East Newton street and a setback of 6 feet from Sharon street.
4. The width of each building which might be erected was to equal the front of the lot, except for the said setbacks.
5. No building which might be erected was to be less than two and one-half stories high, nor have exterior walls of any other material than brick, stone, or iron, nor be used or occupied for a black or white smith's shop or for foundry purposes.
6. No cellar, basement room, or other apartment was to be more than 3 feet below the coping of the Charlestown drydock.

In addition, the deed of Lot 2 provided that no dwelling house or other building, except necessary out-buildings, should be erected on the rear of Lot 2.

In 1892, however, the city sold 18 other lots in the immediate neighborhood without imposing upon them any conditions or restrictions. The combined area of these lots was more than twice the area of the six lots above mentioned. These conveyances by the city in 1892 were the following:

Deed to James H. T. Adams of ten lots on East Newton street in the rear of the land now owned by the American Oil Company. The total area was 16,127 square feet. Recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 2092, page 611.

Deed to Mary M. Adams of four lots at the corner of Albany street and East Newton street (across the street from the land now owned by the American Oil Company). The total area was 3,677 square feet. Recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 2092, page 610.

Deed to Mary M. Adams of four lots on Albany street about 70 feet from East Newton street. The total area was 6,247 square feet. Recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 2092, page 609.

The American Oil Company suggests that restrictions imposed 75 years ago have long since served their purpose and now tend only to lessen the value of the land.

Accordingly, the American Oil Company respectfully prays that the City Council authorize the Mayor to annul the restrictions and that the Mayor release the land from the restrictions.

Respectfully yours,
AMERICAN OIL COMPANY,
by I. F. PIERCE, Regional Manager.

Ordered, That the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized to execute in the name of and in behalf of the City of Boston an instrument in writing satisfactory in form to the Corporation Counsel releasing the conditions and restrictions contained in the following described deeds of six lots of land on the northwesterly side of Albany street, between East Newton street and Sharon street, in the City of Boston, County of Suffolk, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which lots are now owned by the American Oil Company:

Deed of Lot 1 to Lewis Coleman dated July 3, 1877, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1381, page 110;

Deed of Lot 2 to Lewis Coleman dated July 3, 1877, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1381, page 111;

Deed of Lots 3 and 4 to Milton J. Putney dated July 8, 1874, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1223, page 89;

Deed of Lot 5 to Triphenia N. Hayes dated August 15, 1881, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1540, page 391;

Deed of Lot 6 to Triphenia N. Hayes dated August 15, 1881, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1540, page 393; and cause the same to be recorded with the Suffolk Registry of Deeds.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

CONTRACT FOR COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF GARBAGE AND REFUSE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 13, 1956.
To the City Council:
Gentlemen:

I submit herewith an order for the approval by the City Council of a contract made by the Commissioner of Public Works with Dooley Brothers, Inc., for collecting and removing garbage and refuse from District 11, Hyde Park, so called, during the one-year-ten-month period beginning June 1, 1956, and ending March 31, 1958. Under existing statutes, any such contract in excess of one year must be approved by your Honorable Body.

Dooley Brothers, Inc., were awarded this contract by the Commissioner of Public Works on the basis of a low bid received on March 14, the result of public advertisement.

I respectfully request the approval of the contract by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
April 11, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under date of March 29, 1956, your Honor approved the awarding of a two-month contract, effective April 1 of the current year, to Dooley Brothers, Inc., for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in District 11, Hyde Park. On the same date, your Honor also approved the awarding of a contract to the same contractor in the same district for a twenty-two-month period, effective from June 1 of this year to March 31 of 1958. The latter-referenced contract, however, will not be valid unless approved by the City Council, in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the City Charter.

Following the procedure established by the Law Department three years ago, I submit herewith two executed copies of the contract document for the above-referenced twenty-two-month period. This contract is awarded on the basis of the bid price of $6,390 per month which was the low bid received on Wednesday, March 14, as the result of publicly advertising for proposals. The list of bidders and the bids received on March 14 are listed below:

1-Year Term.
City to Furnish Dump.
Item 1-A.
Dooley Brothers, Inc.	$6,390
Frank J. Cavaliere	6,849
Joseph Amara & Son	7,300
James A. Freaney, Inc.	7,430
Joseph DeVirgilio	7,358
2-Year Term.
City to Furnish Dump.
Item 1-B.
Dooley Brothers, Inc.	$6,390
Frank J. Cavaliere	6,949
Joseph Amara & Son	6,590
James A. Freaney, Inc.	7,190
Joseph DeVirgilio	7,358

It is my unqualified opinion that it is in the best interests of the City of Boston to award a contract to the above-referenced contractor for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in District 11, Hyde Park, for the twenty-two-month period, referred to above and at the low bid price of $6,390 per month.

I respectfully recommend, therefore, that the attached orders providing for the award of the above-referenced contract be forwarded to the City Council for the approval of that Body.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the contract made by the Commissioner of Public Works in the name and behalf of the City of Boston for the collection and removal of refuse be, and hereby is, approved under St. 1909, c. 486, s. 6, as follows:

The foregoing message and order were referred to the Executive Committee.

ORDINANCE RE THE OFFICE OF SUPERVISOR OF BUDGETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 12, 1956.
To the City Council:
Gentlemen:

On February 20, 1956, at the suggestion of the then Director of Administrative Services, who had had long and extensive experience in the municipal service, I recommended to your Honorable Body an ordinance creating the office of Supervisor of Budgets. I have been informed that at your last meeting you rejected that ordinance "without prejudice."

Further consideration of the matter has but reaffirmed my belief that the office should be created. Effective budget work entails not only the assembly of statistical data which can readily be delegated to subordinates but also extensive policy making which of necessity must be conducted by appointive officials and not subordinates and concerns the administration of the budget after its adoption as well as its preparation for adoption. If the Director of Administrative Services is to be personally responsible for the budget, this time-consuming policy making must be done by him personally. Experience has shown that this diverts too much of his time from his major function as administrative overseer, policy reviewer, and general liaison officer under the Mayor and thus operates to defeat the prime purpose of the Administrative Services Director. Accordingly, I transmit again to your Honorable Body, and recommend anew that you pass, the accompanying ordinance which reorganizes the Administrative Services Department so as to include a Supervisor of Budgets.

The accompanying ordinance differs in one respect from the ordinance I submitted to you on February 20, 1956. Under that ordinance, the Supervisor of Budgets would have replaced the City Auditor on the Administrative Services Board. Under the accompanying ordinance, that Board, which at present is a five-member board, is increased to a seven-member board by the inclusion of the Supervisor of Budgets and, to assure full coordination of the revaluation project, the Assessor of Taxes as well.

I sincerely trust that your Honorable Body will approve the accompanying ordinance at an early date.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six.
An Ordinance Reorganizing the Administrative Services Department and Creating Therein the Office of Supervisor of Budgets.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

SECTION 1. The first paragraph of section 5 of chapter 3 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out clause (1), as appearing in section 3 of chapter 8 of the Ordinances of 1953, and inserting in place thereof the following clause:

(1) The director of administrative services, fifteen thousand dollars; the supervisor of budgets, ninety-five hundred dollars; the supervisor of personnel, ninety-five hundred dollars; and the purchasing agent, ninety-five hundred dollars.

SECT. 2. Section 1 of chapter 3A of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, as amended by section 13 of chapter 2 of the Ordinances of 1954, is hereby further amended by striking out the first two sentences and inserting in place thereof the following sentences: There shall be in the city a department, known as the Administrative Services Department, which shall be under the charge of a board, known as the Administrative Services Board, consisting of an officer, known as the Director of Administrative Services, who shall be chairman of the Board, an officer known as the Supervisor of Budgets, an officer known as the Supervisor of Personnel, an officer known as the Purchasing Agent, and the assessor of taxes, the city auditor, and the collector-treasurer, ex officio. The director of administrative services, the supervisor of budgets, the supervisor of personnel, and the purchasing agent shall each be appointed by the mayor for a term expiring on the first Monday of the January following the next biennial municipal election at which a mayor is elected, and shall devote their whole time to the duties of their respective offices.

SECT. 3. Section 3 of chapter 3A of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, as appearing in section 9 of chapter 8 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, is hereby amended by striking out, wherever appearing in said section, the words "director of administrative services" and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the words "supervisor of budgets."

SECT. 4. The powers and duties conferred or imposed on the director of administrative services by section 3 of chapter 3A of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, as appearing in section 9 of chapter 8 of the Ordinances of 1953, and the appropriations relating to such powers and duties, are hereby transferred to the supervisor of budgets created by section 2 of this ordinance.

SECT. 5. Every person holding an office or position subject to the civil service laws and rules shall, if the office or position is abolished by this ordinance, be reappointed without civil service examination or registration to a similar office or position with similar status in a new department or agency, or division of either, created, or a department or agency, or division of either, not abolished, by this ordinance; and every such person shall, upon such reappointment, retain all rights to retirement with pension that shall have accrued or would thereafter accrue to him; and his services shall be deemed to have been continuous to the same extent as if such abolition had not taken place. As used in this section, the term "agency" shall be construed as defined in section 5 of chapter 486 of the acts of 1909 as amended by section 1 of chapter 473 of the acts of 1953.

SECT. 6. This ordinance shall be deemed to be made under section 5 of chapter 486 of the acts of 1909, as amended by section 1 of chapter 473 of the acts of 1953, and shall be so construed that no person holding, whether under general or special law or otherwise, an office or position subject to the civil service laws and rules shall, by reason of the adoption of this ordinance, be without a similar office or position or be reduced in rank or compensation.

SECT. 7. Anything in section 3 of chapter 1 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947 to the contrary notwithstanding, this ordinance shall be published by the action of the city council in passing the same.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON LAND TAKING FOR OFF-STREET PARKING ON WASHINGTON STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, April 12, 1956.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Chapter 474, Acts of 1946, is the act which authorizes the city to establish public off-street parking facilities. Section 1, Paragraph "A," of this enabling act contains this clause:

"... no purchase and no award, settlement or agreement for judgment in eminent domain proceedings hereunder shall be made by the city or in its behalf, unless the terms of the proposed purchase, award, settlement or agreement, together with all pertinent facts, shall first have been submitted to the Boston Finance Commission not less than ten days before such purchase, award, settlement or agreement; ..."

On April 9 official notice was received by the Finance Commission to the effect the Real Property Board of the City of Boston had voted to make an award to the Trustees of the Ames Real Estate Trust for the taking by eminent domain of the parcel assessed as 558-570 Washington street, extending through to Harrison Avenue Extension. The rear portion of this parcel was taken by eminent domain on September 16, 1955, the front portion being taken on February 16, 1956.

The Real Property Board notifies that payment for both parts of the parcel is now to be made in the sum of $772,729.98, plus $17,751.63, which latter sum is to settle the 1956 real estate tax.

The important point mentioned in the letter is that agreement to settle for these two takings in the above-mentioned amount is based on consummation of the settlement not later than April 16, 1956.

It has been the practice of the Commission to transmit copies of such required notifications to the City Council in order that they thus may be placed on the public record. A copy of the letter referred to is therefore enclosed.

Respectfully submitted,
H. W. DWIGHT RUDD, Chairman,
LEO J. DUNN,
EDWARD U. LEE,
ROGER J. ABIZAID, M.D.,
HENRY A. SASSERNO,
The Finance Commission.

ROBERT E. CUNIFF,
Secretary.

City of Boston,
Real Property Department, April 5, 1956.
The Boston Finance Commission,
24 School Street, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:
The Real Property Board of the City of Boston, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 474 of the Acts of 1946, as amended, took by eminent domain, on September 16, 1955, the rear portion of the premises located at 558-570 Washington street, extending through to Harrison Avenue Extension, consisting of an area of 11,844 square feet. Upon this land was the rear portion of a six-story and basement brick and frame building.

On February 16, 1956, exercising its powers under the above-mentioned statutes, the Real Property Board took the balance of the premises at 558-570 Washington street, containing about 6,757 square feet, and the balance of the structure known as the Jefferson Building. Said property was owned by John S. Ames, William A. Parker, and John S. Ames, Jr., Trustees of the Ames Real Estate Trust.

In the original taking it was contemplated to sever the building at a certain point, and our appraiser, F. Paul Morgan of 45 Milk street, Boston, was instructed to analyze and appraise the value of the taking, the severance, and damage to that portion of the Jefferson Building which was not taken.

Our architects-engineers designing our parking facility at this locus were instructed to determine the cost of the damage to the front portion of said building and to submit their figures to our appraiser. Norman W. Kenney of C. W. Whittier & Bros., 82 Devonshire street, Boston, agents for the Trustees of Ames Real Estate Trust, employed their own engineer to independently arrive at the value of the damage to said front portion.

Our engineers submitted an estimate of $195,000, and the owner's architect submitted an estimate of $367,000, the difference in the estimates probably being due to the fact that the cost to remodel and alter buildings of this type, character, and age is most difficult to estimate, most contractors refusing to be pinned down to being firm on their estimates, not knowing what hidden problems may be found in the building as the work progresses.

The property was assessed for many years at $900,000, of which our appraiser applied $744,000 to 18,601 square feet of land and the balance of $156,000 to the improvements thereon.

We have been informed that the owners of the property filed a request to reduce the value for the past two years to $700,000, and that the Board of Assessors reduced the value of the whole to $800,000.

The value of the first taking, which was about two thirds of the total area as improved, would not be less than 50 per cent of the market value of the entire property.

If the basis of value for the entire property was $700,000 or $800,000, depending upon which figure is used, either that of the owner in applying for abatement, or the abated figure of the Board of Assessors, 50 per cent would then amount to $350,000 or $400,000.

To Whom It May Concern.

This is to certify that the records of the Assessing Department show the following ownership and assessment of real or personal estate in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, as of January 1 of the year indicated below:

Year	Ward	Owner	Location	Assessment on Real or Personal Estate *
1953	8	John S. Ames, William A. Parker, Richard C. Curtis, Trustees of the Ames Real Estate Trust	32-34 Harrison Av. 558-570 Washington St.	* R $900,000
1954	3	John S. Ames, William A. Parker, Richard C. Curtis, Trustees of the Ames Real Estate Trust	32-34 Harrison Av. 558-570 Washington St.	* R $900,000

APPROVAL OF STATE HOUSING BOARD.

Notice was received from the State Housing Board of approval of sale of six parcels of excess land and two parcels of property under section 6 of chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Although there is a disparity in the estimates of the two firms of engineers regarding the damages to the portion of the structure remaining, it was the opinion of our appraiser that it would not be unreasonable to expect a judgment in favor of the owner in an amount of $300,000 for correcting the conditions created by the severance. In other words, adding the amount of the severance damage to the value of the portion taken, would be between $650,000 and $700,000.

Our appraiser, after considerable study, gave an opinion that the value of the front land, not included in the first taking, 6,757 square feet, fronting on Washington street, if vacant land, was approximately $125,000 to $150,000 as of the date of taking. This parcel has 94.47 feet of frontage on Washington street, with a depth varying from 97 feet fronting on Chickering place and a depth of 65.5 on Norfolk place.

The vacant land included in the second taking was given an estimated value of about $22 per square foot.

It was the recommendation of our appraiser that the property be purchased at a price not to exceed $775,000 for the taking of the entire land and structure.

After several conferences with the agents of the owners, it is the intention of the Board to settle the claim of the Trustees of the Ames Real Estate Trust for the sum of $772,729.98 and that a separate award be made in the amount of $17,751.63 to cover the balance of the 1956 City of Boston real estate tax, as estimated.

These figures are based upon payment if settlement is effected on these figures not later than April 16, 1956.

Very truly yours,
HERMAN CAMP,
Commissioner of Real Property,
Chairman, Real Property Board.

City of Boston,
Assessing Department, April 5, 1956.

AMENDMENT TO CLASSIFICATION AND COMPENSATION PLANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Administrative Services Department,
April 9, 1956.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

The Director of Civil Service has notified me that in the Classification Plan established by the Civil Service Department for the City of Boston in accordance with the Civil Service law, the classification "Correction Officer and Shoemaker" was eliminated and inserted in its place was the classification "Correction Officer and Shoemaking Instructor." This change was made because the employee filling the position was not required to perform shoemaking but was only required to supervise the inmates assigned to this activity.

In view of the fact that the employees of the House of Correction come under the provisions of the Classification and Compensation Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County, in addition to holding Civil Service status it is necessary to request approval of the City Council to make this change in the County Plan to coincide with the Civil Service Classification. To bring about this required change there is forwarded herewith an order amending Schedule B of the Classification and Compensation Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County.

Favorable action on the attached order is requested by your Honorable Body.

Very truly yours,

JOHN A. SULLIVAN,
Supervisor of Personnel.

Ordered, That Schedule B of the Classification and Compensation Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County, adopted by order passed by the City Council on November 24, 1952, and approved by the Mayor on November 25, 1952, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by eliminating the title "Correction Officer and Shoemaker" and inserting in place thereof the title "Correction Officer and Shoemaking Instructor."

The communication from the Supervisor of Personnel and the order were referred to the Executive Committee.

Ordered, That the remaining duties of the Commissioner of Real Property be temporarily assigned by the commissioners and his Honor the Mayor to subordinates within the Real Property Department until, in the opinion of his Honor the Mayor, the off-street parking program no longer requires the exclusive attention of our Real Property Department Commissioner, at which time the said Commissioner will assume once again the full duties of his office.

President McCORMACK in the chair.

In connection with the foregoing order Coun. Piemonte moved that the order be referred to the Executive Committee for a full hearing, at which time we have before us the Director of Administrative Services, the representative of the Real Estate Commission and his Honor the Mayor or his representative.

He is further requested to confer with state and federal health officials in order that he may be in a position to pinpoint responsibility for the delay in this most essential program.

Dear Mr. Malloy:

Supplementing my letter to you of the 3d, I am enclosing herewith copy of communication which I have now received from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington, on the subject of poliomyelitis vaccine.

It is sincerely hoped that the information contained in Mr. MacKenzie's letter, as well as the additional data which he has enclosed, will prove most helpful to you at this time.

Should you feel there is any way in which I might be of service in the future, I shall be happy to have you contact me again and, with kindest regards, I remain

Department of Health, Education, and Welfare,
April 9, 1956.

Dear Senator Kennedy:

This is in reply to your communication of April 3, 1956, regarding a resolution of the City Council of Boston, Mass., on the subject of poliomyelitis vaccine.

We are pleased to report that during the month of March of this year the Public Health Service released a total of almost eight million cubic centimeters (doses) of poliomyelitis vaccine. This is the largest amount released in any one month since April, 1955, the first month of the program. Massachusetts' share of the vaccine released in March is more than 200,000 cubic centimeters.

The manufacturers of the vaccine, with whom we held a series of conferences recently, have assured us that they are deeply concerned over the need to provide the largest possible supply of safe, effective poliomyelitis vaccine. Several of the manufacturers indicated that they plan to expand their staffs and facilities in an effort to increase production. We are hopeful that during the next few months production and release of the vaccine will continue to increase.

We are enclosing some material which you may wish to forward to the Boston City Council. Your interest in this program is appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN R. MACKENZIE,
Legislative Liaison Officer.

HON. JOHN F. KENNEDY,
United States Senate.

U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare
Office of the Secretary,
Washington 25, D. C.

Tuesday, March 6, 1956.

Marion B. Folsom, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, has concluded conferences with each of the five manufacturers of polio vaccine.

The secretary said in a statement:

"Both the manufacturers and the department are concerned over the need to provide the largest possible supply of safe and effective poliomyelitis vaccine.

"This vaccine is one of the most complex to produce of any in the Nation's experience. The manufacturers and department officials have reviewed the current outlook and have discussed how they may be mutually helpful in improving the supply.

"Several of the manufacturers indicated they are taking steps, involving additional personnel and equipment, in an effort to increase their output.

"The manufacturers are hopeful that within the next few months, production and release of the vaccine will be increased over the rate of the past several months.

"Even with increased production, however, it is likely to be many months before enough vaccine will be available to provide the recommended three injections to all who need it. Accurate predictions of future supplies are impossible.

"The vaccine available is being distributed equitably among the States, without delay, on the basis of each State's population of children under 15 and pregnant women. The public generally has cooperated in following recommended priorities for the age groups most susceptible to polio, and should continue to do so.

"I am grateful to the manufacturers for their cooperation in these conferences and in the effort to provide maximum protection to the people against polio as soon as possible."

The Public Health Service so far has released 36,244,974 cc. of the vaccine for public use.

Dr. Lowell T. Coggeshall, Special Assistant to the secretary for Health and Medical Affairs; Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, and Dr. James A. Shannon, Director of the Service's National Institutes of Health, participated in the conferences with manufacturers.

Thursday, March 15, 1956.

Chairman J. Percy Priest (D., Tenn.) of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce made public today a summary statement on poliomyelitis vaccine production. In releasing this statement, Chairman Priest made the following comments:

"Every day more parents come to realize that only small amounts of poliomyelitis vaccine—falling far below present needs—are available in their communities for the vaccination of children under age twenty and expectant mothers, constituting the priority group. The Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has given careful consideration to the availability of adequate supplies of safe and effective vaccine. The Committee takes cognizance of presently existing shortages of available vaccine supplies.

"The Committee desires to emphasize, on the other hand, the magnitude of the achievement that the American people today have every reasonable assurance that supplies which will become available will be both safe and effective. This accomplishment is the result of wholehearted cooperation among the scientists in the pharmaceutical industry, private research institutions, and Government agencies.

"Less than a year ago, approval of poliomyelitis vaccine by the Federal Government had to be suspended and public confidence in the safety of the vaccine was placed in serious jeopardy. Today, instead of being ready to criticize Government agencies and the pharmaceutical industry for existing shortages, we should be mindful of the fact that if it were not for the valiant efforts of these agencies and the present producers, no safe and effective vaccine would be available at all at this time.

"The Committee is confident that each of the five companies presently engaged in the manufacture of vaccine will, produce the maximum amount of vaccine that can be produced with reasonable assurance of safety and efficacy."

COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE. STATEMENT ON POLIOMYELITIS VACCINE PRODUCTION.

On January 24, 1956, the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce held hearings on legislation to extend through June 30, 1957, the Poliomyelitis Vaccination Assistance Act of 1955 (Public Law 377, 84th Congress). This legislation since then has passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, and has been approved by the President (P.L. 411, 84th Cong., 2nd Sess.). In considering this legislation, the paramount question in the committee's mind was the availability of adequate supplies of safe and effective vaccine.

In the course of the hearings, the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, furnished the committee, upon its request, estimates of anticipated production of vaccine during the year 1956. It was estimated that during the calendar year 1956, approximately 166 million net cc. of vaccine might become available for use. This amount, plus approximately 30 million cc. released prior to January 1, 1956, would make a total of 196 million cc. available by December 31, 1956. This quantity would suffice to make three injections available for each of the 65 million children under age 20 and expectant mothers, constituting the priority groups.

In furnishing these rough estimates, Dr. Scheele cautioned that the figures submitted by him were subject to many contingencies. Dr. Scheele pointed out that the difficulty of making the vaccine was one of the principal factors which make it inadvisable to attempt to make firm projections or to place too much reliance in the accuracy of such estimates.

In order to get a first-hand impression and better appreciation of the complexities inherent in the production and testing of the Salk vaccine, the committee decided to accept an invitation extended to it by Eli Lilly & Co. of Indianapolis, Indiana, to visit the company's plants and laboratories. The Chairman of the Committee, Congressman J. Percy Priest (D., Tenn.) and thirteen members of the committee visited Eli Lilly's facilities on February 24 and 25, 1956. The Lilly Company was one of two companies whose vaccine was used during the field trials conducted by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in 1954. During 1955 and the first six weeks of 1956, almost 24 million cc's of Lilly vaccine were approved by the Federal Government. This amount represents approximately 70 per cent of the nation's total supply of vaccine approved during that period.

The visit to Eli Lilly's vaccine manufacturing facilities has provided the committee with a unique opportunity to gain some insight into the reasons why it is not a simple matter to step up production of the Salk vaccine. The biggest problem in expanding operations is obtaining trained personnel. The principal, and perhaps only, source from which such personnel can be secured on short notice is from other programs of the Lilly Company. The committee is gratified that the Lilly Company has decided to take this important step.

Since the testing of vaccine fluid has failed to keep pace with production of vaccine fluid, the Lilly Company has accumulated a considerable backlog awaiting testing. The company expected to complete its tests on this backlog by November 1, 1956. In view of the great need for additional vaccine supplies, the company, by shifting personnel, now expects to complete tests on this backlog by June 30, 1956. It is now the goal of Eli Lilly & Co. to test 60 million doses during the first six months of this year. This goal is 20 million doses greater than the amount of vaccine previously scheduled for completion by June 30, 1956.

Eugene N. Beesley, President of Eli Lilly & Co., who gave the committee these estimates, cautioned, however, just as did Dr. Scheele in submitting his estimates, that unforeseen delays may occur in the testing procedure which might cause vaccine actually available for use by June 30, 1956, to fall well below this goal.

Mr. Beesley further stated that virus fluid production would be stepped up from 4,500,000 doses per month to 6,800,000 doses per month. If this rate of fluid production is maintained successfully, and if no unforeseen delays occur in the expanded testing operations, 40 million doses of finished vaccine may be expected from the company during the last six months of this year.

Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, Marion B. Folsom, after conferences with each of the five manufacturers of polio vaccine, has reported that several manufacturers were taking steps, involving additional personnel and equipment, in an effort to increase their output. However, he states "accurate predictions of future supplies are impossible."

Apart from securing additional trained manpower and equipment, care must, of course, be taken that supplies of raw materials are adequate to stay abreast of the stepped up production of polio vaccine. There have been some preliminary indications that eventually refinements in the field of tissue culture may obviate the need for monkeys or other animals now used as a source of tissue for virus production. At the present time and for the immediate future, however, monkey kidneys are the indispensable raw material required for vaccine production.

Suitable arrangements are now in existence with the Indian Government to facilitate imports of rhesus monkeys for use in medical research and in the preparation and testing of polio vaccine. As long as this cooperation on the part of the Indian Government continues there is no reason to believe that a shortage of rhesus monkeys will become a factor limiting the supply of polio vaccine.

While the committee appreciates the desire of the American people to see that ample supplies of vaccine will become available in time to complete present vaccination programs on schedule, the committee is deeply impressed with the complexities of the manufacturing and testing processes involved in the making of the vaccine. If the attitude of Eli Lilly & Co. is representative of the attitude of the other four companies presently engaged in the manufacture of vaccine—and the committee has no reason to doubt that this is the case—then each of the companies will produce the maximum amount of vaccine that can be produced with reasonable assurance of safety.

The committee believes that the American people would rather suffer a slight delay in present vaccination programs than see the programs jeopardized in any way by a recurrence of events which led to the suspension of vaccine approval by the Federal Government in April, 1955. At that time, public confidence in the vaccine as a safe and effective weapon in the prevention of poliomyelitis was placed in jeopardy, and only through the heroic and cooperative efforts of scientists in industry, private research institutions, and government agencies was the program resumed without permanent damage to public confidence.

While it is gratifying that forecasts for vaccine production during 1956 are optimistic, it is perhaps even more gratifying that the American people have every reasonable assurance that supplies which will be available will be both safe and effective.

U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare
Public Health Service
Washington, D. C.

Friday, March 30, 1956.

Release of 3,531,645 cc. of poliomyelitis vaccine was announced today by the Public Health Service.

This brought the total announced in March to 7,936,155 cc., the largest amount for any one month since last April, when 7,974,452 cc. were released in the first month of the program. The second highest previous month was September, with 5.9 million cc.

Today's announcement included 1,402,785 cc. produced by Park, Davis & Co., 2,002,536 cc. produced by Eli Lilly & Co., and 126,324 cc. produced by the Pitman-Moore Company.

The total released so far is now 43,809,204 cc. There are about 53 million children under 15 and expectant mothers who are in the current priority group.

"March supplies, which are more than double the amount released in February, show an expected improvement in the production picture," Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele said. "The vaccine manufacturers expect a steady flow of vaccine in substantial amounts in the months ahead."

"Some physicians have been setting aside vaccine for second or third injections after giving the first injection. This was an understandable practice because of short supplies and uncertainties in production. I believe the supply picture has improved to the point where it is now practical for physicians to use their available vaccine for first injections, and rely upon receiving fresh supplies by the time second shots are due. This would free more vaccine for more immediate use before the polio season this Summer."

Dr. Scheele said the Public Health Service laboratories "are keeping current in reviewing all lots of vaccine on which full data—required under the stringent regulations governing potency, purity, and safety—are made available. It is the practice of the Public Health Service laboratories to conduct safety testing concurrently with the testing performed by the manufacturers in every instance when material is submitted early for such testing."

The increased release of vaccine during the last half of March will be reflected in stepped-up shipments to the States during the coming weeks.

Including the supplies announced today, the vaccine has been released through the following channels in these amounts: National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 13,723,179 cc.; states and territories for distribution through commercial channels and public agencies, 29,512,071 cc.; for export under licenses approved by the U. S. Department of Commerce, 11,214 cc. In addition 562,740 cc. went into commercial channels before voluntary controls were established last spring.

The attached table shows the total amount each state and territory has been allocated to date for commercial and public agency use.

(Note to editors: Tables showing state allocations from the 18th and 19th allocations—which are included in the totals on attached table—are available upon request.)

* This is less than the amount previously announced for NFIP, due to the return of 16,362 cc for reallocation to the states.

Dear Mr. Malloy:

I hasten to send you the enclosed copy of a letter just received from the Acting Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare with regard to the distribution of polio vaccine. There is also enclosed related material.

It has been a pleasure to look into this matter for the City Council.

Sincerely yours,

LEVERETT SALTONSTALL,
United States Senator.

The Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare,
Washington,
April 11, 1956.

Dear Senator Saltonstall:

This is in reply to your communication of April 2, 1956, regarding a resolution of the City Council of Boston, Mass., on the subject of poliomyelitis vaccine.

We are pleased to report that during the month of March of this year the Public Health Service released a total of almost eight million cubic centimeters (doses) of poliomyelitis vaccine. This is the largest amount released in any one month since April 1955, the first month of the program. Massachusetts' share of the vaccine released in March is more than 200,000 cubic centimeters.

The manufacturers of the vaccine, with whom we held a series of conferences recently, have assured us that they are deeply concerned over the need to provide the largest possible supply of safe, effective poliomyelitis vaccine. Several of the manufacturers indicated that they plan to expand their staffs and facilities in an effort to increase production. We are hopeful that during the next few months production and release of the vaccine will continue to increase.

We are enclosing some material which you may wish to forward to the Boston City Council. Your interest in this program is appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

HEROLD C. HUNT,
Acting Secretary.

HON. LEVERETT SALTONSTALL,
United States Senate.

(Annexed hereto are identical releases of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare printed in the foregoing communications from U. S. Senator John F. Kennedy.)

Pamphlets, pledge cards, and report envelopes, in connection with the 1956 American Cancer Society Campaign for Funds are being issued to the department today. The requirements of the society are explained in the pamphlets and the assistance of all employees is invited in aid of this worthy cause. LIFE SPAN DOUBLED

The Health Department of the City of Providence, Rhode Island, recently published encouraging statistics for present-day residents of that city. The department, which will reach the century mark in May, reported the average city resident is a far healthier person and lives much longer than did his counterpart of a century ago.

Dr. Joseph Smith, health superintendent, said the death rate in the city has been reduced more than half, while the life expectancy has more than doubled.

AUTO DEBTS HIGH

The Federal Reserve Board reports that consumers reduced their indebtedness during February but took on more debt for automobile purchases than is usual for the month.

The reserve board said the public's debt for on-the-cuff buying declined during the month by 327 million dollars, to a total of $35,272,000,000. It is normal for consumer credit to shrink during January and February, as the public pays off indebtedness incurred during the Christmas rush.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES BOARD MOVES TOWARD GOAL TO STREAMLINE THE CITY DEPARTMENTS

The Administrative Services Board has submitted to Mayor John B. Hynes its second annual report. This coordinating agency of city government, established in 1953 under the Reorganization Plan, again emphasizes the challenging magnitude of the task involved in the streamlining of our municipal procedures. This 1955 report was prepared under the direction of Charles J. Fox, who retired as Director of Administrative Services early in 1956.

Covering the period from January 1 to December 31, the report outlines the steps taken on 25 different projects over the past year in the ultimate achievement of Mayor Hynes' long-term objectives "to bring about more economy in operation, and better understanding of municipal fiscal needs." It was the work of the Administrative Services Board that created, in 1954, with the encouragement of the Mayor and City Council, the new, simplified form of Boston's municipal budget so patterned as to present a clear picture of the city's finance even to citizens inexperienced in the details of municipal finance.

A new system now being installed in the City Printing Plant for the publishing of the police and voting lists has been of keen interest to the Administrative Services Board over the past year. A labor-saving, cost-reducing method is now being set up. An addressograph offset system, replacing the letter press process, is estimated to ultimately effect a saving to the city of many thousands of dollars. The population and voting lists will be "standing" from year to year on punched metal plates, with necessary corrections, deletions, and insertions constantly taking place. This system will be available also to fill other departmental mailing needs such as the sending out of tax bills.

Standardization of forms, another new system put into effect this year, covers 19 city departments. The Board had a study made of 4,000 forms during 1955 and brought about revision, alteration, or elimination of 3,777. In its report the Board points out that the savings of this new system can only be estimated after it is in effect for a year.

As a result of Administrative Board surveys the Parks and Recreation Department has installed improved methods and procedures in inventory control, and the Hospital Department is now establishing new procedures in the various aspects of hospital management.

Setting up of the Central Mailing Unit in City Hall was another project of the Administrative Services Board during the past year. This system has expedited the flow of communications between all the departments and has cut out unnecessary mailing expense of outgoing mail.

The cost of typewriter and office machine maintenance in city government is a big expense item. After a survey by the Board, an Office Machine Service Unit was set up at City Hall early this year where servicing and maintenance of typing and other machines is carried on by Civil Service personnel instead of having the work done by private firms. This procedure is expected to reduce substantially an important cost item to the city.

There are many projects under continuing study by the Administrative Services Board, such as the extension of the use of labor-saving office equipment in all departments; development of a central store-room for commonly used items; a program of combined purchases of items used by more than one department; a program for the improvement of assessment procedures to be worked out with the Assessing Department; a review of all fuel-burning installations to determine possible improvements; creation of a centralized licensing bureau; and centralization of tabulating equipment.

Chairman Fox of the Administrative Services Board directed a survey of the crime reporting procedures in the Police Department. Result: A new crime-reporting procedure, now being put into effect. Another project of the Board is the preparation of a procedural manual for the guidance of all city officials in the conduct of their departments.

Serving on the Administrative Services Board also are the Purchasing Agent, Supervisor of Personnel, Collector-Treasurer, and City Auditor.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,

SCOPE OF CITY COUNCIL OUTLINED BY ITS PRESIDENT

EDWARD J. McCORMACK, JR., KEYNOTES BOSTON TOPIC AT FINAL B.C. SEMINAR

This is the first of a series of five reports on Boston's problems by members of the City Council.

As chairman of a panel discussion of Boston problems at the final Boston College seminar for the 1955-56 series on Tuesday, April 10, City Council President Edward J. McCormack, Jr., spoke as follows:

It was once written that "men are never so likely to decide a question rightly as when they discuss it freely." Certainly through this seminar medium we have enjoyed a free discussion of every municipal issue—I trust that those of us charged with the responsibility of making the decisions have, in most cases, done so rightly.

This seminar series has been informative, educational, and of great benefit in bringing to public notice the problems confronting the City of Boston. Those who have attended have heard many theories expounded and various programs suggested that could possibly alleviate or solve some or all of our fiscal and economic ills.

Today we will not go too deeply into theory—we will discuss action that has been taken in the past by the City Council, some subjects currently under consideration, and matters that are expected to be submitted to us in the near or distant future for decision.

Plan A Since 1952

My colleagues on the platform (four other city councillors) have specific fields to explore, so I will limit my remarks to a brief history of the present Body and a partial list of its major accomplishments, trusting that our critics will excuse my use of that descriptive phrase "major accomplishments."

The Plan A form of government, with its nine city councillors elected at large, came into being as a result of a referendum vote on November 8, 1949, when over 146,000 of our fellow citizens indicated a desire to replace the old 22-man ward council form of government. The first Council under Plan A was sworn in on January 7, 1952.

I personally believe that the thinking of the city fathers in these days must be broad and general and not limited or provincial. With all due respect to the many fine men who served as ward councillors, I submit that under the present economic handicaps of Boston, the city-wide Council best serves the needs of the citizenry of our state capital. The powers and duties of the Council are familiar I am sure, to a large extent, to all of you here today. I do not think it is necessary to spend a great deal of time enumerating or elaborating upon all of them. If you are interested in what they are I refer you to our city charter as a source of reference. Some students of government say our powers are too broad; while others say we have no power at all. Actually, this Body in which I serve does not have the powers it deserves in some matters; but in others, where it should have limited influence, it has a great deal to say.

Can't Cut School Budget

For example, the Council will soon discuss the School Committee budget—we can't make any cuts in this budget—save in that amount over the statutory limit for 1956 of $22,800,000. Yet on loans for school building construction, the City Council has sole initiating power. In other words, on the budget we have limited power, particularly since the overage is usually limited to personnel items, yet in broad planning we, and not the school board, have exclusive jurisdiction to initiate financing. Similar situations exist in other phases of governmental operations, and a glance at our powers contained in the charter might prove to be of interest to those interested in such details.

Carl Sandburg once wrote a poem about a soldier of fortune who asked the Sphinx to give him in one sentence a revelation of the wisdom of the ages. The answer of the Sphinx contained in the poem—"Don't expect too much!" While perhaps not too much was expected of our Body our record will disclose that our deeds far exceed your expectations.

What are some of the major accomplishments of this Body? I will discuss several briefly, trusting that the question and answer period will focus attention on others, which, for lack of time, I cannot adequately explore.

Budget Reforms

First—the present nine-man City Council is responsible for the enactment of city ordinances which brought into being the reorganization of city departments and the reclassification of city and county employees. These ordinances are by no means perfect. The Mayor and the Council are constantly trying to adjust inequities in the reclassification plan, and I for one feel that the reorganization plan should have some adjustment, particularly, as means of illustration, in the Administrative Services Department and by having one man temporarily assigned exclusively to the off-street parking program. We should not have a 20-million-dollar program be in effect an auxiliary function of the Real Property Department as it is at present.

Perhaps the most important function we perform is in connection with the annual budget. The City Council brought about reforms in the budgetary procedure by replacing the old and hard to understand line type budget with a performance budget. With this new form of presentation we were able to reduce the so-called "extremely tight" budget for 1956 by $800,000. There is still room for improvement. It is the intention of several of my colleagues and myself to press for some form of post-audit and/or outside analysis to assist the Council not only in the screening of the budget, but also to determine that the money we appropriate is spent for the purpose for which we appropriate it.

We have approved loan orders amounting to 10 million dollars above the debt limit for downtown off-street parking, and we have approved a transfer of funds from parking meter receipts for the metered suburban off-street parking at Roslindale, Brighton, Dudley

Street Terminal, North End, Mattapan Square, Hyde Park, Uphams Corner, East Boston, and Jamaica Plain. We believe that off-street parking is vital to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, who pay over 60 per cent of our city's taxes. We feel that the program must be pressed forward with all possible vigor, but we believe that a master plan must be followed, which will best enable us to cope with our outside competition.

We also have appropriated loan orders of $3,500,000 for an incinerator and $10,000,000 of what will ultimately be a 40-million-dollar school building program. George Hyland recently returned from Milwaukee and I am advised that this incinerator which has been authorized by Council appropriations of $2,700,000 in 1953 and $800,000 in 1954 will, within 14 months, be a reality. The School Building Program is proceeding on schedule in accordance with the master plan.

We approved the so-called "New York Streets" urban redevelopment plan, and we have insisted that the Boston Housing Authority report to us monthly to prevent any lag in the West End Redevelopment Project and expedite the urban renewal programs. Some of us on the Council feel that Boston hasn't taken full advantage of these Federal funds. The fault lies not in our personnel, but in our lack of the same. Like our City Planning Board, the urban redevelopment section of the Boston Housing Authority is, in my opinion, greatly understaffed.

Assessing Reforms

Through Council orders we have brought about reforms in assessing practices which include the establishment of a Board of Review, the publishing of a list of all abatements, and more recently the appropriation of $75,000 as the first installment of an equalization survey of commercial property.

This Council has enjoyed and encouraged close cooperation between our Body and the various agencies representing civic, mercantile, real estate, and public-spirited groups in our city. It is impossible for us in this day and age to keep abreast of developments in all phases of government; and the facts, figures, and opinions resulting from surveys made by these men have been extremely beneficial to us in arriving at intelligent decisions on matters of mutual concern. We try at all times to legislate on important issues only after public hearings; and these groups, as well as individual citizens, have been invited to give us the benefit of their suggestions and advice.

There are many improvements which have been brought about by Council orders. Treated separately they are perhaps, speaking relatively, of little consequence, but when considered as an integral part of the whole municipal structure they add up to a substantial contribution by this nine-man Council toward the efficiency of city affairs.

Much credit can be given to a chief executive of a city for progressive and forward-looking programs. Yet a Mayor, in most instances, can only accomplish that part of his program which has the cooperation and approval of the City Council.

I am proud to be the President of this Body. It is a Body of great responsibility with an outstanding membership. I sincerely hope that from this partial report of our stewardship from me and from the discussions of my associates that will follow, you will believe as I do, that we have met with some measure of success in fulfilling our obligations to you and to the people of the City of Boston.

MAYOR ASKS COUNCIL TO VOTE ANOTHER $450,000 FOR SNOW REMOVAL COST

The City Council, at its session of Monday, April 30, received and referred to its Committee on Appropriations and Finance an order of Mayor Hynes seeking an additional $450,000 appropriation to finance the expenditures of the March snowstorms.

In that connection the Mayor submitted the following communication to the Council:

GENTLEMEN:

I submit herewith an order for an additional appropriation of $450,000 for snow removal.

On April 9, 1956, your Honorable Body appropriated $250,000 for snow removal purposes, this amount representing payments for overtime worked by departmental employees. It now appears, after a recapitulation of snow removal costs, that an additional $450,000 will be necessary to meet outstanding commitments and to provide a modest amount for the purchase of salt, sand, equipment parts, etc., which might well be needed during the latter part of this year.

The attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works explains in general detail the allocation of snow removal expenses for 1956.

I respectfully request passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

Text of the Order

Ordered, That the sum of money specified for snow removal in the schedule hereinafter set out be, and hereby is, appropriated for the purpose hereinafter specified, said sum to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates of the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore or hereinafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes, and interest thereon apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for.

Snow Removal.....$450,000

Mayor John B. DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The proposals, as submitted, were carefully studied and analyzed by the engineering firm of Metcalf & Eddy, the consultants who were engaged by the city in 1951 to prepare the necessary plans and specifications for the subject incinerator. We held many conferences with representatives of the latter firm in an effort to come to a decision that would be in the best interests of the City of Boston in connection with the award of a contract for the incinerator equipment. On the basis of the low bids submitted for the 900-ton, 750-ton, and 600-ton units, it was estimated that the total cost of the incinerator would be as follows:

900-ton,	$4,200,000
750-ton,	$4,100,000
600-ton,	$3,600,000

The above estimates include the cost of equipment, building construction, land damages, engineering fees, and miscellaneous charges. Bids for the construction of the building will be requested after the contract has been awarded for the equipment.

We estimate that we have approximately $3,800,000 available for the construction of the complete plant. Therefore, due to the inadequacy of the available appropriation, we were, in the final analysis, required to consider only those bids submitted for the four furnaces of 600-ton capacity, and to discontinue, very reluctantly, any further consideration of the bids submitted for the 750 and 900-ton furnaces. The plant will be designed, however, so as to provide sufficient room for the eventual installation of additional furnaces to bring it up to the required 900-ton capacity.

Subsequent to the receipt of the above bids, in company with Mr. John Flaherty of this office and Mr. Lester Murphy of the Boston Finance Commission, I inspected incinerators located in Baltimore, Washington, D.C., Hampstead, Long Island, and New York City. In addition, I made a trip to Milwaukee recently to observe incinerators in operation in that city. The incinerators inspected were of the circular type, the rectangular, and also the traveling-grate type.

As stated hereinbefore, we held many conferences with the consulting engineers concerning the award of this contract. In addition, and in an effort to select the type of incinerator that, in our opinion, would be the best for Boston, I held conferences with Mr. Robert Cuniff and Mr. Lester Murphy of the Boston Finance Commission, in order to get the benefit of their advice and opinions, as they have devoted a great deal of time and study to this subject over the past fifteen years.

Incidentally, the subject contract, in addition to the providing of furnaces for burning refuse, also provides for the installation of waste heat boilers for the manufacture of steam to be used for heating the City Hospital and possibly the new Fire Headquarters, the Traffic building, and buildings in the vicinity used by the Public Works Department. In fact, the Boston Edison Company has shown considerable interest in the steam that we will be able to produce through the utilization of waste heat, and is studying the possibility of entering into a contract with the city for the purchase of all available steam produced at the incinerator. It appears, therefore, that the steam will be a valuable by-product of the process of incineration, and the extra expense to which we are put by the installation of waste heat boilers will probably result in substantial future revenues from the sale of steam and by its utilization at the City Hospital and other city-owned buildings in the vicinity. Therefore, the subject contract is of twofold importance in that we must not only provide for the burning of refuse in a sanitary and efficient manner, but also for the production of the maximum amount of steam from the available waste heat. With these two thoughts in mind, we conducted a study, in conjunction with Metcalf & Eddy, our consulting engineers, of the entire subject matter, including the bids received and the plans which accompanied the bids and which showed the proposed layout of the furnaces, combustion chambers, waste heat boilers, by-pass flues, etc. The proposals of the Nichols Engineering Research Corporation and of the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Company were the highest received, respectively, for Alternate A and Alternate B, and were rejected for that reason only; as was the bid of George Allen & Son, Inc., which was submitted for Alternate C.

The proposal of the American Incinerator Corporation was considered and under date of February 3, I received a written report from Metcalf & Eddy recommending that no further consideration be given to the proposal submitted by the latter-referenced bidder as they (the consulting engineers) were of the opinion that the design of the layout, as submitted by the bidder, was faulty and basically unsatisfactory. This matter was reconsidered by Metcalf & Eddy, as the result of a letter of March 1 that was sent to your Honor by the bidder, and under date of March 8, I received another written report from the consultants reaffirming their opinion of February 3 and again recommending that no further consideration be given to the proposal submitted by the bidder, the American Incinerator Corporation.

This left only two bids to be considered; those submitted by the Morse-Boulger Company for circular furnaces and by the George Allen Company for rectangular furnaces. There is divided opinion among public works officials and consulting engineers as to the respective performances of these two different types of furnaces and, therefore, we carefully considered the proposals submitted by both companies before coming to a final decision on the matter.

The bid submitted by Morse-Boulger under Alternate A for furnishing four furnaces of 600-ton capacity was $2,331 less than that submitted by the Allen Company, under Alternate B. While this difference is not serious in a bid approximating $960,000, it was one of the principal reasons advanced by the Morse-Boulger Company for awarding them the contract and, therefore, we did give careful consideration to that factor, among others.

In a contract of this kind, we must, of necessity, allow the bidders some latitude as to the design of the layout, as each bidder's layout differs in some respect from that of his competitors. The specifications gave detailed information as to the capacities, sizes, etc., of the furnaces, boilers, combustion chambers, etc., but it included only a suggested schematic arrangement of the equipment; leaving the detailed and precise arrangement to the bidders. As stated, the bidders had a certain amount of latitude in the precise design of the layout. Under such circumstances, the acceptance of the lowest bid would not necessarily mean that the city would be getting the best value for its money. Therefore, further examination of the proposals submitted by the two lowest bidders was required.

The suggested layout, as included in the specifications, was substantially adopted by all bidders, with the exception of the American Incinerator Company and Morse-Boulger. The latter two elected to furnish only one by-pass flue, in place of the two flues shown on the layout, included in the specifications. The one flue design gave these two bidders a decided advantage over the other three bidders, as the furnishing of one flue was far less costly than the furnishing of two flues, despite the fact that the single flue had ample capacity and represented a satisfactory design. However, the consulting engineers preferred the twin by-pass flues, as they felt that they provided for a more satisfactory design than the single flue. It is my opinion, concurred in by Metcalf & Eddy, that the Morse-Boulger Company would not have been the low bidder if it had followed the schematic layout as shown in the specifications. Under the circumstances, it is my opinion that the bid as submitted by the Morse-Boulger Company is not the lowest submitted, taking into consideration what each of the two low bidders proposes to furnish to the City. I have gone into detail concerning this particular matter, as it is one of the strong arguments submitted by representatives of the Morse-Boulger Company for awarding them the contract. This company has submitted many other reasons why the contract should be awarded to it, and we have considered all of them carefully. We have also given the same consideration to the George Allen Company.

As stated, there is divided opinion among public works officials and consultants concerning the performances of circular furnaces as installed by the Morse-Boulger Company and rectangular furnaces as installed by the Allen Company. However, the trend appears to be toward rectangular furnaces, equipped with Flynn and Emrich

RENT ADJUSTMENTS IN HOUSING DEVELOPMENTS TO BE EFFECTIVE JUNE 1

The Boston Housing Authority this week announced that the annual review of tenants' incomes on all developments had been completed and that rents would be adjusted as of June 1, 1956.

Notices of the adjustments were placed in the mail Tuesday, May 1.

Adjustments have been made every year since 1940 on the federally-aided developments and this procedure was made applicable to the state-aided developments in 1955.

All developments in the city are affected except the Lanham Act Development at Old Colony.

There are fourteen federally-aided developments containing some 9,283 apartments affected as well as 3,681 apartments in the ten state-aided developments.

All developments involved contain 12,964 families, with an estimated population of 55,600.

Under the law the incomes of all members of the families must be used in determining the rents to be paid, although the incomes of minors are excluded in determining the eligibility of a family to remain in residence.

Heat, hot water, gas, and electricity are supplied for the amount of rent paid in all of the developments except that at Gallivan Boulevard. This development consists of only duplex and single houses with individual heating plants so that the tenants pay for all of their own utilities, and a different rent schedule is used to reflect the charges paid by the tenants.

On a city-wide basis 91.2 per cent of the families are eligible to remain in residence, with 8.8 per cent or 996 families being ineligible to stay because of excess incomes. These families will be requested to find other accommodations. Of the ineligible families 729 are in the federally-aided developments and 267 are in the state-aided developments.

The city-wide increase in rents for eligible tenants on the federally-aided developments averages $3.01 and for the same group on the state-aided developments averages $4.24.

The new rents on the federally-aided developments range from a low of $18 to a high of $108 with the average at approximately $47.

The new rents on the state-aided developments range from $41 to a high of $107 with the average about $61.

Of the total number of tenants re-examined on a city-wide basis, 57.5 per cent received increases, 10.3 per cent received decreases, and 32.2 per cent remained the same.

The average income on the federal developments is now $2,753 and $3,483 in the state-aided developments.

All of the figures used in this release are based on a tabulation started this week of 11,278 families out of 12,964 to be affected. The information on the remaining families is being tabulated but will not affect the general over-all picture as shown in the release.

BOSTON TRAFFIC COMMISSION. White Lines

On April 27 Mayor Hynes approved a contract, by the Traffic Commission, to White Lines, Inc., 5 Cross street, West Newton, in the sum of $27,965.50, to do roadway painting in conformity with specifications contained in proposals advertised by that department.

The following bids were received:

All Prismo.—Industrial Welding Company, $35,812.50; Safety Lines Company, $35,524.50; Traffic Control Company, $31,521; White Lines, Inc., $27,965.50.

Alternate.—Industrial Welding Company, $35,812.50; Safety Lines Company, $23,226.50; Traffic Control Company, $28,167; White Lines, Inc., $25,170.50.

The Traffic Commissioner wrote the following comment to Mayor Hynes on the award:

"Our specifications called for furnishing of equipment and labor for the placement of white Prismo paint on center lines and crosswalks throughout the city and an alternate was offered, subject to our acceptance, for the placement of white center lines using Prismo paint and crosswalks using a fast-drying paint. Therefore, as is indicated above, the lowest bidder for using all Prismo paint on center lines and crosswalks is White Lines, Inc., and the lowest bidder for the alternate is Safety Lines Company."

"It is our opinion that we should accept the lowest bid of White Lines, Inc., for the use of Prismo on center lines and crosswalks. We are able to supply from stock reflective beads and a substantial amount of Prismo paint. This is the paint which is quite generally used by cities and towns of the Commonwealth."

"Our reason for not adopting the alternate proposal is because, upon comparison of costs and figures, it appears that the savings would not warrant the amount of repainting which would be necessary on crosswalks if a fast-drying paint were used. From our experience we know that fast-drying paint is more economical to put down, but because it does not last long it is not as effective as a regular roadway paint and therefore the public safety is not served to the same extent as applies when a long lasting paint is used."

"Our commission met today and after discussion of this matter unanimously agreed to award to the White Lines, Inc., the lowest bidder, the contract for roadway painting above described, subject to your approval."

Planting Trees

Mayor Hynes, on April 27, approved the award of a contract, by the Parks and Recreation Department, for furnishing and planting of trees on streets and parkways in Boston, to Blueview Nurseries, 32 Gaston street, Roxbury, in the amount of $22,800.

The other bidders were:

Stephen Hopkins Associates, Inc., $24,380; Fred Ralston & Co., Inc., $32,200.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved an extension of time for the completion of the contract with Kane & Diaferio Construction Company, 68 Granger street, Dorchester, for construction of addition to Public Works Department garage, Highland street, Roxbury, from March 31, 1956, to April 30, 1956, because of inclement weather during the winter months.

Light Globes

The Mayor has approved the award of a contract, by the Purchasing Agent, without advertising, for the purchase of light globes for fire alarm boxes. Approval was based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Fire Department has submitted a requisition for 350 plain ruby globes for fire alarm boxes. American Service Company, Inc., is the only manufacturer of the type of globe required by the Fire Alarm Division. This company, who is the present supplier, has submitted an informal written quotation.

Inasmuch as these globes can be purchased direct from the manufacturer, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to American Service Company, Inc. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

The globes will be in accordance with the specifications of the Fire Alarm Division of the Fire Department. Approximate total amount of contract for 350 ruby globes at $6.10 each will be $2,135, less 1 per cent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Increase of Contract

The Mayor has approved an increase in the amount of a contract, by the Purchasing Agent, in the sum of $1,665, in connection with the purchase of two aerial ladder trucks. Approval was based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 7, 1955, the City of Boston, acting by its Purchasing Agent, entered into an $86,160 publicly advertised contract with the Seagrave Corporation of Columbus, Ohio, providing for the furnishing of two (2) tractor drawn, one hundred (100) foot, steel aerial ladder trucks.

Subsequent to the execution of the contract, an Onan generator of the self-starting variety was developed, and this type is considered by the Fire Commissioner as much more desirable for use on the above equipment than the Kohler, rope starting, portable generator designated in the specifications. The contractor proposes to install two (2) Onan AC generators, 3500 watts, with necessary wiring and connections, and furnished with special equipment, switch, six-way outlet, etc., on each truck at an additional cost of $1,665.

Your authorization is therefore respectfully requested to omit formal advertising and to amend the principal contract with the Seagrave Corporation to include the installation of Onan generators, etc., and to increase the contract cost in the amount of $1,665, to cover the cost of the same, thereby making the new contract cost, $87,825.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Cement Testing

On April 24 Mayor Hynes approved the award of a contract, without advertising, by the Public Works Department, for testing of cement and concrete mixes, based on the following communication from the commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

For the past several years contracts have been awarded to Thompson & Lichtner Company, Inc., for testing, inspecting, designing, and controlling bituminous and cement concrete mixes used by the department and by contractors working for the department on street construction and reconstruction work.

The work done by this firm of testing and consulting engineers has been very satisfactory, and it is my opinion that it would be in the best interests of the city to award a contract to said firm providing for the testing and inspection of the above-referenced types of highway materials used during the current year on our street construction and reconstruction program.

The amount of money spent for services of this nature represents only a small percentage of the cost of the materials used on our street work, and a contract of this type unquestionably is a good investment and may be considered as insurance. The testing and consulting engineer provides a control engineer at each asphalt plant to supervise operations and to control and design the asphaltic pavement mixes. The inspection service assures not only the quality of the material, but also the quantity. The latter-referenced item is very important, because we now pay street construction contractors for roadway materials furnished on a tonnage basis rather than on a square yard basis, which was the policy up to six years ago.

The firm of Thompson & Lichtner also makes field tests, when necessary, and, in general, is in complete charge of the design and control of the asphaltic and cement concrete materials from the time that they are mixed at the plant to their delivery at the site of the particular highway project. The engineer has agreed to accept a new contract for the current year on the same terms, conditions, and unit prices that prevailed in the 1955 contract, which incidentally was awarded at the same unit prices and conditions that were in effect in the 1951 contract. A contract of this type should be awarded at a price at which we are certain that the quality of service rendered by the contractor will not be detrimentally affected.

The 1955 contract provided for fair and reasonable payments that assured adequate and competent supervision and control of the pavement mixes, and it is my opinion that the proposed new contract should parallel in all respects the 1955 contract. This type of contract is one that does not lend itself to publicly advertising for proposals, because the service rendered and the integrity of the firm are of more importance than the price factor, although the cost is a consideration. In this particular case, the price for which the above-referenced firm has agreed to perform the services required under the contract provisions is fair and reasonable, and it is my unqualified opinion that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for proposals.

I respectfully request, therefore, that you authorize me to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Thompson & Lichtner Company, Inc., for testing, inspecting, designing, and controlling bituminous and cement concrete mixes used by or under the direction of the department during the current year on street construction and reconstruction work, on the basis of agreed prices and with the understanding that the contract will not exceed the total amount of $35,000. The so-called agreed prices will be the same as those provided in the 1955 contract.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

About 1.40 A.M., Friday, April 13, 1956, while these two officers were together, off duty and out of uniform, they observed an individual known to them to have a long criminal record and on bail on a pending prosecution for numerous house breaks. The officers stopped him and investigated the reason for his presence in the locality at that hour, and discovered a quantity of material which they suspected to be narcotics secreted in his automobile and arrested him as a suspicious person.

Upon laboratory analysis of the material, it was found to be 8½ ounces of heroin which constitutes one of the largest and most valuable narcotic seizures by officers of this department in recent years.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize the alertness and devotion to duty of these officers which resulted in the apprehension of this criminal and the diversion of this narcotic from illicit traffic.

FUTURE SCHOOL NEEDS

We note that several New England communities, at recent town meetings, projected their school building programs far into the future, even, in some cases, going so far as to purchase sites for future school buildings. The wisdom of such planning is obvious.

Population trends are now closely defined. They are an all-important factor. Also residential, industrial, and commercial developments are, to a large degree, indicated by the availability of vacant land, most of which is bought by developers in large tracts. Future school needs are forecast by a great many of these plans, and the importance of obtaining suitable sites for future school buildings is obvious.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, April 23, 1956.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President McCORMACK in the chair. Absent, Councillor White.

The Reverend Gerard Fitzsimmons, O.F.M., of St. Francis Priory, Brookline, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REVEREND GERARD FITZSIMMONS.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

O God, make us an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag.

APPROPRIATION FOR AUTOMATIC TRAFFIC SIGNALS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 23, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
There is a pressing need for additional traffic signal lights in our city. It is difficult to keep abreast of traffic developments with the consequent necessity for installing lights at various intersections. On January 30 of this year I submitted to your Honorable Body an order for the transfer of $20,000 from the Sales of City Property Fund for this purpose. I submit today a further order in the amount of $50,000 from the same available source for traffic lights.

The Chairman of the Traffic Commission estimates that $150,000 would be needed to meet the current requirements for traffic signal lights. Herewith is a list of intersections which deserve priority treatment.

I most respectfully request that your Honorable Body give approval to the order submitted today and the order submitted on January 30, so that the Traffic Department may proceed without delay in the installation of traffic lights at some of the most dangerous intersections in our city.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission.

April 20, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The need for additional traffic signal lights in the city seems to be increasing more every day.

During the past few years you have been able to secure approximately $100,000 each year for traffic signals, and that amount has been promptly spent.

We are currently awaiting City Council approval of an appropriation of $22,000, which will permit us to complete installations planned for last year and for which we have equipment on hand.

I attach a list of intersections which must be dealt with at an early date, and it is my hope that you will be able to provide funds at an early date for as many of these intersections as is possible.

There are many others which should be considered, but those which I have listed will require approximately $150,000, and in the interests of public safety installations should be made at these locations in 1956.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

INCINERATOR CONTRACT AWARDED.

stokers. Regardless of the trend, we felt that the matter of circular versus rectangular furnaces should be explored thoroughly before arriving at a decision and, therefore, we gave careful consideration to all factors, keeping in mind that Boston's problem not only involved the burning of refuse, but also the production of steam. It is my unqualified opinion, in which I am supported by the consulting engineers, that the rectangular furnace will be the most satisfactory one for Boston.

The Allen Company has had many years of experience, not only in the incineration field, but also in the boiler-setting field. This dual experience should prove most beneficial to the city in the subject contract, as the production of steam is a valuable by-product of the burning of refuse. The Allen Company appears to be singularly well equipped to handle both the furnace work and the installation of the waste heat boilers.

I firmly believe that the interests of the city will be best served by awarding a contract for the furnishing and installing of four furnaces and appurtenances to the low bidder, George Allen & Son, Inc., under Alternate B, Item B-4. Under this alternate, you will note that the bids ranged from a low of $963,867 as submitted by the Allen Company, to $1,061,000 as submitted by the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Company.

I therefore recommend that a contract be awarded to the low bidder, George Allen & Son, Inc., of 205 East 85th street, New York City, New York; under the bid item Alternate B-4, for furnishing and erecting four rectangular furnaces having Flynn and Emrich stokers, complete with combustion chambers, waste-heat boilers, fly-ash arresters, spray cooling equipment, induced-draft fans, and appurtenances, at the lump sum bid price of $963,867.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

FOUR-LINER PIER

The City of New York soon will begin construction of a square-shaped $16,000,000 Hudson River pier, according to Engineering News-Record. The 810- by 815-foot structure, with a 55- by 185-foot extension on one side, will have parking space on its roof for 1,000 automobiles. A 250,000-square foot central court will provide easy maneuvering for trucks. The pier will accommodate four ocean-going ships.

HOW WE MAKE OUR LIVINGS

New insights into how New England makes its living are provided in an analysis of 1954 personal income figures just released by the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

Seventy per cent of individual incomes in the region was derived from wages and salaries, the bank reported in the current issue of its Monthly Review. This was about 2 per cent above the national proportion.

Manufacturing was the largest single source of individual income in New England, paying wages and salaries which accounted for 29.5 per cent of total personal income. Of the national total, manufacturing represents only 23 per cent.

Property income, which consists of rental income, dividends and interest income, forms the second largest source of New England income payments. Such payments account for 15.5 per cent of regional personal income payments compared with 12.4 per cent nationally.

WHOLESALE CENTER

The 1954 census found 7,926 wholesale establishments in Massachusetts, with sales for the year of $7,478,720,000, an increase of 20.6 per cent over those in 1948. The 1954 wholesale trade in Massachusetts represented 63.9 per cent of that for all New England, although retail sales in Massachusetts were 50.8 per cent of the total in New England. This indicates that Massachusetts serves substantially as a wholesale center for the whole New England region.

LIVING COSTS RISE

The nation's living costs rose slightly in March and officials said a further gradual increase can be expected in the months ahead.

The U. S. Labor Department reports its living cost index rose one tenth of 1 per cent between February 15 and March 15. This put the index at 114.7 per cent of the 1947-1949 base period, three tenths of 1 per cent higher than in March, 1955.

H. E. Riley, Chief of the Department's Price and Living Cost Division, said food prices began to rise in March after a five-month decline and probably will continue to increase seasonally in the spring and summer.

Riley said the increases are likely to be "modest." The March index level of 114.7 is about one half of 1 per cent below the record living cost mark of 115.4 in October, 1953.

The Labor Department also reported that factory workers' take-home pay was at a record high.

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH OF ROUTE 128

Rapid location of industry near or related to the new Route 128 surrounding Boston is indicated by the count of no less than 110 manufacturing concerns, either new or expanding, recorded by the Massachusetts Department of Commerce between March 1, 1954, and January 1, 1956.

BAY STATE ATOM POWER

Massachusetts will have a $35 million atomic power plant in full operation by 1960.

"But the power it produces won't be cheap," says Roger J. Coe, vice president of the Yankee Atomic Electric Company.

Mr. Coe told the New England Council in Providence recently his company will start work on the atomic plant in Rowe next spring.

"Talk of dirt-cheap atomic power, not necessarily now but in the years to come, is not justified by the economic facts," he said.

He predicted, however, atomic power would become competitive with other power in New England before any other part of the country.

"That's because of the relatively high fuel costs here," he explained.

MAYOR URGES BOSTON TO SUBSTITUTE NEW BRIEF CASE FOR THE OLD GREEN CLOTH BAG OF YESTERYEAR

At the third annual conference on "Economic Problems of the Boston Area," conducted Thursday, May 10, at the College of Business Administration on the Boston College campus, and attended by business and professional leaders of the community, Mayor John B. Hynes spoke as follows:

We are fortunate, or unfortunate, according to our individual points of view, to be living in a period of vast and far-reaching changes, and there is reason to believe that we are on the threshold of even greater and more startling changes to come in the wake of atomic-electronic developments.

It is only when we stop to reflect a bit that we realize the significance and the magnitude of the changes which have occurred in recent years, and which are occurring at this very hour. None of us have been immune to these changes. None of us, or mighty few of us, follow the same pattern, live, work, or have our sights set on the same goals, as we did ten years ago, or even five years ago.

In one way or another all of us have felt the force of our upsurging, expanding economy. Most of us, though we may decry the omnipresent tax collector, have benefited as the economy level reached upward. It is, however, a quite sobering and quite frightening fact that the cities of America, especially the larger cities, have not been parties-in-interest, or beneficiaries to any extent, in the growth, the expansion, the new look of the new America in the making. And this is particularly so with respect to old cities, like Boston. Built up; boxed in with no virgin territory for development; with good industrial sites at a premium; with congested pockets making traffic movement slow and expensive; with an outdated zoning map which restricts better than it protects; with an outdated tax base that discourages new construction; and with hampering legislative edicts and formulae, initially contrived, so it seems, in a punitive spirit to penalize the biggest city in the Commonwealth, it is no wonder that today Boston feels as though it is in a strait jacket from which even a modern Houdini would have difficulty extracting himself.

In addition to the factors just mentioned, there are others, many others, which have contributed to the present state of affairs in Boston. I need not recite them. Merely let me state that because of them our taxable valuations in Boston have trickled away to the tune of almost five hundred million dollars in a period of twenty-five years. If, by some happenstance, this loss in valuations were restored, the Boston tax rate would be some twenty dollars less than it is at the present time.

How are we going to get those valuations back? Not by moaning at the bar. Not by wringing our hands. Not by making accusations. We can get them back, or a good part of them, by recognizing that Boston, historically impregnable as it may be, must face conditions as they are today.

We must place our reliance not on the things of an age that is gone, never to return, but on the things of this age in which we live, an entirely different age, an age that has already outrun the wildest and most fantastic dreams of all the da Vincis, all the Jules Vernes, all the Marconis, all the Edisons of bygone eras.

In short, our historic fortress is not a good defense in today's economic battles. We must make the fullest use of modern weapons of both attack and defense. We must build as good a, if not a better, mouse trap than any other section of our country, for today, and tomorrow, and always, the race will be to the swift, and we all must recognize that sentimental pride in our history and background, however noble they may be, will not win us any blue ribbons in today's fiercely competitive race for business.

We have found that out here in New England, in Massachusetts, and in Boston, but it has cost us dearly, very dearly. Before the telephone broke down the barriers of time and space, before the motor vehicle became a common means of conveyance and transportation, we here in this part of our wide-sprawling country were sitting pretty, as it were, but these new means of communication and transportation changed all that. No longer would we sit in secure isolation up here in this northeast corner of our land. Like it or not, we were thrown into the competitive maelstrom, but we were slow to accept the challenge of changing times and changing conditions, and while we wondered, and pondered, and even blundered along in our dignified, habitual, almost superior way, the America as we know it today came to life, bubbled over with hope and enthusiasm, took chances, gave spurs to the steed of progress, and sped on to achievements that have marked our land as the Cinderella land of all civilizations, past and present.

In the last half century of change, growth, and expansion, Boston and our entire region did not keep pace, I think we all will admit, with the tempo of progress. While other cities and other sections of our country plunged ahead with starry-eyed confidence, we seemed to be perfectly content with the status quo. We resisted, even resented, change of any kind. We clung to the green cloth bag handed down from generation to generation, and disdained the newfangled brief case.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

BOSTON REQUIRES NEW BUSINESS TO HOLD LEADERSHIP ROLE

CITY COUNCILLOR FRANCIS X. AHEARN OUTLINES FACTORS CAUSING SOME INVESTORS TO SHUN HUB

This is the second in a series of five reports on Boston's problems by members of the City Council before a recent Boston College Seminar.

Some reasons why Boston faces difficulty in attracting new industry to this city were outlined, on April 10, by City Councillor Francis X. Ahearn, one of the five city councillors who participated in a panel discussion of Boston's problems at the final Boston College seminar of the 1955-56 series.

Councillor Ahearn said:

Mr. Chairman, Reverend Fathers, and Distinguished Guests.

At the end of a long series of panel discussions such as we have had here at Boston College, I think there is a need and place for summing up. I think some of the more important facts and figures should be pulled together and placed in perspective. If, with your kind sympathy, I am able to do this and add a few other important facts, I think I will have made a contribution. If I can make some of these facts and figures "live a little" so that you can better understand and remember them so much the better.

Since a good deal of our past discussions have related directly or indirectly to the "flight of business" and the tax rate, I shall confine myself to the causes of these two items. Then I would like to briefly outline the origin and evolution of a Boston tax rate. The latter is quite a mystery to most people.

Some Important Reasons

With respect to the problem of "flight of industry," I think a healthy situation has developed recently. The true nature of this problem and many truths about it have at last been learned by more people. These truths must receive even wider acceptance if we are to move forward with solutions quickly. The important fact is that there are very many other causes and problems, frequently more compelling than our tax rate, which keep business out of Boston. The solution of these problems will both bring business to Boston and go far to solve the tax rate dilemma.

Let me list for you some of these important reasons and problems causing business to shun Boston.

1. Lack of good new buildings with modern layout and construction.
2. Lack of good vacant sites.
3. High cost of land.
4. Relatively high cost of construction in Boston.
5. Narrow streets—making use of big trucks impractical.
6. Traffic congestion even on wide streets.
7. Lack of parking facilities.
8. Lack of sites in proximity to railroad sidings.
9. Lack of sites in proximity to major truck routes.
10. The nature of a particular business—just no good reason for being in Boston.
11. Migration of people to suburbs—business follows people.
12. Change in the habits of the buying public—people want to view a motion picture from the front seat of a car and to make bank deposits in the same posture.

Some Failures

13. Boston's unfounded but poor reputation due to a bad press and poor public relations—as pointed out by the editors here previously.
14. The concentrated and successful efforts of real estate men to make relatively quick and easy sales of choice cheap sites in nearby suburbs.
15. Failure of a sleeping Chamber of Commerce to do its job—now very much awake, I understand—better late than never.
16. Failure of our Retail Trade Board to widen the scope of its activities and objectives.
17. Failure to set up a city-sponsored Industrial Development Commission well organized and adequately staffed to compete with suburban officials selling their communities. There is no substitute for official action.
18. Failure of too many businessmen to support, with money and action, business and civic organizations in Boston.
19. Failure of some jealous and selfish businessmen to promote Boston as a whole instead of just their interest and area.

20. Misinformation and popular misconception about Boston's tax rate and the reasons for it.

21. The pirating and highjacking of Boston business by some real estate interests—Boston and others—in collaboration with suburban assessors by which illegal agreements for unfairly low assessments are made in consideration for the location of a business in a suburb.

If we even reduced our tax rate $25 we could not compete with suburbs engaging in improper assessment practices by which assessment ratios are as low as 30 per cent.

Factors Which Drive Out Business

There you have 21 reasons, gentlemen, why we lose business in Boston. My talk here is limited to 15 minutes. On each reason, I could spend 15 minutes with interesting facts, anecdotes, and personal experiences, which I have had over the past ten years. If challenged on any one of these points, I do not promise that I can restrain myself to 15 minutes. I respectfully submit that these 21 causes are chief factors driving business out of Boston. I maintain that the ordinary prudent businessman, is frightened off far more frequently than is realized long before he gets to consideration of the tax rate. Let's go to work and work harder on these 21 problems now! Later we might find that, without trying, we will have solved many of the tax rate problems.

And now what about the tax rate?

May I again resort to listing—because of the shortage of time—some of the real causes why our tax rate is so high? There are facts which also must be more widely understood by our people if we are going to improve our position greatly.

Suggested Improvements

1. High number of services to our people.
2. High quality of services (quite different from No. 1).
3. Increased salaries and pensions (yet not high enough in some cases).
4. Continued high MTA deficits and debts.
5. A grossly unfair formula for the assessment of MTA deficits.
6. The large and rapidly expanding amount of tax-exempt property owned by the various governments.
7. Boston's relatively high proportion of people in age and eco-conomic groups which require specialized and costly services in health, hospital, and welfare agencies.

8. An outmoded and unfair formula for the assessment of MDC charges.

9. Depressed real estate values due to old age, obsolescence, etc.

10. Flight of industry to the suburbs.

11. Boston's burden of all county costs.

12. Boston's inability to control county costs.

13. A grossly unfair state system of distribution of funds to Boston.

14. An antiquated and lopsided system of raising revenues to operate our city government. (A sales tax, however, is not the answer to our problems and might even prove to be a trap.)

15. Cost of municipal services to 700,000 nonpaying guests from the suburbs. (We welcome our guests—we need them, but services to them are reflected in a higher tax rate.)

16. The size of our area and population (big cities cost more). (See "Municipal News," April, 1956.)

17. Failure of the state to increase aid to municipalities to meet increased costs of old services and obligations imposed by the state.

18. Failure of the state to provide aid to municipalities to meet any part of the cost of new services and obligations imposed by the state.

19. Reduction by the state of the municipalities' power to raise revenue. The state has actually taken away sources of revenue.

20. Lack of municipalities' power to raise money by taxes other than the real estate tax.

21. Inflation.

Controllable Causes

Again I have given you 21 reasons for a major problem—the high tax rate in Boston. I have not exhausted the list by any means. In truth, I could add most of the 21 other reasons for the flight of industry as causes directly or indirectly of our high tax rate.

The point is, gentlemen, more emphasis must be placed on the true, important, and controllable causes of our problem. Then we will make greater progress toward the right solution. I feel an unwarranted amount of time and talk prior to these seminars have been allocated to merely harping on the words "Flight of Industry" and "High Tax Rate." The full blame was placed on politics, waste, graft, and corruption. There was little or no knowledge or understanding of just what was wrong in Boston among many of our so-called leaders.

If we continue to put more emphasis on the solution to the problems I have listed, I see great progress ahead for us. So much for why the tax rate is as high as it is.

There is another interesting aspect of this tax rate question. A brief discussion may prove informative and helpful. Just how is the amount of tax rate actually reached, or, as some people put it, "fabricated"?

With the aid of some charts here, may I run over that matter with you quickly? I realize that some in this audience know about this. I ask their indulgence and aid in a proper presentation.

One of the key facts to remember about the tax rate is that it is a "guesstimate." Much of it is based on pure speculation.

Key Facts to Remember

We started out on the present rate for 1955, for example, by estimating at the beginning of the year our expected expenses.

First, we knew that we were going to have certain departmental expenses—city, county, and schools—and estimated them to be about $128,000,000.

Then we knew that we had to meet our past obligations for debts, deficits, and other charges, etc. These were estimated at about $30,000,000.

Now many people maintain that the officeholder knows not the plight of the taxpayer. We do. We pay taxes to the state. In this category we find MDC and other state assessments, and estimated them to be $1.9 million. When we added up these figures we found our total estimated expenses for all purposes of the then coming year, of $159,000,000.

Where will we get it? Most people think from real estate. As you know this is not true at all.

Let's examine the sources of income we have. First, we have departmental income. For services to be rendered by our various departments, including city, county, and schools, we expected to be paid $28.6 million. In a second category of sources of income are shares of the income tax, corporation tax, meals tax, and certain other payments which we estimated would be $13.1 million dollars in 1955. In a third category of sources of income we have automobile excise tax, parking meter receipts, poll tax, which were estimated at $10.5 million dollars. Thus from sources other than Real Estate Tax we estimate income in 1955 of $52.3 million dollars.

The difference between the cost of $159 million and our income to this point shows a shortage of $107.5 million. This is the amount to be raised by the tax rate assessed on real and personal property.

Tax Rate Points

Now let's actually determine the tax rate. I call your attention to this map of the City of Boston. You will remember about one third of this tiny city is tax exempt. The small area remaining is valued at 1.5 billion dollars. To get the tax rate we simply divide the valuation into the amount needed. The answer is your tax rate.

In discussing the tax rate we should remember three important points:

1. The rate is based on an estimation of future expenses and income.

2. The amount to be raised is the difference between cost of operation and other sources of income.

3. The tax rate itself is a fraction. The denominator of it is valuation and the numerator is the amount to be raised.

The worth of this simple formula, if you can remember it is that it helps you to see almost immediately what our problems are. It also helps you to appraise quickly proposed solutions and their impact on our tax rate.

You can readily see, for example, there are three ways to reduce the tax rate:

1. Increase valuation so that the denominator goes into the numerator a smaller number of times.

2. Reduce the numerator with the same effect.

3. A combination of both.

In conclusion I hope I have been able to bring together for you some of the important but disconnected facts and give some order to the chaos of figures about Boston and its problems.

Solutions Outside City Hall

To sum up, I believe that it has been conclusively demonstrated that in addition to the blame usually placed on City Hall for a high tax rate and the flight of industry, a far greater proportion of serious blame lies elsewhere, such as with business, the legislature, and others. Therefore, many of the really big solutions to Boston's problems will have to originate, in whole or in part, elsewhere—outside City Hall.

The solutions are varied, long, and complex as a whole. Individually the solutions are frequently quite obvious as is seen from a mere reading of the list I have given you.

We need men who will at last recognize an obligation—moral, economic, and social—to Boston as a whole and to the community. Too long has business isolated and insulated itself from the community except insofar as it is directly affected by, for example, a high tax rate.

In fact what we need most at this instant are leaders outside City Hall who will stop talking and go to work.

Confident of Future

Over the years, the theory that our problems were mostly political, and the pounding at the door of City Hall for a solution, was a great fallacy based on ignorance in high places. This course of action made good reading and sold newspapers but has been one of the single most important roadblocks to progress in Boston.

This serious mistake has now been rectified in large part. We are doubly indebted to Boston College in this regard. First, for providing the forum to spread the truth; secondly, for bringing together some of the men who are going to have to do the job to be done.

In view of this, I feel confident that the legislature, our business and political leaders, and the people can now work together on the right solutions to the right problems to build a better Boston.

NINE NAMED TO THE NEW PUBLIC HEALTH COUNCIL

Mayor Hynes this week appointed nine members to the recently-created Public Health Council, set up by city ordinance, to aid and advise the Health Commissioner on public health problems.

Mayor Hynes designated Dr. Albert A. Hornor of Boston, diagnostician on the staffs of the Lahey Clinic and the New England Baptist Hospital, as chairman.

Dr. William F. Mayes of Boston, associate professor of public health practice at the Harvard School of Public Health, was named vice chairman.

Other members include: Dr. Roy J. Heffernan of Jamaica Plain, surgeon; Dr. Robert J. Hill, Jr., of Dorchester, dentist; Peter DiPaolo of Hyde Park, a chemist; Joseph L. Milhender of Boston, president of an electrical distributing firm; Elmer Foster of Boston, union official; Glenwood J. Sherrard of Boston, hotel owner; and Mrs. Frances Burns of Boston, medical writer.

TAX RATE INCREASE INEVITABLE; MAYOR HYNES HOPES TO KEEP IT UNDER $4.66 STATE AVERAGE

Tax rates of local communities in the state have shown an average increase this year of $4.66, an analysis of the first 100 approved by the State Department of Corporations and Taxation disclosed this week.

The Boston tax rate of $69.80 will rise "at least" $4.50 this year, according to Mayor Hynes. He said, "the 1956 rate, to be declared around June 15, will very likely be more than $4.50 higher than the present rate."

Of the group, 83 communities have increased their tax rates, eight have the same rate as last year and nine have reduced their rates, according to Edward S. Wilson, deputy commissioner in charge of local taxation.

Mayor Hynes said, "that the increase in Boston will be the result of higher expenses and lower receipts from sources other than taxable property."

"About $124,000,000 will have to be raised from property taxes this year, as compared to $107,000,000 last year," the Mayor said. He expressed concern that the increased rate would act as a deterrent to businesses and industries interested in locating in Boston.

Tax Commissioner Wilson reported that the variations from last year range from a $23 increase in Rowe, giving that town a new high rate of $77, to a decrease of $19 for West Boylston, which brings its 1956 rate down to $47.

The highest tax rate to be approved thus far is $83 for Maynard. The lowest is $26 for Chilmark.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR MAIN LIBRARY ROOF AT COST OF $348,442

Mayor Hynes, on May 8, approved the award of a contract totaling $348,442, by the Trustees of the Library Department, for completion of main roof, and new roofing and sheet metal work of annex roof of the Central Library building.

Award was made to Atlantic Roofing and Skylight Works, the lowest bidder, in the amount of $348,442.

The other bidders on the contract were Cavanaugh and Earley, Inc., $352,254; Burgess and Blacher Company, $360,000.

The Trustees of the Public Library took the following action to award the contract:

"Voted, That there be awarded to Atlantic Roofing and Skylight Works, a partnership, corner Hampden and Howard streets, Boston, Mass., the lowest qualified bidder in the public bidding, the contract for completion of main roof, and new roofing and sheet metal work of annex roof at the Central Library building as specified in the contract in the total amount of three hundred and forty-eight thousand, four hundred and forty-two dollars ($348,442)."

MAYOR'S FIELD DAY GOAL THIS YEAR IS $75,000

A kick-off luncheon Friday launched the Mayor's Charity Field Day for 1956. The date, June 25. Place, Fenway Park. Chairman, Park Commissioner Frank R. Kelley. Goal, $75,000.

The familiar Cadillac was backed up to the City Hall front door, as the luncheon got underway. This year there is an additional grand door prize, a Buick.

Tenley Albright, Olympic and National Skating Champion, will be among the honored guests at the Field Day, and will receive a citation from the City of Boston.

Tickets are on sale at City Hall, and will be available daily at the corner of Summer and Washington streets, where the Cadillac will be on display.

MAYOR HYNES ASSURES TEACHERS OF STEP IN SALARY SCHEDULE

Mayor Hynes announced this week he would restore $68,000 of a $164,000 reduction to the Boston School Department budget.

He said he decided to do so in order that the fifth step in the system's single-salary schedule could be granted to teachers next September.

The Mayor added that the case presented by the School Committee and the Boston Teachers Alliance moved him to restore the funds.

BOOKMOBILES "LAUNCHED"

Two new Public Library bookmobiles, costing $15,000 each, were "launched" by Mayor Hynes this week at a short ceremony in front of City Hall.

The units, each with a capacity of 3,500 books, replace two bookmobiles which had been leased from a private firm. A saving of $5,000 a year was predicted by Mayor Hynes.

NAMED TO ZONE BOARD

Elliot Henderson, member of the realty firm of R. M. Bradley Company, was appointed this week to the Board of Zoning Adjustment by Mayor Hynes. He replaces Alan J. Potter, former chairman.

Arthur J. Kelly, vice president of R. H. White's, was named Henderson's alternate to the board.

ADDRESS OF MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES AT BOSTON COLLEGE CONFERENCE

Happily, our eyes are no longer transfixed on the things of yesterday. A new spirit is abroad in our community, and a new perspective has sharpened our sights. We are now measuring our assets and our potentialities by the modern yardstick of competitive values. We now know that if Mohammed will not come to our mountain, we must bring our mountain to Mohammed.

We now know that, whatever our troubles may be here in Boston, and as ingrained as they may seem to be, they can be solved. We have taken inventory, we have undergone an inner probing, a physical examination, and no malignancy has been found. We are now confident that the economic rebirth of Boston is not a mirage. It can be a reality, and it will be if we will it.

We have come to the common-sense conclusion that the economic health of the metropolitan Boston community, if not the entire state itself, is dependent to a great extent on the economic health of the capital city, the nerve center of the region in which we live. We have come to the belief that a revitalized Boston is the best medicine for the economic health of our community. These conclusions and beliefs are gathering momentum, propelled by alert and forceful leaders. For this outcropping, this revival of the dogged determination which, of old, made our community the envy of our country, we should be, and we are, I am sure, grateful to the series of seminars conducted here at Boston College.

Let me not appear to minimize our predicaments, or seem to oversimplify our problems. All is not rosy on the horizon by any means. There is still much work to be done, many obstacles to be overcome. But already we have made the right turn. We are facing ahead. We will not be without our moments of discouragement in the days to come, but I firmly and honestly believe that before too long — before five years have elapsed — Boston will, once again, be in a formidable, challenging position among the large cities of our country.

Venture capital, investment capital, the key to our future as a city, has begun to look our way. The new state-wide turnpike, the new highways feeding into our city, the new central artery through the heart of the city, will shortly make Boston an open city where traffic moves with convenient, inexpensive rapidity. The new Massachusetts Port Authority, sponsored by the Governor and adopted and created by the Legislature, will be a concentration of related assets that will give a strength to our economic position that has been sadly lacking. Blighted sections of our city will be torn away and replaced with new structures, opening the way for new commercial and industrial opportunities. In just a few years Old Dame Boston will have a new look, a new face.

We shall all, I am sure, look back upon this present period in the life of our community with pride and satisfaction, for suddenly there has come over us a conviction that Boston is not destined for the scrap heap, and that a new and better city can be built on the substantial foundations of old, historic, beloved Boston.

What stirs the emotion and colors our hopes more than all else is the comforting and consoling knowledge that we have not succumbed to despair. We know what we must do and we are preparing to do it. We know that real estate must be relieved of its heavy burden, a burden which discourages new building, rebuilding, renovations, and expansion. We know how this must be done, what relief must be sought, and we are prepared to seek it.

We know that a new Boston will not arise overnight, or without work, and struggle, and effort, and cooperation from many sources. We know that sitting on the scorner's bench, calling attention to the mote in the other fellow's eye or sitting by the wishing well telling tall tales, or indulging in sudden bursts of enthusiasm, are not the means by which progress will come. We know, each of us, that with fortitude, and determination, and coordinated, unselfish leadership, we can move mountains.

Already the rumblings of the new Boston of the future can be heard, faintly to be sure, but nevertheless distinctly. Those rumblings can grow into a thunderous roar proclaiming to the world that Boston has accepted the challenge before it and is once again on the march.

Gentlemen, it is up to us, all of us, to meet the challenge of our day as the forefathers met the challenges of their days. It is up to us to make the thunder roll.

COURTESY REPLY TO BIDS ORDERED BY DIR. BREEN

John A. Breen, Director of Administrative Services, this week notified all department heads to make sure that all persons and firms who make bids to furnish services or supplies to the city are extended the courtesy of a formal reply along with the return of their deposit checks. Director Breen's communication read as follows:

To Department Heads.

Returning a check to an individual or corporation interested in procuring city business, without inserting a short note of acknowledgment or thanks, is not good business.

It is requested that you notify the responsible individuals in your department to enclose, with each check returned, a short note along the following lines, or such other type of communication which might suit the particular requirements of your department:

"We are returning the check recently deposited by you with a proposal for this department. We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to you for your interest and hope that you will continue submitting bids for such goods and services as you are in a position to furnish."

The number of returnable checks in some departments is so small that such a form letter can be typed with little or no loss of time or effort, but in the case of large numbers of returnable checks it would be advisable to have form letters prepared by typists in your department during the leisure periods, or have same mimeographed.

To retain business relationships on a high level is the aim of good administration, and I ask your cooperation to this end.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor, on May 4, approved the award of a contract, by the Parks and Recreation Department, for furnishing and erecting canopy-type baseball backstops at Parks and Recreation Department playgrounds to Boston Chain Link Fence Company, 350 Adams street, Dorchester, in the amount of $5,335.

The other bidders were:

Cyclone Fence Department, American Steel and Wire Division, United States Steel Corporation, 360 Eastern avenue, Malden, (illegal bid, no check), $5,715; Anchor Post Products, Inc., 40 Needham street, Newton, (illegal bid, no check), $6,061.

AUTO DEBTS HIGH

The Federal Reserve Board reports that consumers reduced their indebtedness during February but took on more debt for automobile purchases than is usual for the month.

The reserve board said the public's debt for on-the-cuff buying declined during the month by 327 million dollars, to a total of $35,272,000,000. It is normal for consumer credit to shrink during January and February, as the public pays off indebtedness incurred during the Christmas rush.

Fire Coats

Mayor Hynes, on May 1, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, by the Purchasing Agent, for fire coats, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 16, 1956, your Honor approved a permission of award to Archer Rubber Company for fire coats for the Fire Department. This company was the lowest bidder on a publicly opened bid of February 21, 1956. Subsequent to your approval, this office received a communication from the Fire Commissioner showing the results of tests conducted by the Training Division relative to the merits of reflective materials for use on the black rubber coats of firefighters. The purpose of equipping such coats stemmed from recent incidents which occurred during firefighting operations. Firefighters, overcome by smoke and heat, had fallen to the floor. Due to existing conditions, visibility was so lowered that the black rubber coats of the men helped to hide them from members searching for them.

The results of the test proved that Silver Scotchlite fabric was superior in every way to other materials tested and should be considered a necessary safety feature to be incorporated in fire coats. The Fire Department has requested that the successful bidder on fire coats furnish a coat equipped with Silver Scotchlite fabric applied at the time of manufacture so that it will be an integral part of the coat. A sample of a coat with the reflective fabric applied has been submitted by Archer Rubber Company to the Fire Commissioner and approved. The charge for furnishing and applying reflective fabric to the coats during manufacture would be $4 each above the original price of the publicly opened bid of February 21, 1956. This is a fair price inasmuch as it represents the cost of material and labor only.

In view of the above facts, it is requested that the original letter of award be canceled and permission be granted me to dispense with public advertisement and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Archer Rubber Company for 400 only rubber fire coats with Silver Scotchlite reflective fabric at the original bid price of $10.25 each, plus $4 each for reflective fabric. Approximate total amount of contract will be $5,700, less 2 per cent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Folders

The Mayor, on May 4, approved the award of a contract, by the Purchasing Agent, for folders entitled, "You'll Like Boston," based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Chief Clerk's Office of the Mayor's Office for 200,000 folders entitled "You'll Like Boston." Buck Printing Company, who printed these folders previously, has submitted an informal written quotation.

Inasmuch as this company has the plate on hand for printing these folders, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Buck Printing Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $9,625, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Architect's Services

The Mayor, on May 4, approved the award of a contract, by the Penal Institutions Commission, without advertising, for architectural services, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your approval to dispense with public advertising in the City Record and to engage the services of Joseph F. Page, doing business as Page Construction Company, architects-engineers, with offices at 20 Pemberton square, Boston, Mass., as architect, to furnish detailed estimates of the reconstruction costs of, as well as to prepare plans and specifications for, the proposed correction of the unsafe and dangerous condition of the east wall of the new prison building at the House of Correction, Deer Island.

The aforementioned firm will be paid a fixed fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for its services, involving the production of cost estimates, plans, specifications, and including supervision of the necessary reconstruction.

A survey of the dangerous condition of the wall was recommended by Charles A. Callanan, Building Commissioner, in a letter dated October 20, 1955, in which he quoted from a report by Mr. John P. Brucker, district inspector, who made an examination at our request, as follows:

"Upon examination I find the east wall of the new prison is in an unsafe and dangerous condition for a distance of approximately 30 feet from the south corner. There is a bulge of at least 2 to 3 inches starting from the bottom of the wall and extending to the roof. There are several brick walls connected to this wall at right angles to it; these walls are being pulled out with the outside wall. Clearly defined cracks show in the brick arch ceiling, one crack in an interior wall is about 2 inches wide. The condition above described will become progressively worse as time goes on and it is not unlikely that a collapse will occur."

In view of the professional nature of the services involved, it is not felt that public advertising would be of advantage to the city.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD L. FRIEL,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

Bookmobiles

Mayor Hynes has approved the award of a contract, without advertising, by the Library Department, for furnishing drivers, maintenance and garaging of two bookmobiles, based on the following communication from the trustees:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In response to a public advertisement, a copy of which is attached, sealed proposals for the provision of drivers and for the maintenance and garaging of two new bookmobiles for the period April 1, 1956, through March 31, 1957, were received and opened at the office of the trustees at 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday, March 7, 1956. They were as follows:

Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc.

1. Drivers:
 - (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.10.
 - (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.20.
2. Maintenance and Repair Personnel:
 - (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.25.
 - (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.35.
3. Garaging (total annual charge), $2,187.36.*
- Address of garage, 26 Reading street, Roxbury.
4. Price of major brand gasoline (per gallon), 22.8 cents.
5. Replacement of parts and supplies: Percentage of mark-up above actual cost, 10 per cent.

Boston Express, Inc.

1. Drivers:
 - (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.24.†
 - (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.25.
2. Maintenance and Repair Personnel:
 - (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $4.50.
 - (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $5.50.
3. Garaging (total annual charge), $960.
- Addresses of garages, 43 Braintree street, Allston, or 83 East Cottage street, Roxbury.
4. Price of major brand gasoline (per gallon), 24 cents.
5. Replacement of parts and supplies: Percentage of mark-up above actual cost, 10 per cent.

P. A. Milan, Inc.

1. Drivers:
 - (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.15.
 - (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.26.
2. Maintenance and Repair Personnel:
 - (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.
 - (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.50.
3. Garaging (total annual charge), $360.
- Address of garage, 57 Madison street, Malden.
4. Price of major brand gasoline (per gallon), 23.9 cents.
5. Replacement of parts and supplies: Percentage of mark-up above actual cost, 15 per cent.

A computation of the cost of services to be rendered, based upon the rates listed above, indicated that the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., 26 Reading street, Boston, with a projected cost figure of approximately $25,600 for the contract period, was the low bidder.

* Includes cost of insurance and bond.

† Includes cost of insurance.

The proposals submitted were for the period beginning April 1, 1956, and ending March 31, 1957. At the time the proposals were prepared it was expected that the two new bookmobiles would be in the possession of the library before April 1, 1956. It is now known that the manufacturer of the bookmobiles will make delivery April 28, 1956. Execution of a contract for maintenance, operation and garaging of the vehicles cannot, therefore, be made on the basis of the period originally stipulated in the proposals. The Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., the lowest responsible and eligible bidder, has indicated that it will carry out the contract for the balance of the term on the basis of the rates submitted in their proposal. The cost of the service to be rendered for the balance of the contract period will be approximately $23,500.

In view of the foregoing considerations and because it is believed that no useful purpose would be served in publicly advertising for new bids, the trustees have taken the following action to award the contract:

Voted, That there be and hereby are rejected proposals submitted in the public bidding and opened and read on March 7, 1956, for the provision of drivers and for the maintenance and garaging of two new bookmobiles for the period April 1, 1956, through March 31, 1957, and

Voted, That there be entered into, without public advertising, with the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., 26 Reading street, Boston, Mass., a contract for the provision of drivers and for the maintenance and garaging of two new bookmobiles for a period commencing not later than June 1, 1956, as determined by the director of the library in representation of the trustees, and ending March 31, 1957, at the following rates:

Drivers:

- (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.10.
- (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.20.

Maintenance and Repair Personnel:

- (a) Rate per hour, straight time, $3.25.
- (b) Rate per hour, overtime, $4.35.

Garaging, at annual rate of, $2,187.36.

Price of gasoline per gallon, 22.8 cents.

Percentage of mark-up above actual cost for the replacement of parts and supplies, 10 per cent.

The permission of your Honor is hereby requested to enter into this contract with the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY
OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
by JOHN J. CONNOLLY,
Assistant to the Director, and Chief Executive Officer.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Emergency Sewer Contract

The Mayor, on May 4, approved the award of a contract, by the Public Works Commissioner, without advertising, for an emergency sewer contract on Commonwealth avenue, near St. Mary's street, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the present time, the department has an easement for sewerage purposes in the rear of the Boston University School of Business Administration, which is located on Commonwealth avenue, near St. Mary's street.

An 18-inch sewer pipe is located in this easement, and it is my understanding that Boston University has suffered damage to the basement of its Science Building, allegedly due to leaks that have occurred in the pipe during and subsequent to torrential rainstorms. In fact, at the present time, Boston University is suing the City of Boston for a substantial amount, due to damages that they claim have resulted from leaks in the 18-inch pipe sewer. I do not feel that the claim is justified, as the city acquired the easement rights prior to the construction of the building by Boston University, and it is my opinion that the latter-referenced should have taken steps to waterproof their foundation walls to prevent any sewage or surface water from entering the basement area. Be that as it may, we should take immediate steps to make certain that no further damage occurs in the future, and I feel, therefore, that the pipes should be encased in concrete, at an estimated cost of $4,000. The pipe is located in a so-called crawl space that was constructed by Boston University at the time of the building construction.

The working conditions are very difficult, as it is impossible to use mechanical equipment or chutes of any kind to expedite the necessary excavation and concrete work. The space is lacking in sufficient headroom for men to work comfortably and, of necessity, therefore, the work will be arduous, slow, and manual in its entirety. The earth material around the pipe will have to be excavated by hand, and the pipe will have to be blocked up and the concrete poured over the pipe by manual means; probably by the use of small pails or buckets.

It is not practical to advertise for bids for a project of this type, as it is difficult to spell out in a contract document the exact nature, extent, and type of work to be done. In my opinion, the work should be done on a cost-plus basis, with the understanding that we will pay for the materials, labor, and supervision in accordance with standard practices that have been adopted for such contracts.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $4,000 on a cost-plus basis to John J. Appel, 23 Sunnysbank road, West Roxbury, to encase the above-referenced 18-inch pipe sewer in concrete and to do all necessary excavation and other related work in the sewer easement area which is located in the rear of the Boston University School of Business Administration. It is understood that the materials will be paid for in accordance with the standard provisions of this department covering cost-plus work. It is further understood that the rate paid for labor and supervision will be as agreed upon between the department and the contractor, with the percentages added in accordance with commonly accepted practices for cost-plus work.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ADDITIONS TO CONTRACT.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Joseph Rugo, Inc., now building an addition to the J. J. Chittick School, Mattapan, has been ordered to make the following additions to its contract:

1. Remove excess concrete found beneath existing stairs, $538.90.
2. Extra work done by the Boston Edison Company for new service, $216.98.

This brings the total additions to this contract up to $14,664.32 and a total contract price of $321,971.32.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Joseph Capone & Son Company have been directed to perform the following extra work under their contract for removing and disposing of granite block wall and furnishing and erecting chain link fence at Milton street and Hyde Park avenue, Milton street; at Neponset Valley Parkway; and Milton street, West Milton street, and Sprague street, dated March 29, 1956:

When erecting the fence, where the wall is removed, the posts shall be installed in the following manner: the foundation of the wall is to be removed at each post approximately 6 inches x 10 inches and 1 inch deep. The post is to be set in the opening and bent so that it will be set in the normal concrete foundation and is to be approximately 4 inches from face of wall. There are approximately 90 posts included in this work and it is to be done for the sum of $400.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved an extension of time for the completion of the contract with P. J. Riley & Co., for repairs and replacement to power plant and steam distribution systems, Boston City Hospital, from May 31, 1956, to October 1, 1956, due to serious delays in the delivery of major items, including valves, condenser tubes, and equipment repair parts.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved an extension of time for the completion of the contract with the Suffolk Electric Company, 413 Harrison avenue, for electrical work at 624 Albany street, from April 20, 1956, to June 30, 1956, due to weather conditions which prevented completion of the contract.

The Mayor has approved an extension of time for the completion of the contract with Edward Vozzella for sewerage works and water works in Sunset Lane, Dorchester, from April 15, 1956, to June 30, 1956, because it was necessary to provide for the laying of bituminous pavement in the trenches.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 28.

HYDRANT INSPECTIONS.

Effective on Monday, May 7, 1956, all companies except Engine Companies 31 and 47 and the Rescue Company shall engage in a program of hydrant inspection in accordance with the accompanying schedule.

Hydrant inspections shall be made between the hours of 1.30 P.M. and 3.30 P.M., except in those instances where companies are scheduled to inspect on Sunday mornings at which time the inspections shall be made between the hours of 9.30 A.M. and 11.30 A.M.

Inspections shall be made under the supervision of the company officer or member acting in that capacity and shall include the removal of the covers of all Lowry hydrants, the removal of the bonnets of all high-pressure hydrants, and the opening of the main valve of all post hydrants to permit water to pass through the outlets in order to flush the hydrant.

All post hydrants, except high-pressure hydrants, shall be flushed in the following manner:

1. Remove the caps of all hydrant outlets.

2. Open the main valve three full turns to close the waste or drain valve and to permit water to flow freely from the outlets.

3. When water is flowing freely, open the main valve fully to get the full, unrestricted flow of water from the hydrant and allow it to flow for about a minute. NOTE: Before any hydrant valve is opened to permit water to flow through the outlets, observation must be made to ascertain that observers or passers-by are not in the path of the flowing water and that automobiles or other property will not be damaged by water.

4. Shut the hydrant down by closing the main valve, counting the number of turns of the main stem to close it completely.

5. Lubricate the threads of caps and outlets with the lubricant which has been furnished to all companies. A dab of lubricant on the ring by which the chain is secured to the cap will permit the ring to rotate freely and facilitate the removal of the cap and minimize the possibility of breaking the chain. A little lubricating oil squirted around the edge of the cap nut will assist in opening the main valve.

6. Do not replace the outlet caps for at least one full minute, thus permitting the atmospheric pressure to assist in draining the barrel.

7. Before replacing the outlet caps, examine them to ascertain whether or not they are equipped with gaskets. A set of hydrant gaskets, one 4½ inches and two 2½ inches, cost approximately 30 cents, and many of them are missing because members who have operated hydrants in the past have not taken the time to pick up the gaskets which have dropped from the caps when they were removed from the hydrants and replace them in the caps.

Hydrant inspections shall continue in accordance with the schedule until every hydrant in a company subdistrict has been inspected. Inspections shall take place at the prescribed time, including holidays, unless canceled by the chief of department, or by assistant or deputy chiefs.

Hydrants shall be inspected for the following defects:

Inaccessibility, insufficient clearance between outlets and the ground, missing cap nuts, bent or broken main stems, availability of water, broken or missing bonnets, missing outlet caps, broken or disconnected cap chains, difficulty in opening main valve, failure to drain, or any other defect that would prevent the use of the hydrant or interfere with its proper operation.

Accompanying this order, new hydrant inspection reports are being furnished to the department. These reports are of two types, one for high pressure hydrants and one for other types of hydrants.

A separate report, in duplicate, shall be made out for each hydrant inspected. The original shall be kept on file in company quarters for reference and the duplicate or second copy shall be forwarded to Department Headquarters. All questions on the report shall be answered and the reports shall be forwarded weekly.

Any defects in hydrants which are serious enough to prevent their use under fire conditions shall be reported to the Fire Alarm Office by radio and upon return to quarters, the information shall be posted on the last alarm slate and the district chief notified. Such hydrants shall be reinspected within a reasonable period to ascertain whether or not the defect has been corrected. It will not be necessary to fill out another inspection form on reinspections; a Form 5 will be forwarded to report any change or lack of change in the hydrant.

When all hydrants which are installed in a company subdistrict have been inspected, this fact shall be reported to Headquarters. It will not be necessary to withhold this report pending corrections of hydrants found to be defective.

Companies responding to alarms while inspecting hydrants, as in dwelling inspections, shall be on the alert at intersections and blind corners for other responding companies which may also be off their prescribed routes.

In every instance where automobiles are found parked so as to interfere with the proper operation of a hydrant, a hydrant sticker shall be affixed to the auto in accordance with S. O. 55, July 15, 1954.

General Order No. 29.

JOHN M. CANTY REPORTS ON BUSINESS TEACHER MEETING

Following is the report of John M. Canty, Director of Business Education, on attendance at the fifty-ninth annual convention of Eastern Business Teachers Association, Atlantic City, New Jersey, March 28-31, 1956:

Mr. Paul M. Boynton, Supervisor of Business Education, State of Connecticut, and I attended the E.B.T.A. convention together after having participated in the evaluation of Milford High School, Milford, Connecticut, earlier in the week. On Wednesday, we had discussions with the various officers and panelists on problems general to business education and discussed our findings at Milford, Connecticut.

The convention opened to the membership on Thursday morning to the theme, "Tomorrow's Employee—Altering the Patterns to Fit New Needs." We attended the panel discussion on "The Patterns and the New Needs from the Administrators' Viewpoint." The panelists recommended: job studies to determine the trends of the future and to gear the business education curriculum to the needs and requirements of the jobs; modernization of office machine rooms; better job description for secretarial training; recognition of bookkeeping courses as preparatory for students who might attend colleges of business administration; arithmetic be not ignored but rather emphasized in a world of automation. According to the Department of Labor, the number of white collar workers exceeds the number of blue collar workers for the first time since World War I.

It was proposed that standards in business education could be obtained best by the establishment of a National Association of Secondary Schools Accredited in Business Education. It was recommended that teachers in business education spend time in actual business activities either in the summer or on leaves of absence.

On Friday, Dr. Peter L. Agnew, Chairman, Department of Business Education, School of Education, New York University, was the consultant in the Secretarial Training panel. He urged greater training in habits and attitudes. He agreed with the observation that more employees lose jobs because of improper habits and attitudes than because of lack of skills. He observed that there are now three women for every man clerical worker. The preference of business for post-high school-educated pupils eliminates one half the jobs sought by high school graduates. In a survey in the midwest, 77 per cent of the businessmen reporting said that the training in spelling, arithmetic, and penmanship was inadequate. Business attitudes are 31 per cent below standard.

Dr. James R. Meehan, Professor of Education, Director, Division of Business Education, Hunter College, New York, was the consultant at the afternoon panel on Machines. I asked him to give his recommendation for a well-equipped office machine room in a high school.

Dr. Meehan suggested the following:

1. (a) 12 key-drive calculators;
- (b) 6 rotary calculators; (c) 3 10-key calculators; (d) 3 full-bank listers; (e) duplicators: 1 stencil, 1 fluid.

2. Bookkeeping or billing machines should not be used in classroom unless there are definite jobs in the area for the particular model.

3. In a transcription room, one half the typewriters should have elite type. The transcribing machines could be rented for three months as they are needed. Avoid wire recorders.

4. Typewriters should be replaced every five years and other machines every eight years. Electric typewriters are expensive to acquire and to maintain. The service charge on an electric typewriter is $30 per year and in five years the price of a new manual typewriter has been spent on service of the electric.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, April 30, 1956.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m., President McCORMACK in the chair, and all the Councilors present.

The Reverend Vincent J. Piscitelli, of Most Precious Blood Roman Catholic Church, Hyde Park, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. VINCENT J. PISCITELLI.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

O God, the source of all understanding and knowledge, look down with favor upon those in whose hands lie the destiny and welfare of our people. Guide them in their deliberations. Lead them in all their acts. May everything that transpires within these walls be for the benefit of all the people of the City of Boston. Shower blessings upon the men of the City Council through the unity of Thy Son, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

At the request of President McCORMACK, Father Piscitelli offered the following prayer for the repose of the soul of Judge Joseph L. Hurley.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointments:

VETO OF ORDER FOR PRINTING OF COPIES OF 1955 EDITION OF "BOSTON'S STREETS," WITH CERTAIN ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 24, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I return herewith disapproved and without my signature the order adopted by your Honorable Body on April 16, in which the Purchasing Agent was authorized to print 150 cloth-bound copies and 350 paper-bound copies of the 1955 edition of the book entitled "Boston's Streets," with certain additional information added thereto.

According to the Superintendent of Printing the cost of inserting this information in the 1955 edition of this book would be $1,200, and according to the Chief Engineer of the Public Works Survey Division the clerical cost would be another $1,000.

In view of the fact that a new edition of this volume will soon be in preparation, I respectfully suggest that an order be adopted authorizing the Purchasing Agent to include the information desired in the 1956 edition.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
Survey Division, April 23, 1956.

Mr. Walter Malloy,

City Clerk, Boston, Mass.

Subject: Proposed Additions to "Boston Streets"
In answer to your inquiry on the preparation of supplementary lists of churches, historical sites, and off-street parking areas to be added to our present street book, in my opinion it would require approximately fifty man-days of clerical work in this division to secure and compile the desired information into complete lists. The preparation of a list of churches would have to include all sects, some occupying only rented quarters in stores, dwellings, etc., and would involve making a determination of what a "church" is. The clerical cost would amount to about $1,000.

JAMES W. HALEY, Chief Engineer.

City of Boston,
Printing Section, April 21, 1956.

Mr. Walter Malloy,

City Clerk, Boston, Mass.

Dear Walter:

In reply to your request for an estimate on the cost of furnishing a new edition of the book entitled "Boston Streets," with additional information concerning a list of churches, historical sites, and off-street parking garages, I would suggest, with a view to economy, that the present stock of unbound 1955 Street Books be used and that we print the information regarding churches, historical sites, and off-street parking in the back of the book.

If this edition is made up as suggested above, I estimate the cost of furnishing 150 cloth-covered and 350 tag-covered books would be $1,200.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN J. TWOMEY.

The message and order were placed on file.

POLICE DEPARTMENT POLICY ON EMERGENCY HOSPITALIZATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 30, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Police Commissioner in regard to your order of April 2, 1956, relative to his department's present policy concerning the emergency hospitalization of persons injured in highway accidents in the Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, and West Roxbury area.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Police Department, April 20, 1956.
Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

Returned herewith is order of the City Council dated April 2, 1956, as follows:

"That his Honor the Mayor request the Police Commissioner to advise the City Council as to his department's present policy concerning the emergency hospitalization of persons injured in highway accidents in the Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, and West Roxbury area."

It is the policy of the Boston Police Department, in the first instance, to take an injured person to any hospital to which he or she desires to be taken. If the injured person is unable to designate a hospital, or has no choice, it is the practice of the department to convey the victim to either the Boston City Hospital, the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, or the Beth Israel Hospital.

These three hospitals maintain a fully equipped accident ward around the clock and have agreed to accept all emergency cases brought to their institution without any obligation on the part of the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,

T. F. SULLIVAN, Police Commissioner.

Placed on file.

INCLUSION IN "CITY RECORD" OF REMARKS BY MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL AT BOSTON COLLEGE SEMINAR.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 30, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the editor of the "City Record" in regard to your order of April 16, 1956, relative to including in an early edition of the "City Record" the remarks of the members of the City Council at the Boston College Seminar of April 10, 1956.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 24, 1956.
Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

This is in reply to your communication of April 20 with reference to an order of the City Council of April 16, passed on the motion of Councilors Ahern and Foley, as follows:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the editor of the "City Record" to include in an early edition of the "City Record" the remarks of the members of the City Council at the Boston College Seminar of April 10.

The well-considered remarks of five of our City Councilors on Boston's problems at the B. C. Seminar, before a distinguished group of business and professional leaders in our community, in my opinion, is a worthy subject matter for publication in the "City Record."

I recommend, therefore, that his Honor the Mayor extend the courtesy to the City Council of waiving the normal editorial policy of this "official chronicle of Boston municipal affairs," and order the inclusion, one each week, with suitable headlines, of the address of each of the five City Councilors before the B. C. Seminar.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS F. O'DAY, Editor.

Coun. PIEMONTE moved the inclusion, one each week, with suitable headlines, of the address of each of the five City Councilors before the Boston College Seminar, referred to in the foregoing message. The motion was carried.

APPROPRIATION FOR SNOW REMOVAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 30, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith an order for an additional appropriation of $450,000 for snow removal.

On April 9, 1956, your Honorable Body appropriated $250,000 for snow removal purposes, this amount representing payments for overtime worked by departmental employees. It now appears, after a recapitulation of snow removal costs, that an additional $450,000 will be necessary to meet outstanding commitments and to provide a modest amount for the purchase of salt, sand, equipment parts, etc., which might well be needed during the latter part of this year.

The attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works explains in general detail the allocation of snow removal expenses for 1956.

I respectfully request passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, April 26, 1956.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under date of April 2 I wrote to your Honor and requested that an appropriation of $700,000 be provided under the special budgetary item titled "Snow Removal," in addition to the $100,000 that we had requested in the regular budgetary form and which was subsequently appropriated.

This matter was considered by the members of the City Council on Monday, April 9, at which time I appeared at the hearing of the Council. Later in the day, I submitted to Councilor White, Chairman of the Executive Committee, a breakdown of the estimated cost involved in the plowing and removal of snow resulting from the three snowstorms of March and the snowstorm of Sunday, April 8. Subsequently, the Council voted to provide an additional $250,000 for the payment of overtime worked by department employees. Therefore, there is an additional appropriation of $450,000 that presumably is still under consideration by the Council. We will need the latter-referenced amount to pay for the cost of the snowplowing and removal work resulting from the above storms, and also to pay for normal snow removal expenses that will be incurred next fall.

The following is an up-to-date estimate of the amounts needed to pay the unpaid bills incurred in these storms:

Plowing (rental of trucks and equipment) . . .	$150,000
Hauling (rental of trucks and equipment) . . .	75,000
Snow Removal on Rental Basis (contracts) . . .	50,000
Automotive Division (service orders for various repairs to Walter Snow Fighters and purchase requisitions for parts for Walter Snow Fighters) . . .	30,000
Sanitary and Street Cleaning Division (service orders and purchase requisitions for repairs to and purchase of new plow blades, frames, etc.) . . .	35,000
Highway Division (rental of U-Dryvits, wreckers for tow purposes, telegrams, telephones, weather service, incidental expenses, etc.) . . .	15,000
Overtime (For storm of April 8, 1956, which was not included in estimate submitted to City Council on April 9, 1956) . . .	15,000
Total . . .	$370,000

I feel that an additional appropriation of $450,000 should be provided, even though it appears that we will need only $370,000 to pay current bills. The additional $80,000 will be needed to provide for the purchase of salt, sand, equipment parts, etc., and also for the payment of any snow removal or plowing work that might be necessitated in the latter part of this year.

I respectfully request, therefore, that the City Council be requested to approve the appropriation of an additional $450,000 under the special budgetary item titled "Snow Removal."

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the sum of money specified for snow removal in the schedule hereinafter set out be, and hereby is, appropriated for the purpose hereinafter specified, said sum to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates of the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore or hereinafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes, and interest thereon apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for.

Snow Removal $450,000
Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

TRIBUTE TO SUPERINTENDENT HALEY

Mr. McInerney: Before a motion to adjourn is acted upon, Mr. Chairman, may I say that I am afraid I was derelict at our last meeting. I should have directed to the attention of the full Committee, and also those who are present here tonight, that a week ago yesterday our beloved Superintendent, Dr. Dennis C. Haley, was chosen as a Knight of Malta which is a signal honor to any man in this world. Dr. Haley was in New York at a recent gathering of the Knights of Malta—which I believe everyone knows is a lay arm of the Church. I believe it should be the sense of this Committee that we pay public token of our respect and admiration to the Doctor for his newly achieved honor.

And, Doctor, as a member of the Committee, I would like to congratulate you on this signal honor, and wish you good luck and Godspeed as a Knight of Malta. I am sure the Committee joins with me in those sentiments.

Superintendent: Thank you, Mr. McInerney.

Mr. Lee: That is very good news, Mr. McInerney.

Mr. Carr: I move that this Committee adopt the sentiments of Mr. McInerney as expressing the sentiments of the full Committee.

Mr. Lee: Mr. Carr moves that we adopt the sentiments of Mr. McInerney as expressing the sentiments of the entire Committee. Is that without objection?

ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATION FOR NEW SCHOOL

The following memorandum to the Superintendent, from the Structural Engineer, pertaining to the new elementary school on the site of the Elbridge Smith School, was ordered spread in full in the record of this meeting:

The estimate of costs ($529,230) for the new elementary school to be erected at the Elbridge Smith site was made by the Department of School Buildings in late 1954. The School Committee allocation order is dated November 23, 1954.

Revision of estimates to conform to current prices after the School Committee has issued an appropriation or allocation order would entail constant revision and changing of orders. Construction prices for 1956 obviously are higher than those of 1954.

I am informed by Superintendent of Construction, James H. Mooney, that he expected that the architect would produce plans for a two-story building. The architect designed a one-story building as one best adapted to this site and containing the optimum in school facilities. Mr. Mooney endorses this design. You will recall that at our meeting in his office it was his thought that the plan of this building might prove so satisfactory that it might be accepted as standard.

It must be acknowledged that a one-story building, because of increased ground area resulting in additional foundation and roofing work plus the extension of plumbing, heating, and electrical lines, adds noticeably to the cost. Hence, Mr. Mooney's request for an increase in appropriation of $185,000.

There is no doubt that the modern trend in school construction emphasizes one-story structures. Furthermore, I would point out that every classroom in this building has a means of egress directly to the outer air, and that the classroom windows, because of their locations on the inner court, shield the pupils from distracting noises from traffic on Dorchester Avenue and Centre Street.

The following are the opening bids received for the construction of the proposed elementary school on the site of the Elbridge Smith School, Dorchester:

Bidding:

John Bowen Co.	$615,000.
E. Sciaba	619,400.
Leonard Rugo	630,715.
Brick and Concrete Construction Co.	632,000.
De Stefano Construction Co.	638,000.
M. S. Keilher & Co.	639,212.

Honorable John B. Hynes

My dear Mayor Hynes:

In compliance with the provisions of Chapter 513 of the Acts of 1945 and Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Acts of 1949, and subject to favorable action of the General Court on the petition of the School Committee for increased appropriating power, the School Committee submits its estimates of the proposed expenditures for school purposes for the fiscal year 1956, as follows:

TRANSFER OF APPROPRIATION

The following was offered:
ORDERED, That the following transfer is made in the Budget and Annual Appropriation Order for the fiscal year 1955:

FROM

Auxiliary Services, Transportation of Pupils $700.00

TO

Auxiliary Services, School Physicians and Nurses 700.00 (Supplies)

On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Carr, Hurley, Lee, McInerney, and McMorro

NAYS—0.

Mr. McInerney: Mr. Chairman, I would like to leave now as I am on trial and I have to get some lunch.

If the Committee has no objection, I would like to note in passing that while I voted to send the Preliminary Estimates down to the Mayor I want it understood that I voted to include money for the $144 annual increment for the teachers who are not on their maximum in elementary, junior high and senior high school levels, plus an additional increase of $180 for those in the elementary and junior high schools, $120 for those in the high schools.

I voted to send the Preliminary Estimates down to the Mayor notwithstanding the criticism which he directed toward the Committee last Friday, which criticism I anticipated when I voted last Thursday evening. I just want it to remain on the record, that I will stand by those raises. I think if the Committee had voted for those increases the Mayor would not have subjected us to the criticism which he did on Friday last.

Mr. McMorro: Mr. Chairman, I have some comment that I would like to make,—not during this public meeting but during the conference that will take place immediately after this public meeting.

The reason I say that is because the comment that I have to make is fairly lengthy, and in consideration of the amount of money that we are spending for the publication of the minutes of our public meetings, I shall defer until we have our conference immediately after this meeting.

RESOLUTION

Mr. Carr offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS: Elizabeth T. Dorgan, Assistant Secretary of the Boston School Committee, retired from that office on January 31, 1956 after many years of devoted service as a secretary, and

WHEREAS, Her many friends and admirers have paid tribute to her for her many fine qualities; and

WHEREAS, She will be always known to us as a kind, gracious and charitable lady whose many acts of love may have passed unnoticed; and

WHEREAS, "Lil," as she is lovingly known to us, has been a devoted and loyal public servant who served many years as secretary to the Schoolhouse Custodian before her promotion as assistant secretary; and

WHEREAS, Her departure need not be a cause of regret to her many friends but rather a reward to one to whom it was very difficult to say "good-bye," because she will always be in our hearts; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Boston School Committee in meeting assembled extends to her and her family a fervent wish that she will have many years of unbounded joy even though her loss at 15 Beacon Street will cause us to pause, and in our hearts there will be the thought—"a dear friend has left us"; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of these Resolutions be sent to her as a fitting tribute for her public service, and as one to whom the phrase "a fine lady" so clearly applies.

On roll call the preamble and resolutions were adopted by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Carr, Hurley, Lee, and McMorro—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. McInerney—1.

Chairman: May I also say in that connection that I am grateful or at least glad that Mr. Carr was able to spend his brief dinner hour a week ago in attending a party of tribute that was tendered to Mrs. Dorgan, and in a measure to represent the School Committee, which unfortunately was engaged in, I think, its last or next-to-the-last meeting, trying to finish its work before the budget deadline.

STATEMENTS PERTAINING TO PRELIMINARY ESTIMATES

Chairman: Gentlemen, I would like to make a comment on our transmission of this letter, addressed to the Mayor. I don't mean to stress a divergence of opinion between myself and my associates on the allocation of the sums for teachers' salaries therein, because the item does not allocate or distribute, but it is a lump sum for a total to be spent on salaries.

As you know, I favored extending the major increase of salaries to our higher school people, whereas I found that our lower school people seemed to be pleased to be with us in large numbers without so extended an increase; but those matters, as I say, can come up for further disposition later.

Therefore, in regard to the letter as a whole, which simply outlines the total of our proposed expenditures, it does seem to me a very mournful and melancholy thing that Boston alone, of the cities of the Commonwealth, must now rely on the judgment of the Mayor and the City Council as to whether we can have the revenues that we think we need.

In so far as we are asking for moneys that go beyond the statutory limit on our appropriation—fixed by the Legislature only on Boston and on no other city—we must put ourselves at the discretion of the City Council and the Mayor.

I think it is particularly regrettable, in this connection, that both the City Council and the Mayor seem determined not to assess the property of the city fairly and legally, but in fact have made a point of assessing the residential property or the homeowners' property considerably less than other property.—I think at about forty per cent below its value. I am afraid that the children bear the injury of the revenue so lost.

In the meantime, as I said to you before, the Southern towns in this country, are doing just the opposite. The residents are assuming almost the full burden of taxation and are welcoming business and industries into their midst under reduced taxes. Mr. Norton came over from the Republic of Ireland, within this month, as a representative of the Premier and as his Minister of the Interior, and stressed that in Ireland the residents were assuming local taxes and inviting business firms, even from other countries, to come and settle there at reduced taxes.

And so I can say that we are stifling our own support in Boston and our own livelihood by an illegal application of assessments, which puts a high assessment on business property and on earning property and a lower assessment on residential and non-earning property. I think it is a myth that the home-owners are reluctant to support their schools. I think it is an insult to them to assume they haven't got the good sense to know it takes money to educate their children and to assume that they are willing to penalize business and destroy their own livelihoods merely for the sake of evading the law.

I believe, then, that if the City Council and the Mayor will stop wringing their hands about the financial plight of Boston and will merely carry out the law and make fair and equal assessments according to the value of each piece of property, we would then easily have the revenues we need to run our school system, and we would see the City in a more healthy industrial condition than it is at present.

It is my hope that the City Council and the Mayor will give weight to the need of the children and to the benefits of legally and fairly assessing the property of the City of Boston, according to law.

Mr. McMorro?

Mr. McMorro: Mr. Chairman, since two of my colleagues have made statements for the public meeting, I think I shall go only so far as to include that portion of the discussion that I intend to have later at the conference, which deals with the editorial that appeared in this morning's Boston Herald, and I shall quote from that editorial:

"Despite the Mayor's anguished cries of cost, the pay boosts included in the preliminary school budget probably represented the best compromise the Committee could make. The $294,000 earmarked for teachers' pay increases is $120,000 more than the department allowed in its budget; but it is a good $200,000 less than the Boston Teachers Alliance was demanding, and, everything considered, the Alliance had a good case.

"Looking at teachers' salaries alone, we cannot accuse the Committee of being overgenerous or of thinking of everyone but the taxpayers."

I am taking excerpts, Mr. Chairman:

"Our school people are not doing badly on money saving, but our circumstances, including the new pay increases, call for their doing superlatively well."

The only other comment I should care to make, Mr. Chairman, is that I have many more things to say, and, as I indicated before, I do not intend to say them at the expense of the taxpayers if they would have to put them into these public meetings.

My statement is lengthy, and it will be discussed in conference.

Chairman: Thank you very much, Mr. McMorro, for bringing that to our attention. It is a very reassuring statement from our newspapers.

The Committee adjourned.

Secretary

LIFE SPAN DOUBLED

The Health Department of the City of Providence, Rhode Island, recently published encouraging statistics for present-day residents of that city. The department, which will reach the century mark in May, reported the average city resident is a far healthier person and lives much longer than did his counterpart of a century ago.

Dr. Joseph Smith, health superintendent, said the death rate in the city has been reduced more than half, while the life expectancy has more than doubled.

HIGH RENTS BOOMERANG

"Higher rents and larger families are underlying reasons for at least 60 per cent of new home buying," declared Malcolm G. Dunn, Boston real estate executive. Even 10 per cent rent increases have caused tenants to look for houses to purchase. Oftentimes only a minor stimulus is necessary to change a family from a tenant to a home owner.

MAYOR HYNES PROPOSES NEW FEE SCHEDULE TO INCREASE CITY'S ANNUAL REVENUE BY $300,000

Mayor John B. Hynes, in an order submitted to the Boston City Council on Monday, May 14, has proposed the first upward revision in 20 years of fees for licenses, permits, and various special city services. The Mayor estimates the proposal will bring an additional $300,000 yearly into the city treasury.

The new schedule, drawn up by the Law Department at the Mayor's request, covers more than 500 separate items for which the city either requires a fee at present or a new charge is proposed.

"Since the last revision in 1937," Mayor Hynes said, "the city's costs for services have risen considerably. Hospital costs, for example, have leaped in the last 10 years," he said.

Mayor Hynes pointed out that the new hospital rate schedule, involving increased charges, would in no way affect the city's policy of waiving all charges at City Hospital for those unable to pay.

The new schedule calls for a charge of 50 cents a day for outpatient treatment at the hospital. This service is now free. Bed and board rates for private room patients would increase from $14 to $21 a day; for semiprivate, from $11 to $18, and for wards, from $11 to $15. Delivery room charges at City Hospital would rise from $15 to $25. Fees of $3 for adults and $2 for children would be charged for treatment in the accident floor. The present $7.50 daily rate for the care of chronic or disabled patients at Long Island Hospital would be increased to $10. Charges at the Sanatorium in Mattapan would be raised from $14 to $15 a day.

The Mayor's order would raise the present cost of a common victualer's license from the present fee of $15 to an additional charge of $15 for every 50 seats in an eating place.

Boston residents who play golf at the Franklin Park and George Wright municipal courses would pay an increase of $10 in their annual fee. Non-resident fees would be scaled considerably higher, and green fees at both courses would be boosted in proportion.

Bowling alley licenses, now $7, would cost $5, plus $8 an alley. Sunday bowling alley licenses would be $5, plus $5 an alley.

Building permits would go up according to a scale. There is no charge at present to keep a cow or a goat in Boston. A $5 permit to keep a cow and $3 for a goat is proposed. Elevator operators' licenses now $1, would go up to $2, and renewals, now 50 cents, would be $1. Permits to install fuel oil burners, now 50 cents would be $3.

A schedule of charges for use of halls in municipally-owned buildings, not presently specified, is proposed according to seating capacity, the days of the week, and the time of day they are to be used.

The present charge for operating a refuse incinerator, other than household, is $2 a year. A $25 charge is proposed. Jitney licenses would go up from $10 to $25. Dump permits would be boosted from $25 to $100, and substitute dog tags would be increased from 10 cents to 25 cents.

No changes are listed for marriage licenses, milk permits, use of facilities at L Street, or for burning leaves. The traditional charge of 1 cent for soap and towels at public baths, however, would be raised to 5 cents.

Licenses to carry firearms would be boosted from 50 cents to $5, and licenses to sell, rent, or lease firearms would be increased from no charge to $1. Operators displaying fireworks would be assessed $5 instead of 50 cents.

A nonresident auctioneer's license would be jumped from $5 to $25, and a cemetery permit would be $100, whereas, no charge is made at present.

The order was submitted to the Council in the form of a 55-page document with a 21-page table showing the changes proposed. The order was referred to the Council's Committee on Ordinances. Public hearings will be scheduled.

The new schedule of fees was first suggested by the Boston Finance Commission in a detailed report on the subject several weeks ago.

From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,

STATE-CITY RELATIONS THE KEY TO BOSTON'S PROBLEMS

CITY COUNCILLOR JOHN F. COLLINS CALLS FOR DYNAMIC ACTION ON PART OF ALL CONCERNED

This is the third in a series of five reports on Boston's problems by members of the City Council before a recent Boston College Seminar.

City Councillor John F. Collins, former State Senator, discussed details of this city's relations with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the communities of the metropolitan district, as one of the City Council panel members, at the final Boston College seminar on Boston problems conducted on the campus on April 10.

The text of Councillor Collins' remarks is as follows:

Introduction.

(1) If readiness to face up to hard realities is the beginning of wisdom, these Boston College seminars, in my opinion, rate high as an educational experience. In reviewing the discussions that have taken place here, I am impressed by the candid, almost relentless way, in which the panelists have laid bare the consequences of past mistakes and equally by their realistic attitude toward whatever stands in the way of substantial progress.

(2) I am impressed also by the fair-mindedness of members of the business community toward the Boston problem. They have pulled no punches; neither have they made unfair comparisons or indulged in moralistic preachments. Rather, rising above mere faultfinding, they have gone straight to fundamentals and have placed the matter before us as one more problem to be identified, tackled, and solved.

(3) I have chosen to speak about certain facets of the interrelationships of the Commonwealth, the City of Boston, and the metropolitan districts. At this advanced stage of the seminar series I have no distinctly original contribution to the subject. Our able Mayor John Hynes has discussed the general problem from the Boston point of view. It is my purpose to place on the record a fairly systematic statement of what has been done with respect to state-local relations, and to focus attention on the tasks that call for immediate action.

(4) In the relationships of the Commonwealth, the City of Boston, and the metropolitan districts, I maintain that the role and the responsibility of the Commonwealth are paramount. The state, after all, is the legal source and fountainhead of all of the powers of local government. It can give, and it can take away; it can authorize, and it can forbid; and its determinations in either case are both fateful—and final. So much depends upon whether it chooses to play a positive and constructive role in designing and shaping a well-ordered structure of government for the metropolitan area and the capital city, or whether it chooses to dodge responsibility and limits itself to tinkering with bits and pieces. It is a good sign that for the past decade the state government has begun to move in the direction of leadership and reconstruction.

Causes of "The Boston Problem."

(1) From the fiscal point of view the problem of Boston Proper is basically simple. It is that the city's burdens outweigh its resources; and that in the effort to bear its responsibilities in a manner appropriate to a great city, it is forced to do injury to its basic economic health.

(2) The reasons why Boston's burdens are heavier than those of other municipalities are partly physical and partly political in character. Physically, the City Proper is small in relation to the whole metropolitan area. By virtue of its location the greater part of the metropolitan core lies within its borders. This central district is old, and congested, and its street pattern bears the imprint of the eighteenth century. By virtue of its position also, Boston Proper is the natural location of wharves and warehouses, of railroad yards and elevated structures (both rapid transit and vehicular), of square mile upon square mile of low-income dwelling units, and of governmental and institutional buildings. From factors such as these flow extraordinary costs for police and fire protection; for health and hospital and welfare services; for streets and bridges, for traffic control and mass transportation.

(3) The causes of Boston's extra burdens are also political and governmental. Take, for example, the curious and inequitable apportionment of county expenditures, and the lopsided formulae for the assessment of costs of the metropolitan water, sewerage, parks, and transit districts. The creation of the M.D.C. agencies 60 or 70 years ago was itself a prime example of governmental policy—or politics, if you will—making it possible for Boston's suburbs to gain the advantages of big city services without yielding their political independence and blocking, probably forever, the physical expansion of the City Proper.

(4) I need not labor these points before this audience. You greater Bostonians—and "good Bostonians"—who run our banks and industries and business houses are big enough and knowledgeable enough to see these things. What is needed is that the people of the suburbs, whose sympathies and interests are all too often narrow, also should understand these things and should see, too, how the fortunes of Boston inevitably affect their own.

The Commonwealth and Boston's Burdens.

In his address before you, Governor Herter has taken pains, as is proper, to point out that the Commonwealth has "not left its cities adrift." A review of the record shows indeed that the state has done many things that affect the all-important balance of municipal burdens and resources. But that the sum total of these pluses and minuses leaves Boston at a serious disadvantage, there can be no room for doubt.

With respect to burdens, the action of the Commonwealth has taken several forms. One is the transfer from Boston to the state of responsibility for existing functions. Examples mentioned by the Governor are the transfer many years ago of the airport and the Port of Boston Commission. As a more recent example, one might add the absorption of the Boston Teachers College into the state's educational system.

A second development is the assumption by the state of at least partial responsibility for new and emerging burdens of government, of which the best example is that of construction of major urban traffic arteries.

A third type of action is the transfer of responsibility for existing local functions to metropolitan agencies. In this category fall the transfer of the Strandway park and beach areas to the M.D.C. parks district, the creation of the Metropolitan Transit Authority, and the transfer of Boston-owned rapid transit subways to the M.T.A. Finally, one may note the transfer of responsibility for certain metropolitan functions from the M.D.C. to the state as a whole; for example, Storrow Drive and Morrissey Boulevard.

These developments are all to the good. It is not ungenerous, however, to say that all of these actions ought, in justice, to have been taken. It is not ungenerous, either, with respect to state participation in the traffic relief program, to point out that the revenue of the Highway Fund, the proceeds of which until very recently were spent entirely outside of Boston, originates in substantial degree within the city. Transfer of the subways in 1949 moreover did not lighten the burden of taxation of real estate as recurring deficits have continued, nor did the reorganization correct the formula that compels Boston to pay 64 per cent of the bill. Is it not a fair statement to add that the occurrence of the deficits is due in part to the state's policy of building expressways that compete with the rapid transit system instead of fostering a coordinated transportation program that would bring new business to the M.T.A.?

It should be remembered also that since Boston pays 40 per cent of the operating costs of the M.D.C. parks system a transfer of function from the city to the district does not free Boston of complete financial responsibility.

The State and Boston's Resources.

Now let's look at the picture from the standpoint of Boston's fiscal resources. Yes, due to its location, Boston can tax much high value property. But as Mayor Hynes has emphasized again and again and as Mr. Philip Theopold, in his address here last spring made crystal clear, and as everybody now knows, Boston's taxable valuations of $1,541,000,000 stand today at only 75 per cent of what they were 25 years ago; that we are trying to raise more taxes from less actual value of taxable property than any other large city; that two thirds of the city's present annual expenditure of 160 million dollars falls upon real estate and personal property; that the annual amount of new taxable construction in Boston is relatively negligible, and lags far behind the rate of obsolescence, and that the city's competitive position is being steadily undermined.

What has been the Commonwealth's contribution with respect to the tax base of Boston? It has ceased to load its own operating deficit on to the municipalities in the form of the iniquitous "State Tax." That is something; on the other hand, as the Governor has mentioned, state authorization of multimillion-dollar M.D.C. water and sewerage projects, and the persistence of large M.T.A. deficits have increased the city's own levy upon real estate. At the same time, by failing to reimburse municipalities for properties lost to the tax rolls through various exemptions and through land takings for expressways and other public facilities, the state has chipped away a part of an already depleted tax base.

Next to taxes on real estate the city's chief resource is the combination of reimbursements, distributions, and grants which, for brevity's sake, may be called State Aid. To sum up quickly, we need only recall what previous panelists have already brought to light. Mr. Robert Morgan's study indicated that state aid is insufficient in amount and that the distribution is not geared to the needs and the fiscal abilities of our municipalities. Mr. Edward C. Wilson, who, as Associate Commissioner of Corporations and Taxations, ought to know, has stated here that while the total of state aid is rising this total is not in proportion to the rate of increase in local spending. It was Governor Herter himself who told us that "the whole system of distribution and reimbursement amounting to $150,000,000 annually is no less than a tragic mess doing justice neither to the Commonwealth or to the cities and towns."

What the State Should Do.

(1) What the Commonwealth should do is pretty clear to all of us, at least, by now. First, it should quickly correct the basis for assessment of M.D.C., M.T.A., and Suffolk County costs which are inequitable, discriminatory, and harmful to Boston. This is largely a matter of redistribution of costs among the members of special regional districts. It is a matter not of state largesse, but of simple justice. As for the magnitude of the burden represented by these costs as distinguished from the method of assessment, the state should give careful consideration to the impact of large capital expenditures and increases in operating costs upon the member municipalities. Here is a spot where a strategic role should be given to state, metropolitan, and local planning agencies.

(2) Secondly, the state should carry further the process of reallocation of functions as between Boston and the metropolitan districts. In this area, Governor Herter has made definite suggestions. He has even raised the question as to whether or not there should be established a new form of government of limited powers for the metropolitan district. My own response to the question is a strong affirmative.

(3) Thirdly, the state should follow through on the findings of its own fiscal survey commissions and on the conclusions of these seminars, to correct and improve the system of financial distributions as between the state and the cities and towns. This should include the assumption of a greater share of welfare costs by the state. If this means new taxes, in addition to changes in methods, then the State Executive Department should make it less difficult for legislators who must vote and be counted, by educating the public as to the necessity for such levies.

(4) It is easy enough to say what the state should do. It is another thing to predict what the state will do. This I know from personal experience. The defeat last week of the so-called "Fringe Bill" provides a graphic illustration. This bill would assess upon fourteen contiguous communities 25 per cent of the M.T.A. deficit. It was reported favorably by the Committee on Ways and Means and was killed in the House by standing vote two days later. The significant aspect of this defeat for Boston was the participation in the debate of legislators from Central and Western Massachusetts, whose communities would not be at all affected. Were they to be candid they would admit that their reason for holding the coat of the suburban David while he slew the Boston Goliath was simply that any extension of the M.T.A. district might lead to state assumption of all or part of the deficit in the indefinite future.

In any similar contest Boston and its legislators stand virtually alone, while the unspoken challenge to Boston to pull itself up to economic security by its own badly frayed bootstraps, presents an almost insuperable barrier. This need not be a permanent condition. Fair-minded legislators can be convinced that the future of the state as well as of their own communities is linked with that of Boston. To accomplish this, the continued and increased participation of the business community in hearings before legislative committees is invaluable. Dispatching a legislative agent to speak for our leading organizations is not enough. On crucial legislation the personal appearance of our outstanding citizens whose economic interests lie in Boston but who reside elsewhere, would go far to reconcile the conflict between the interests of Boston and the legislators from their home communities.

Finally, we may ask ourselves whether Boston has reached a position of maturity sufficient to warrant returning to the city some of its powers and responsibilities. For example, there are too many exceptions of Boston from the General Laws. To illustrate:

1. Boston cannot levy a sewer service charge as can other cities.

2. Boston cannot establish a separate urban redevelopment authority as can other cities and towns.

We may also ask whether the several agencies now under control of state-appointed personnel might be returned to the jurisdiction of the city, notably the Police Department, Licensing Board, and the Finance Commission.

What Boston Can Do.

(1) Of course, the city government of Boston has its responsibilities in these matters. In the last few years it has done much in the direction of better management. That is a matter of record. That there is room for further improvement I concede. Besides perfecting methods and procedures, the city should, I believe, re-examine the quantity and quality of services of many kinds that it is now providing at considerable expense.

(2) Secondly, there is much that we can do to improve the city's economic climate. One such step is the assessment equalization program authorized last week by the Council, which will introduce a badly-needed element of certainty and stability, as well as of equity, in the valuation of real estate.

(3) Action is needed also in developing a top-notch municipal public relations office within the city government. I know that we now have the excellent advice of Paul Newsome's professionals who have volunteered their services to Mayor Hynes. Beyond that, we need an office that will do a day-to-day job in interpreting the city to the public and to the world.

An extremely useful product of this office might well be the preparation of brochures suitable for mailing by our business and financial institutions to their clients and associates the country over.

(4) In this matter of economic climate we also need to expedite the urban redevelopment and renewal program which promises so much for the rehabilitation of blighted areas.

Finally, a more dynamic effort should be made to proclaim the advantages of the City of Boston, to point up its assets, and to promote tourist and convention activity as well as to encourage new business.

Windup.

Now my years of public service have taught me that while nothing great is done without enthusiasm, neither is anything accomplished except by hard work. From their very inception these seminars have built up a veritable stockpile of valuable information, suggestions, and plans, all designed to promote a better metropolitan Boston. From the pooled resources of these seminars there will be fashioned, I assume, some instrumentality that will serve in bridging the gap between proposal and fulfillment. Such an instrumentality will need plenty of help. For myself, and I am sure I speak for all my colleagues of the Boston City Council, I pledge wholehearted cooperation.

PUBLIC WELFARE OVERSEERS RE-ELECT PRESENT OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of the Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare held on Monday, May 7, 1956, the following were unanimously elected to serve as officers of the Board for the ensuing year:

Chairman: Mr. Joseph K. Collins.
Vice-Chairman: Mr. James S. Maloof.
Treasurer: Mr. Joseph E. Scanlon.
Secretary: Mr. William C. O'Hare.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for an extension of time from December 28, 1955, to October 1, 1956, on the contract of Westinghouse Electric Corporation for complete repair and replacements to the 400-kw., engine-driven, d.c. generator, Power Plant, Boston City Hospital, due to a strike.

CITY COUNCIL CONSIDERS MAYOR'S REQUEST FOR $5 MILLION SCHOOL LOAN

Mayor John B. Hynes, on Monday, May 14, requested the City Council to initiate a loan order of $5,000,000 in furtherance of Boston's school construction program. The Mayor's communication, which was referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance, read as follows:

GENTLEMEN:

I transmit to you herewith a communication from the Chairman of the School Committee which contains the request that a recommendation be submitted to your Honorable Body for the incurring of debt in the amount of $10,000,000 for the construction of school buildings, acquisition of land, and original equipment and furnishings thereof.

In consideration of other much-needed capital improvements for which I will propose loan authorizations within the debt limit, and inasmuch as under existing provisions of law it appears that the Mayor lacks authority to recommend a loan order for school purposes to your Honorable Body, I recommend that a loan order in the amount of $5,000,000 be originated by the City Council for school building construction. The authorization of this amount will make possible the preparation of plans and the acquisition of land, where necessary, for all of the proposed projects and the construction of all except the new Boston Technical High School. It is estimated that a year to fifteen months' time will be required for the preparation of plans for this project. When these plans have been completed and approved by the School Building Assistance Commission, I will recommend that an additional amount be authorized outside the statutory debt limit in accordance with chapter 645, Acts of 1948, as amended by chapter 520, Acts of 1950.

It is necessary under the provisions of section 10, chapter 44, of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 56, Acts of 1952, to secure the approval of the Emergency Finance Board before any indebtedness may be authorized in excess of 2½ per cent and less than 5 per cent of the average assessed valuations of the preceding three years less abatements. This approval has been requested and a hearing thereon will be held on either Thursday, May 17, 1956, or Monday, May 21, 1956. I am very confident that this hearing will result in favorable action.

Under existing statutes, 34 days must elapse after a first reading of a loan order before the same can become fully effective. In order to permit commencement of the school construction program contemplated under this loan order at the earliest possible date, I recommend that a loan order in the amount of $5,000,000 be introduced at today's meeting. This action will be in conformity with legal requirements.

I further recommend that your Honorable Body originate and approve a loan order in the above-stated amount.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

CITY NETS $1½ MILLION FROM LICENSING BOARD

Figures for 1955 submitted by the Boston Licensing Board in its annual report to Governor Herter shows that the total receipts ran to $1,672,013.65. Minus expenses, the City of Boston netted $1,564,463.04.

There was a total of 10,728 licenses granted, including: innholder and common victualer, 2,401; lodging house, 2,227; alcoholic beverages, 1,560; entertainment, 1,289; soft drinks, 1,168; Sunday sale of ice cream, confectionery, etc., 1,075; automatic amusement devices, 510; billiard, pool, and bowling alleys, 130; intelligence, 119; retail druggists, 94; firearms, 20; club victualer, 14; shooting gallery, 2; and picnic groves, 1.

MAYOR'S STATEMENT ON TEACHER SALARY REQUEST

Following is the statement of Mayor John B. Hynes announcing his recent decision to restore to the School Department budget the sum of $68,000 in order to provide the necessary funds to grant the fifth step in the single salary increase to school teachers and to give the temporary teachers a two-dollar-per-day increase:

In the consideration of the annual school budget, various reductions were made by the Mayor. For example, in the amounts allowed for general school purposes, a reduction of $164,000 was made. Subsequent to this reduction, the members of the School Committee voted to request me to restore $68,000 of this reduction in order that the fifth step in the single salary schedule could be granted to teachers beginning September 1, 1956.

I have given further study to this matter, and to the request of the School Committee. I have also given consideration to the statistics forwarded me by Mr. Mark Dalton, representing the School Teachers Alliance. I have also discussed this matter at some length with School Committeeman McInerney, who has been especially considerate of the over-all financial picture of the city. After this discussion, and acting on the strong pleadings of School Committeeman McInerney, and in order that the fifth step in the single salary schedule will be achieved, and in order that temporary teachers will receive an increase in salary from $14 to $16 per day, I have decided to restore the $68,000, as requested, to the School Department budget for 1956.

MAYOR HYNES PROPOSES A $10 MILLION BOND ISSUE FOR PARKING FACILITIES

In a message to the City Council on Monday, May 14, Mayor John B. Hynes requested the approval of an order calling for the issuance of $10,000,000 outside the statutory debt limit to finance the erection of additional off-street parking facilities as programmed by the Real Property Board with the approval of the Planning Board.

Legislative approval of this bond issue was given by a special act of June 20, 1955. The Mayor's order has been referred to the Council's Committee on Appropriations and Finance. His message to the Council on the subject read as follows:

GENTLEMEN:

Legislation authorizing the City of Boston to borrow, outside its limit of indebtedness, for the construction of additional off-street parking facilities was approved on June 20, 1955. Herewith is an order authorizing the City Treasurer to borrow $10,000,000, from time to time, for the construction of off-street parking facilities within the City of Boston.

At the present time, it is estimated that an additional ten to twelve thousand off-street parking facilities are necessary in Boston to meet current demands, and the demands generated by the John F. Fitzgerald Artery.

Although approval is requested of the City Council of the full amount of the loan authorization, it may well be that the growing interest of private capital in the construction of off-street parking facilities will make it unnecessary for the City of Boston to make use of the full loan authorization.

However, there is no assurance that this will happen. We cannot be certain that private capital will keep abreast of current or future demands for parking facilities. Consequently, the city must be prepared to go forward without delay in the construction of parking facilities in those areas of the city which have been designated by the City Planning Board and the Board of Real Estate Commissioners as desirable areas for such facilities.

In order that your Honorable Body may have at your disposal the views of these bodies, I attach herewith copies of the most recent report of the City Planning Board, and the recommendations of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners.

Three Facilities Operating

At the present time, in the downtown area, three parking facilities, one completely financed by the city, and two partially financed by the city, are in operation. These facilities are located at Lincoln and Essex streets, Winthrop square, and Post Office square. Likewise, at the present time, a ramp-type facility fully financed by the city is under construction at St. James avenue. A mechanical-type facility at Hayward place will shortly be open for bids. If no private capital is forthcoming for the construction of this facility, the city will proceed to its construction and bear the full cost of its financing. Land-taking proceedings have been initiated for a facility site in the Central-Kilby Street area, but further action has been suspended awaiting the outcome of court proceedings brought to restrain the city from going forward at this particular site.

Private capital, completely independent of city financing, is now in the process of building a parking facility on Lincoln street, at the site of the Old United States Hotel; and also in the process of planning a parking facility on Province street, between Bromfield and School streets. At this point, I wish to extend the official gratitude of the City of Boston to the gentlemen who are responsible for the building of these two facilities, without seeking any financial aid from the city.

In the opinion of the City Planning Board and the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, it is imperative that at least nine more parking facilities be constructed in Boston, with or without the financial aid of the city. In addition to the nine areas set forth in the Planning Board report, the Board of Real Estate Commissioners recommend a facility in the North Station area.

ROXBURY COMMUNITY COUNCIL RECEIVES COMMENDATION ON PROGRAM FROM MAYOR HYNES

Mayor John B. Hynes, this week, publicly lauded the Roxbury Community Council for the valuable assistance it is giving to the city-wide rehabilitation and conservation program. The Council is headed by President Frank Harrington of the First National Bank. The Council is composed of a number of organizations, including veterans' groups, mothers' clubs, social agencies, churches, service clubs, and home and school and neighborhood associations. Other officers are: Herbert Tucker, Jr., first vice-president; Mrs. Frank W. Morris, Jr., second vice-president; Marjorie Obenauer, secretary; Frank Ferdinand, treasurer.

The Council has dedicated itself to a wide range of community improvements, including cleaner streets, better schools and playgrounds, and improved housing. Already this season, in anticipation of the Boston annual spring clean-up, paint-up, fix-up and plant-up campaign, neighborhood groups are busily engaged in cleaning up back alleys, vacant lots, and in the promotion of gardens.

One of the outstanding activities of the Council this spring is the beautification of the grounds at the Whittier Street Health Unit. Through the Whittier Street Health Unit Committee, an agency of the Council, it is planning to plant small shrubs and trees on the grounds to provide shade for the park benches. The labor will all be done by the children of residents in that neighborhood.

"It is this type of work," says the Mayor, "that is doing much to encourage the city-wide rehabilitation and conservation program movement. I hope before the end of the month that all neighborhood groups throughout the city will undertake similar chores."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.

Purchasing Division.

Parking Meter Parts

The Mayor has approved the award of a contract, without advertising, for parking meter parts, by the Purchasing Agent, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Traffic Commission has submitted an estimate of their requirements for parking meter repair parts and also miscellaneous materials required for the operation of the parking meters which do not fall into the category of repair parts. These estimates are for the period from May 1, 1956, to March 31, 1957.

Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award contracts, without public advertisement, to the following companies at the amounts as stated:

John E. Doran, doing business as Mi-Co Meters Eastern Sales Company, 211 State street, Bridgeport, Connecticut, prices are f.o.b. Covington, Kentucky, total amount of contract not to exceed $4,884.25, net.

M. H. Rhodes, Inc., 30 Bartholomew avenue, Hartford, Connecticut, total amount of contract not to exceed $3,987.50, net.

Apahouser Corporation of New England, 104 Brookline avenue, Boston, Mass., total amount of contract not to exceed $2,635, net.

John E. Doran, doing business as Mi-Co Meters Eastern Sales Company, is the exclusive distributor in New England for the Michaels Art Bronze Company, Inc., who is the manufacturer of some of the materials requested. M. H. Rhodes, Inc., is also a manufacturer. Apahouser Corporation of New England has submitted much lower prices for some materials as compared to those of the manufacturer. In view of these facts, it is my opinion that the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contracts as requested.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

White-Line Paint

The Mayor, on May 14, approved the award of a contract by the Purchasing Agent, for white-line paint, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Traffic Commission for 1,000 gallons Prismo Municipal Life-Line traffic white paint as distributed by Prismo Safety Corporation of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

During the past several years, many other types of white traffic paint have been bid against Prismo and have been rejected after consideration by the Traffic Commission. Prismo is the only white traffic paint presently acceptable to the Traffic Commission.

Inasmuch as Prismo Safety Corporation will sell direct to the city, it is my opinion that there would be no advantage to publicly advertising for bids. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Prismo Safety Corporation for 1,000 gallons Prismo Municipal Life-Line traffic white paint for immediate delivery to the Traffic Commission Sign Shop, 112 Southampton street, Boston.

Price of paint is $3.15 per gallon, making the total amount of the contract $3,150, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

School Addition Windows

The Mayor, on May 9, approved the following:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On April 3, 1956, the City of Boston, acting by its Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, executed a $328,425 contract with Michael Racioppi, the low bidder, providing for the erection and completion of an addition to the Solomon Lewenberg School, Mattapan, Mass.

As was pointed out at the time of the award of the contract only one subbid had been received for aluminum windows, which bid was rejected. New bids were informally solicited for these windows and now having been obtained, the low bidder is the Ludman Corporation in the sum of $3,000.

Therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to omit additional advertising and to amend the principal contract to reflect the Ludman Corporation as the subbidder for aluminum windows at a figure of $3,000, representing an increase in the contract of $238, making the new contract sum, $328,663.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Bus Transportation

The Mayor has approved the award of a contract, by the Hospital Department, without advertising, for furnishing bus transportation, between Long Island and Fields Corner, Dorchester. Approval was based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, a Massachusetts corporation, with offices at 165 Devonshire street, Boston, Mass., providing for the furnishing of daily bus service from the rapid transit station at Fields Corner to Long Island Hospital, Boston, Mass., commencing with April 1, 1956, and ending December 31, 1956, at a cost not in excess of $35,000. The proposed contract will contain the same reasonable rates as appear in the contract having a termination date of March 31, 1956.

The aforementioned firm has operated this bus service since its beginning in the summer of 1951 and has performed the work efficiently and satisfactorily.

On the basis of the foregoing and as this company holds the franchise over the route and since it proposes to continue its services under the existing terms and conditions, it is my opinion that public advertising for performance of the subject bus service would be of no avail.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON, President,
BOARD OF TRUSTEES, HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Sanatorium Division.
Engineering Services

The Mayor, on May 9, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, for engineering services in connection with renovations and alterations to the

Mattapan Sanatorium, based on the following communication from the trustees:

YOUR HONOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to engage the services of the J. M. McCusker Associates for engineering services in connection with renovations and alterations to the steam heating and plumbing systems in various buildings at the Sanatorium Division.

Your approval is also respectfully requested to dispense with advertising because of the professional nature of the services involved.

The estimated cost of this work is $76,500. The J. M. McCusker Associates are to be paid a fee equal to 10 per cent of the actual cost of the above work, subject to the approval of the provisions of the contract for said services.

This matter was approved by the Board of Trustees at a meeting held on April 20, 1956.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees, Hospital
Department, and Boston City Hospital.

Architectural Services

Mayor Hynes, on May 14, approved the award of a contract, by the Library Trustees, for architectural services, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Public Library respectfully request the approval of your Honor for entering into a contract, without public advertising, with Messrs. Ames and Graves, 50 Beacon street, Boston, for architectural services in the year 1956. The estimated cost will be approximately $2,700. This service is necessary in order to take care of extensive relighting work to be done at the Central Library building and at several branch libraries. The architects' professional services consist of necessary conferences; preparation of preliminary studies, working drawings, specifications, and large-scale and full-size detail drawings; drafting of forms of proposals and contracts; and responsibility for and supervision of work required by the trustees.

Messrs. Ames and Graves have been the consulting architects for the library for over fourteen years and have become thoroughly familiar with the structural problems to be met in making alterations in the buildings of the library system and with the needs of library service. The Trustees of the Public Library therefore have voted:

"That there be entered into with Messrs. Ames and Graves, 50 Beacon street, Boston, a contract for architectural services in the year 1956, the total fee thus charged to be subject to the terms, agreements, and conditions set forth in said contract."

Inasmuch as the expected expenditure for this service will exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), there is respectfully requested permission of your Honor to enter into this contract without publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY
OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,

by MILTON E. LORD,
Director.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Deer Island Sea Wall

Award of the following additional work of a contract on construction of a sea wall at Deer Island, by the Penal Institutions Commissioner, has been approved by the Mayor:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 13, 1955, your Honor approved a contract between the City of Boston, acting by its Penal Institutions Commissioner, and Joseph F. Page, engineer, 20 Pemberton square, Boston, Mass., providing for full engineering and architectural services in connection with the proposed construction of a 300-foot addition to the reinforced concrete sea wall near the men's prison building, on Deer Island, Boston Harbor. The estimated cost of this work is $30,000, and under the contract, the engineer will be paid a fee equal to 6 per cent of the actual construction cost.

Plans and specifications have been completed for the construction of this 300-foot addition to the reinforced concrete sea wall and therefore the construction could be advertised immediately. However, in order to lessen the forceful assaults of the ocean waters upon the exterior walls of the above-mentioned prison building, it now seems highly advisable to construct an additional 100-foot extension of the concrete sea wall. The cost of this added construction is estimated to be $10,000.

Therefore, I now propose, subject to your Honor's prior approval, to dispense with formal advertising and to amend the principal contract with Mr. Joseph F. Page, engineer, to provide for the preparation of plans and specifications for the construction of an additional 100 feet of reinforced concrete sea wall. It is proposed that the engineer's fee for these services, including supervision of actual construction, shall be set at 6 per cent of the actual construction cost of the work added to the original project.

In view of the engineer's intimate knowledge of the site of the work and its problems as well as the professional nature of the undertaking it is not believed that public advertising would be of avail to the city.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD L. FRIEL,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Bridge Repairs

The Mayor, on May 10, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, for emergency repairs to the Chelsea Street Bridge, based on the following communication from the Public Works Commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At approximately 7 A.M. on Tuesday, May 8, 1956, an opening of the Chelsea Street Bridge was attempted by the drawtenders to allow passage of an oil cargo vessel, and because of the failure of the operating machinery, involving the main drive shaft, the bridge could not be raised.

Investigation showed a serious failure of the shaft bearing caps and bolts, which allowed the shaft to jump from its normal alignment.

The General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., of 336 Border street, East Boston, was called in to make emergency repairs, which they accomplished at approximately 3.30 P.M. of the same day, at which time the bridge was raised to allow passage of the oil vessel.

However, this opening disclosed the fact that the shaft had been damaged by bending, to the extent that it was clearly evident that to operate the bridge further was inadvisable, because of the danger of incurring much greater damage to the heavy gearing, etc., related to the damaged shaft, and on the advice of our engineers and mechanical experts of the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., I have decided to close the bridge to navigation until the damaged shaft can be replaced with a new shaft.

In view of the importance of the water-borne oil and gasoline cargo traffic through the waterway of this bridge, this should be done immediately. It should be noted that the work cannot be done with the bridge in raised position.

It is estimated by the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., that the damaged shaft could be replaced in approximately six or seven days at a cost of approximately $3,300. This cost would cover the necessary operations of removing the damaged shaft from the bridge to the shop and making a new steel shaft and installing the new unit with all related gears, brake drums, etc., in place at the bridge, and restoring the bridge to operation.

The estimate of cost and time required to perform the work has been thoroughly checked by Bridge Division Engineer McCall, who assures me that the estimate is quite fair and reasonable.

Therefore, your authority is respectfully requested to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract, through the Bridge Division of this department, to the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., 336 Border street, East Boston, on a force-account basis, to execute the emergency replacement of the main drive shaft of the Chelsea Street Drawbridge, in an amount not to exceed $3,500.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

Furnishing Hand Towels

The Mayor, on May 10, approved the award of a contract, by the Real Property Department, without advertising, for furnishing hand towels to City Hall, based on the following communication from that department:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under an oral agreement with this department, the Federal National Linen Service Company, Inc., has been furnishing hand towels to all offices in City Hall Annex and City Hall. The agreement calls for delivery of approximately 1,125 towels a week.

The towel service already rendered by the above company has proven satisfactory, and in my opinion nothing could be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this type of work.

In view of the above, I respectfully request permission to issue orders to the Federal National Linen Service Company, in an amount not to exceed $2,924.40.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF BOSTON.

(Civil Business.)

Docket Books

The Mayor, on May 14, approved the award of a contract by the Municipal Court, without advertising, for docket books, based on the following communication from the Clerk:

DEAR SIR:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 216 of the Acts of 1950 and chapter 182 of the Acts of 1951, I respectfully request permission to award a contract for docket books to Henry Rosnosky, 16 Lincoln street, Boston, Mass., without advertising.

Mr. Rosnosky has furnished books of this type in the past and is familiar with the requirements of this court.

Work to be done includes furnishing forty docket books, ruled, printed, numbered from 440,000 through 479,999, inclusive, and bound singly as necessary in gray canvas with red leather corners. Unit price is fifty-three dollars and eighty-two cents ($53.82) per volume, or a total of two thousand one hundred fifty-two dollars and eighty cents ($2,152.80).

Respectfully yours,

JOHN E. HURLEY,
Clerk of the Court.

ROBERT C. SCHIMMEL REPORTS ON 26TH INSTITUTE FOR RADIO-TELEVISION EDUCATION

Following is the report of Robert C. Schimmel, Radio Coordinator, Boston Public Schools, on the twenty-sixth Institute for Education by Radio-Television, held at Hotel Desher-Hilton, Columbus, Ohio, April 16-20, 1956:

To begin its second quarter century of existence, the institute format was drastically revised to facilitate intensive and searching discussion of the role of serious educational broadcasting in today's world. The heart of the conference consisted of small and intimate discussion groups which engaged in most thoughtful examination of the various aspects of the central problem.

Plenary sessions high lighted some of the factors involved, and raised significant questions. All institute members were assigned to these discussion groups on the basis of their affiliations covering the following diversified fields, and then were assigned to any one of the following clinics (according to their own choice):

1. Clinic for Educational Radio Stations.
2. Clinic for Educational Television Stations.
3. Clinic for Campus Stations.
4. Clinic for School Broadcasters (Radio and Television).
5. Clinic on Youth Discussion Broadcasts.
6. Clinic for College Teachers of Broadcasting.
7. Clinic on Religious Broadcasting.
8. Clinic on Communications Research.
9. Clinic on Agricultural Broadcasts.
10. Clinic on Instruction by Television.
11. Clinic on Broadcasting by National Organizations.
12. Clinic on Broadcasting Health Education.
13. Clinic on News Broadcasting.
14. Clinic on Children's Programs.

The very large attendance at the institute made it almost mandatory that each discussion group stay together to prepare material to be discussed at the clinic sessions which questions were in turn sifted and to some degree taken up at the numerous plenary sessions.

The chairman of our group was Mr. George Jennings, Director of Visual and Radio Education, and Station WBEZ (FM) of the Chicago Schools, and our discussion leader, Professor Harold A. Engel, Assistant Director of the Wisconsin State Broadcasting Service. Our resource people:

Sam L. Becker, Executive Secretary, Television Center, State University of Iowa.

Barclay Leatham, Director of Television, Western Reserve University.

Helen Strauss, Director Educational Programs, Station WMAC, New York City.

Mary Glaubman, Program Director, the Institute for Democratic Education.

It was the first plenary session which started off our consideration of the problem of this year's conference, namely to clarify

THE ROLE OF SERIOUS BROADCASTING IN TODAY'S WORLD.

A most brilliant, interesting, and challenging address was delivered by Charles

A. Siepmann, Chairman, Department of Communications, New York University. It is impossible to summarize his half-hour speech, but it was directed without pulling punches at any broadcaster or educator who was satisfied to see Americans being trained merely to be full in stomach, empty of head, and hollow of heart. He attacked what he considered the now outmoded idea of a man's being educated merely to better himself. If we are to succeed in an ever-shrinking sphere we must better our neighbors, our country, and our mental horizons. He challenged educational broadcasters (chiefly college) to come out of the Ivory Tower and face facts, to educate not merely the minority (most of whom are well educated) but to attack the problem of bettering the mass listeners.

My clinic had to do with Educational Television Stations and happily (from Boston) Parker Wheatley, General Manager of our own Channel 2, Station WGBH, was chairman, having brought along with him his Director of Programs, Ed. G. Sherbourne, Jr.; his Director of Production, Paul Rader, and Hartford N. Gunn, Jr., Director of Operations.

Painstakingly, and with some humor, he took us through the beginnings of the station, how it took $360,000 to get the station on the air and how even now it takes constant maneuvering to have sufficient capital to meet expenses and a payroll of forty-five. He explained this as the reason there are "no free rides" on WGBH-TV. All educators or educational systems are welcome to time—if they pay for it. I could not help thinking that maybe we in Boston Schools Radio have been spoiled by the generosity of our own WMEX which gives us at least $25,000 of free time each year.

Further sessions of this most valuable clinic delved into the policies, the production, and the final presentation of WGBH-TV programs. In other words, we were "taken behind the scenes" while the studio management kindly explained every detail of resources, organization, and daily problems. WGBH-TV has been on the air almost for its first year. The personnel bared its troubles; we, in turn, wished them good luck with a noble venture.

The third plenary session (Frank Schooley, President, National Association of Educational Broadcasters and Director of Broadcasting, University of Illinois) introduced to us the factors affecting the broadcaster's role—locality, politics, genre, geography, and sectional challenges. Henry R. Cassirer, Head of the Television Section, United Nations, Paris, explained French systems and purposes. This aspect of broadcasting in other countries was made most vivid in a talk given, at our institute luncheon, by Eugene H. King, Program Manager of the Voice of America. Mr. King took us behind the "Iron Curtain" (he has just returned to report to Washington and goes soon to Hungary). He told us how people do listen to the Voice of America and how they are heartened. He laughed as he said, "Now since I've been there let some one say to me, 'Who hears it?'" This is a role of one phase of serious broadcasting today.

And so, there were discussion groups working, clinics expounding, to end in the final plenary session when all of the recorders pooled their data and the final focus of the Institute was to take place.

Richard Pack, Vice President in charge of programming, Westinghouse Broadcasting Company, summed up for the commercial broadcaster:

1. Let us work together—you can give us ideas—we can give you technique.

2. Let us strive to help our people from the viewpoint of local, state, and national level.

3. Let us remember that, even though television is seemingly more glamorous, radio allows the mind to probe and to exercise.

4. Each has, and always will have, a way of serving—radio in one way, TV in another (where the visual object is essential).

The conclusion of the conference, from the educator's side, was summed up very brilliantly by Dr. Edgar Dale, Professor of Educational Research, Ohio State University, who apologized for being a professor by saying, "Don't envy professors, we just have our ignorance better organized."

Actually this remark crystallized his ideas, summed up as follows:

1. Let's strive to create programs which will make people think.

2. Let's not forget the broadcast, such as even the lowly spelling program, which in itself opens new horizons through vocabulary.

3. Let's remember not to worry about the enemy at the gate lest we forget the friend at the door.

4. Let's be simple, sincere, forthright. Then, in spite of mistakes, we, like the Phoenix, will rise from the ashes of our mistakes and go ahead stalwartly.

5. No mass media ever invented can rival broadcasting in the privilege of letting man meet man, be he common or uncommon. Let us make this introduction stimulating, fruitful, and nonstatic.

The twenty-sixth institute with its new format was stimulating and worthwhile. I am grateful for the honor of representing our City of Boston and for being able to tell what we are doing. I shall also be happy some day to report we also are using television. Maybe the budget will permit. We hope so—for in the words, once again, of Mr. Wheatley, manager of our local Channel 2 educational outlet—"There are no free riders."

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT C. SCHIMMEL,
Radio Coordinator,
Boston Public Schools.

NOTE.—This report is published in the City Record in compliance with the provisions of Sect. 3, chapter 274 of the Acts of 1914.

POLIO BACK TO NORMAL

One polio case was reported in Massachusetts during April, Dr. Roy F. Feemster, head of the Communicable Diseases Division, announced this week.

Dr. Feemster said two cases were reported for April last year. He said 14 cases have been reported this year, compared to six for last year.

But, Dr. Feemster added, 13 of the 1956 cases are attributed to last year's epidemic.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, May 7, 1956.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m., President McCORMACK in the chair, and all the Councilors present.

The Reverend Ralph Villella, P. S. S. C., of the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church, North Square, Boston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. RALPH VILLELLA.

O Almighty God, from Whom are holy desires, right counsels, and just works, enlighten the minds of Thy servants to whom is entrusted the welfare of our community; keep them immune from the danger of working for their own interests instead of the interests of others; give strength to their will so that they may not fear to work for what is just and right; help them to be always leaders, not only as good citizens in this great country of ours but also as good children of God; give to Thy servants, O Lord, the grace that they may be always devoted to the keeping of Thy commandments, and that they may persevere in laboring according to Thy will in charity and justice, and that, thus doing, they may achieve great success for the honor and glory of God, and for the welfare of our community. Amen.

HOUSING DEVELOPMENT FOR THE AGING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, May 3, 1956.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen: I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Boston Housing Authority relative to your order of March 26, 1956, in regard to housing for the aging.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Housing Authority,

May 1, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,

Mayor of Boston.

Subject: City Council Order of March 26, 1956, on Housing for the Aging.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

In reply to your letter on the City Council order of March 26, 1956, you are advised and the Authority is sure that you know that the problem of housing for the aging has been a consideration of this Authority for many years prior to the enactment of specific state legislation on this subject.

The presently operating program of the Authority has distributed through its various developments some 3,090 one-bedroom apartments, many of which are now, and more of which can be, made available to the aging.

In the federally aided developments the Authority has always built for and welcomes such families and has many hundreds of them. Up to the present time aging persons living alone cannot be accepted in the federally aided developments. Residual members of an aging couple are now allowed to remain in residence under an administrative ruling by the Public Housing Administration, which came about because of agitation by this and other local housing authorities.

Again, through agitation and knowledge of the need local housing authorities have called to the attention of the Congress the desirability of additional amendments to the United States Housing Act, which would make specific funds available for this group as well as making present housing available to aging persons living alone. It is confidently expected that legislation of this sort will be enacted this year. If it is enacted this Authority will make application for financial cooperation by the federal government.

You no doubt know that in the two latest federally aided developments, those in the Columbia Point and Bromley Park areas, the Authority built 318 one-bedroom apartments.

In the development at Bromley park special features for aging couples were incorporated in the design of the bathrooms and kitchens of eighty-four apartments in two separate buildings.

The State Housing Board has informed the Authority that it will give it a contract for financial assistance for some two hundred dwellings for the aging.

The 1954 amendment to the State-aided veterans' housing program also has made it possible for the Authority to make approximately one hundred apartments available to aging persons in the state-aided developments at West Broadway, South Boston, and Camden street, South End.

The Authority is somewhat concerned with the possibility of not being able to fix rents in state-aided developments for the aging at satisfactory figures due to the high cost of construction, increasing interest rates, and the low annual contribution rate of the Commonwealth to this endeavor.

However, it is presently reviewing possible locations for a number of small developments in the several districts of the city to be used in the state-aided program.

When such locations are chosen, applications will be filed and conferences held with the State Housing Board to see if an economically feasible plan can be worked out.

Twelve copies of this letter are being enclosed so that each member of the City Council may receive a copy.

Very truly yours,

FREDERICK A. CRONIN,

Chairman.

Placed on file.

General Order No. 31.

I. MAYOR'S CHARITY FIELD DAY.

Mayor John B. Hynes and the Trustees of the Mayor's Charity Field Day Committee have asked the cooperation of all city employees in the purchase of tickets for the Mayor's Field Day to be held at Fenway Park, on Monday, June 25, 1956, beginning about 6.30 P.M.

The proceeds of the Field Day are distributed to needy persons whose requirements are not and cannot be provided for by use of public funds. Proportionate amounts are also assigned to organized charities embracing every creed, color, and worth-while purpose. The funds are distributed upon application but only after careful investigation is made and the need is convincingly established.

Although a sizable sum is realized, it falls far short of the amount needed to cover the most imperative of the demands. The goal this year is $75,000 net, and in order to secure increased funds, the Mayor's Committee will present a value worth many, many times more than the amount which will be invested.

Cost of a ticket is $1, including tax, and the dollar entitles you to the opportunity of winning a Cadillac convertible; also, a Buick car. Your ticket also entitles you to see, in person, some of America's finest performers, such as are seen on your television screen, and a baseball game, as well as other top-quality entertainment. At the same time, your dollar goes a long way in helping your neighbors, especially children in the community, who look to us for help. Mayor John B. Hynes is Honorary Chairman and Park Commissioner Frank R. Kelley, General Chairman.

CLEVELAND AIRPORT MOTEL

Bids are to be taken in Cleveland for the construction of a 100-room motel adjacent to the Cleveland Hopkins Airport. Land for the motel has been set aside by the city for lease to a hotel organization which would construct and operate it. It is planned that private capital will build the motel and the city will collect revenue based on the operational income of the project.

Sites to Be Chosen

These areas are set forth in the accompanying recommendation of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners. Within the areas designated, specific sites for the construction of a facility will be chosen by the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, after giving due consideration to all the factors at hand, traffic counts, and pertinent surveys. This Board will be, and must be under the law, the final arbiter of the specific sites for parking facilities.

In the construction of the facilities, there is, and can be, no inflexible priority order. Those sites which can be built upon without untoward delays, without restraining orders, and without too great an impact on owners or tenants, will be given prior consideration. At this point, it cannot be determined which sites will fall into this category.

Unless further legal obstacles are thrown in our way, and unless private capital proceeds to the building of parking facilities within the areas outlined, it is very probable that the city will proceed to the construction of two or three or more facilities at approximately the same time.

To preserve the value of downtown buildings; to relieve traffic congestion and eliminate street parking as much as possible; to make headway against the constantly increasing demand for parking spaces; and to make it possible for shoppers and others using the downtown area to find a convenient parking facility, is a responsibility the City of Boston cannot shirk, without dire results. The loan order, submitted herewith, and the expected availability of private capital, will enable the city to go forward with a program that will create an additional 7,350 off-street parking spaces.

Well-Conceived Program

To my mind, nothing is more important to our city than a well-conceived program for parking facilities, which can move with reasonable speed. Every large city is currently planning, or constructing, a series of off-street parking facilities in its downtown area in full realization that convenient, downtown parking facilities are the most effective antidotes to business decentralization. It is, I believe, redundant to state that no city needs parking facilities more than the City of Boston, the business life of which is confined to such a comparatively small area.

I am hopeful that the members of your Honorable Body will give early approval to the orders herewith submitted. No money is now available to proceed to the planning and acquisition of land, in any of the areas as designated. Therefore, any long delay in the approval of these orders will be costly to our city. The authority to borrow up to $10,000,000 will not be exercised unless needed. It is well to bear in mind that even if the city does acquire the land and does completely finance all of the structures in the various areas, the return to the city by way of lease rentals will fully amortize the debt, with no loss whatsoever to the city.

For the reasons above stated, it is my hope that the members of your Honorable Body, after due deliberation, will authorize the continuance of the off-street parking program of the city. I recommend the passage of the attached order.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

TEXT OF ORDER

Ordered, That under the authority contained in chapter 450 of the Acts of 1955, the sum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Real Property Board, for the establishment of off-street parking facilities, and that the Collector-Treasurer be authorized, with the approval of the Mayor, to issue from time to time, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount, said issues to be outside the limit of indebtedness of the city.

MAYOR TO WAGE WAR ON 453 ABANDONED HOUSES AS THEY OBSTRUCT CITY'S NEIGHBORHOOD CONSERVATION PROGRAM

Every section of Boston endures the blight of abandoned vacant houses. In a report to Mayor John B. Hynes this week, the Building Department sets the total of such structures throughout the city at 453. In addition, there are 149 seriously dilapidated occupied houses which, though structurally sound, are just short of being condemned as unfit for human habitation. There are also several thousand structures which, if not repaired and painted within the immediate future, will soon go into the substandard classification.

A survey of abandoned dwellings was recently made by the Building Department at the request of Mayor Hynes. The Mayor is concerned about the blight that such properties are causing in all the older sections of the city and because of the impediment they are causing to his city-wide rehabilitation and conservation program.

The largest number of vacant and abandoned houses are located in the Ward 9 section of lower Roxbury where there are 91. There are also 30 dilapidated but occupied houses in that area. Ward 8, Roxbury-South End, has 65 abandoned dwellings; Ward 6, South Boston, 42; Ward 2, Charlestown, 40, etc.*

As all of the abandoned houses are presumed to be structurally sound, the city is powerless, under the present law, to compel the owners to raze them. However, most of them are regarded as potential fire hazards and in danger of being undermined by vandals. Children are wont to play in these buildings at the risk of their lives. The Mayor is determined to make his best efforts to persuade the owners to either fix them up or take them down.

One of the complications to tearing down many of these abandoned structures is that they are located in the middle of blocks of houses and as such serve as lateral supports to adjacent occupied dwellings. To raze such structures without expensive shoring would precipitate a collapse of the abutting homes to the peril of their occupants.

Pending the solution of this most baffling problem, the Mayor urges all parents to warn their children to keep out of abandoned houses and to telephone the police about anybody lurking about them. Six abandoned structures were fired during past weeks by persons unknown to the authorities.

As soon as an abandoned house becomes structurally unsound the Building Department immediately notifies the owner to make it safe or remove it. If he does not act immediately, the Building Department has it removed and puts a lien on the land for the demolition costs.

However, frequently the owner, rather than pay the costs, will surrender the land to the city, and even though the city may obtain legal judgment for the expense, it fails to obtain reimbursement, either because the former owner hasn't sufficient assets to pay or he can't be located.

Many of the owners say that they would like to make their properties habitable, but that they can't borrow sufficient money from the banks to fix them up. Others cease paying taxes on them, and let the city foreclose for nonpayment, after two years have expired.

As soon as the city takes tax title, unless they are habitable, they are torn down and the land offered for sale at public auction. This largely accounts for the more than 4,000 parcels of real estate that are now owned by the city and too small to build on, under the modern building code.

Daily, the city authorities receive complaints about abandoned houses being fire hazards or about children and grown-ups breaking and entering them. Within an hour of the receipt of the complaint both fire and building inspectors are at the premises, and if the complaint has been justified the owner is promptly notified to make the house secure against fire and vandals.

Making the house "secure" generally means nailing up doors that have been pulled down by vandals or boarding up windows that have been broken by the same element. This is a frequently repeated operation.

Under the plan of the proposed urban renewal program, with its power of eminent domain, it will be possible for the city to wipe out some of these structures, but only in the areas designated as "renewal projects."

 The complete list showing the number of abandoned and dilapidated structures, by wards, is printed on page 611.*

A SET OF BLUEPRINTS OF ITS FUTURE IS BOSTON'S NEED

COUNCILLOR WILLIAM J. FOLEY, JR., URGES STUDY TO UNCOVER CITY'S BEST ECONOMIC POTENTIAL

This is the fourth in a series of five reports on Boston's problems by members of the City Council before a recent Boston College Seminar.

Some causes and cures of Boston's economic crisis and suggested plans for the city's future were outlined by City Councillor William J. Foley, Jr., one of the five City Council panel members, at the final Boston College seminar of the 1955-56 season conducted on the campus April 10.

The text of Councillor Foley's remarks is as follows:

During my time as a member of the Boston City Council two principal cures for all of Boston's problems have been widely discussed. They are a metropolitan Boston and, of course, a new source of revenue.

Concerning the first, a metropolitan Boston, I shall say only that, analyzed from the strictly economic viewpoint, a strong case can be made that it would aggravate the problem rather than help. It is, however, far too broad a problem for me to cover here.

School Population Stable

Concerning the second suggested major cure; if we had a 3 per cent sales tax this year and had no tunnel to sell, our tax rate would remain just about even when you correct for certain wage adjustments and fringe benefits already committed. I base this statement on the best estimate of sales tax revenue to the city I have been able to get. Our commitments are up the whopping total of fifteen millions of dollars this year.

Now to get the full picture, you must realize that the present rate in Boston is based on what some people think is an extremely rosy picture of our total amount of commercial, industrial, and business properties.

Also Boston is almost unique in that she is not subject to the expense of providing additional public schools and teachers for an expanding school population. Our school population is stable and is being serviced more and more by parochial schools.

These things I say not to discourage anyone but to make the point that there is no miraculous solution to our problems. That you know as well as I. We all know as well that salvation if it does come will be the result of a multitude of programs and new sound ideas. We even know what many of the programs are. To name a few, urban renewal, equalization, off-street parking, both downtown and suburban, redevelopment of the New York Streets area, redevelopment of the West End, reclassification of personnel, reorganization of city departments, and so forth.

Specific Programs

I have detected lately a feeling of discouragement among many people who feel that in spite of the adoption by the city of many a nobly-titled plan we seem to be in a worse pickle than ever. It is precisely at this point that I hope to make some contribution today. I should like to outline to you where I think the best laid plans of men and mice are going most "aft a-gley" if you will permit a brutalization of some otherwise perfectly good poetry. I should like to give you some idea of how the municipal organization is run and where, in my opinion, better execution of perfectly good plans would yield fruit, and might actually spell the difference between success and failure. I shall discuss specific programs.

First of all, let us talk about the steps taken to obtain for Boston efficient management of her internal affairs, including the Personnel Reclassification Plan of 1952 and the Reorganization Ordinance of 1953.

Here we run smack up against a problem not of economics at all but of plain old human nature. That is, that when any large organization has to be departmentalized into 20 or 30 or 40 departments some of the department heads will become empire builders.

Now, the one thing about an empire builder serving as a municipal department head is that a man can build for himself a reputation as a great municipal department head by being an empire builder, whereas there is little glory in playing the role of the penny pincher at the departmental level. Put it another way and you get the same result. The department head is responsible for seeing that a job is done. If the snow falls, the Public Works Commissioner must see that it is plowed and cleared. Suppression of a crime wave is the responsibility of the Police Commissioner.

The Natural Way

Both these programs are, of course, painfully expensive, but the bill for them is presented to the taxpayer, not by the Public Works Commissioner, not by the Police Commissioner, but by the Mayor when he declares the tax rate. I selected very carefully these two departmental examples because neither of the two gentlemen mentioned has succumbed to empire building.

The natural way, therefore, to operate the city is to select department heads able to get a job done, but to interpose between the departments and the Mayor a group of trained capable men whose loyalties are entirely to the Mayor and whose duty it is to see that the departments do their jobs with maximum efficiency and minimum waste. This, of course, is really no more than is done in private industry, by cost analysis, but the head of a great city has other functions than routine administration; and, in fact, routine administration should be a chore of which he is pretty much relieved.

Reorganization Plan

Therefore, in addition to the trained group I referred to above, you should also interpose between the department heads and the Mayor an officer in charge of day-to-day administration superior to the department heads and of course, inferior to the Mayor. This, of course, is precisely what your City Council did December 31, 1953, when it passed the reorganization ordinance and established the post of director of administrative services. Mr. Charles Fox, formerly City Auditor, became our first Director of Administrative Services. He presided over the first two years of the new plan, but has retired recently, and the position is as yet unfilled. It should be filled, and by a man of equal professional ability.

How is the reorganization plan working out?

Its success is almost entirely the responsibility of the Administrative Services Department. My observation is that we are moving in the right direction but the pace is so slow that it is hardly noticeable.

The expensive Personnel Reclassification effort of 1952 has run into some fantastic complications and a large part of its value has been lost, this in spite of Herculean efforts of an able but little known Director of Personnel, Mr. John Sullivan.

The staffing survey, next step after reclassification, has hardly been started and the little which has been done has largely been ignored in preparing the budget estimates this year.

Reclassification plus staffing survey add up to another well-known program which is dying of old age without ever really having been in the fight. That is the "no hire-no fire policy."

Must Have Services

"No hire-no fire" means that the city will each year take advantage of the roughly 5 per cent turnover in employees involving about two and one-half millions of dollars in salaries to gradually reduce the payroll while at the same time firing no one and maintaining the same service level. Incidentally, about 76 per cent of the controllable costs of the city are payroll costs.

Why must we go about "no hire-no fire" in such a careful complicated way?

The reason is that the activities of your municipal and county government are of a basic type, so basic in fact, that they pass almost unnoticed. We probably could get along without a cultural representative of the national government in India; or even perhaps a division of wild life and fisheries at the state level, but if you have a fire at your house or need an ambulance or want to educate your child at a public school, the city must have those services available.

Let me give you a further example. In the division of our city government, which handles the inspection of electric wiring, three vacancies occurred in the year 1954. Mr. Whalen, who directs the division and has something of a national reputation in the field of electrical inspection, stated to us at budget time that he wanted to replace the three men who had retired and needed the men to do the work. The money had been eliminated from the budget by the Administrative Services simply on the theory that the three vacancies had occurred. On that basis, the division could be reduced to two men but very little inspection of electrical wiring would be done.

Employees Suffer

Another reason is that some divisions are actually understaffed, believe it or not, Recreation Division-Park Department, for one, and Superior Court, Probation, for another example.

I hope I have given you some idea why the Council cannot by means of the budget simply eliminate vacancies wherever they occur. The theory that we can do so is to my mind the meat cleaver theory of municipal government. This delicate work cannot be done by the uninformed swinging of a meat cleaver, but can only be done by the delicate wielding of some very precise administrative tools.

Let me here say a word about the subject matter involved in my last few paragraphs, namely, the city employee. He is probably one of the most misrepresented people in New England. I was even told a few weeks ago that the reason, or at least one of the reasons, we have not hired the top level, high-salaried city planners we so desperately need is that other city employees would be jealous of the high salaries it would be necessary to pay such men. This is pure and absolute nonsense, and I wouldn't be at all surprised if it were deliberately circulated for selfish reasons. It completely ignores the fact that in several municipal departments we now pay adequate salaries to top level personnel.

The theory that there is a monolithic and selfish block of votes composed of city employees and their families is a political myth. The belief that city employees are against all progress flies in the face of the fact that the Reorganization Ordinance of 1953 was emphatically supported by all labor groups speaking for the municipal employee in Boston and, as a matter of fact, in the official statement of the Council of state, county, and municipal employees, American Federation of Labor, the point was made in the strongest possible language that no one suffers more from Boston's high tax rate than the municipal employee. Many are asked to work a substantial percentage of their entire careers at salaries less than fair because the city can pay no more.

Work it out for yourself. If you live in an average single-family house in Boston you could probably work out a case that you are paying possibly $75 to $100 more a year than you would have to had Boston a reasonably low tax rate. If the man living next to you is a city employee, he not only pays the additional tax burden but also is paid conservatively $300 to $500 less a year than he would be paid doing the same work in other major cities of the United States.

You note I do not say that there has been no application of this policy. There has been—but exclusively at the departmental level. This makes for spotty performance indeed.

The Committee on Appropriations and Finance eliminated money where vacancies had existed some period of time and the staffing study made by outside experts indicated the department could operate with just as much efficiency without filling these vacancies. This should have been done before the budget was presented to us.

Let me suggest generally here that there would be useful work to do for a small committee of perhaps no more than three men from among your numbers or the general public, each man expert in the field of cost analysis or personnel administration and willing to give time to generally keep itself informed on the detail work being done in this field by the Administrative Services Department.

Plans and Projects

Let us now discuss another general group of plans and projects which may be categorized as those aimed to adapt Boston to her external environment.

By this I mean such programs as (1) urban redevelopment; (2) urban renewal; (3) revaluation; (4) off-street parking; (5) economic studies to determine the best economic use of areas in Boston; (6) a really adequate capital improvement program; (7) transportation in and out of Boston.

I do not have the time nor do I think it is necessary to discuss all these problems in detail—about them, or at least some of them, you have heard as much and know as much as I. It is my impression that in every single one of these programs we are lagging and there is a single common denominator in our approach to each one of the problems involving millions upon millions of dollars which could easily be corrected. I have in mind nothing more or less than our ridiculously understaffed and underpaid Planning Department. You note that I very carefully said Planning Department and not Planning Board. What is lacking in the planning picture in Boston is not the interest of unpaid laymen, we have at least as much as we need of that. What we need desperately and do not have are planners with experience and national reputation of the type who command high salaries in the progressive major cities of the United States.

Terrible Situation

At one of these seminars over a year ago Mr. Lund said that it was the position of the Citizens Council that the top man in the Planning Department should be paid at least $12,500 a year. I have the impression that some of you gentlemen think that this rather obvious suggestion has been accepted. It has not. Our top paid man in the Planning Department is paid about $8,000 a year and is snowed under by purely administrative problems caused by the fact that the department is so pitifully understaffed.

The next man in the department is paid a mere $6,400 a year. This is truly a terrible situation for Boston. The Planning Department should be immediately expanded, both by increasing the number of lower positions and by bringing in some planners with national reputation and experience from the outside, paying them good salaries and in addition to that, posing to them the tremendously intriguing planning problem which Boston faces in this year 1956. However, in the hope that some real good will come in the very near future from these remarks of mine, let me place before you one specific and concrete proposition.

Let's in the very near future hire for Boston's Planning Department one really top-notch city planner of truly national reputation, pay him $15,000 a year, give him a few months to orient himself and let him tell us how the Planning Department ought to be staffed and so on from there. If this isn't a reasonable request reduced to the barest minimum proportion I don't know what is.

Conclusion

In conclusion, I should like to offer you a series of very brief criticisms and recommendations on the various programs I mentioned a minute or two ago, which I said were lagging.

(1) Urban redevelopment should be Boston's salvation. However, it is not going well. We must get on with the New York Streets redevelopment. I think there is very real need for some of you gentlemen who have participated in the development of industrial centers in New England to at least tell us what we are doing wrong, in the effort to promote the redevelopment of the New York Streets area.

The city should immediately establish a land value map and a rule for the establishment of assessment values of buildings to be built in the area, so that a redeveloper might reasonably predict his tax costs and not be asked to rely on a "secret treaty, secretly arrived at" with an administration which a succeeding administration would in no sense be honor bound to recognize. This area, the New York Streets, should be the first spot reassessed with the $75,000 approved by the City Council on April 2.

Also there should be immediately explored by the Housing Authority the so-called "Sponsor" system of promoting urban redevelopment.

(2) Urban renewal: one man, however able, cannot handle, at least in my opinion, both the urban redevelopment program already under way and the urban renewal program. We need an urban renewal coordinator of ability and we must give him authority and support. We don't have such a man now.

(3) Off-street parking and transportation in and out of Boston are really opposite sides of the same coin. The Planning Board study on which we are basing the expenditure of $15,000,000 was put together in a hurry in connection with a $5,000,000 loan a year ago. It is complete as far as it goes and a good job but it covers only a small part of the total problem. We need a new report on that subject, and also what Boston's attitude about the MTA should be.

(4) There should be economic studies of the best use of Boston's commercial, industrial and business areas, so that those trying to sell the city to outsiders will be armed with facts and will know who the logical prospects really are for redeveloping the city.

I have a suspicion that if we really had such a thorough economic study some years ago, the Boston & Albany yards might have been a bit easier to handle.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR NEW $278,000 LIBRARY IN SOUTH BOSTON AREA

Mayor Hynes, on May 18, approved the award of a contract, by the Public Library Trustees, for the erection and completion of a branch library building at East Broadway, South Boston. Bids were opened on Monday, April 30, 1956.

Award was made to the lowest bidder, Columbia Construction Company, in the amount of $278,000.

The other bids were:

Rich Construction Company, $288,201; Charles Logue Building Company, $292,825; John Bowen Company, $219,714.*

* Arithmetical error. Amount should be $299,714.

Inasmuch as no subbids were received for certain classes of work, the general contractors were notified to include in their proposals certain allowances for these classes.

The Trustees of the Public Library took the following official vote to award the contract:

"Voted, That there be awarded to the Columbia Construction Company, 11 Hanover street, Malden, Mass., the lowest responsible and eligible bidder in the public bidding, the contract for the erection and completion of a branch library building at East Broadway, South Boston, as specified in the contract, in the total amount of two hundred and seventy-eight thousand dollars ($278,000), said amount to be adjusted by the difference, if any, between the total of the sums for which the selected subcontractors agree to perform the classes of work for which subbids were not received and the total of amounts relating thereto as appearing in the proposal when submitted."

Subsequently the trustees and the Columbia Construction Company agreed that the classes of work for which allowances were provided are to be done as follows:

Vermont Marble Company, interior stone, $475.

Nelson J. Sanford & Sons, metal furring, lathing, and plastering, $4,020.

John H. Pray & Sons Company, resilient floor and counter covering, $4,193.

Total, $8,688.

Since the above total is twelve dollars ($12) less than the total of the allowances as they appear in the proposal, the contract price is to be adjusted by this amount and the adjusted contract price is to be two hundred and seventy-seven thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight dollars ($277,988).

MAYOR SUBMITS ANNUAL SUPPLEMENTARY BUDGET RECOMMENDATIONS TO A TOTAL OF $754,301

Mayor John B. Hynes, on Monday, May 21, submitted to the City Council the annual supplementary budget recommendations totaling $754,301. The Mayor's communication was referred to the Council's Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

The text of the Mayor's recommendations is as follows:

GENTLEMEN:

I submit herewith supplementary budget recommendations for City and County Departments totaling $754,301. In the main, the appropriations recommended are to provide for departmental needs which have developed since the submission of the 1956 estimates.

Supplementary budget estimates submitted by City and County Departments totaled $898,732. Against these requests, appropriations totaling $754,301 are herewith recommended.

The following brief comments are offered in explanation. Department officials will be available to present detailed information in support of the appropriations herewith submitted:

RECONSTRUCTION OF PARKWAYS AND ROADWAYS.....$230,000

MASTERS AND AUDITORS.....$100,000

The Chief Justice of the Superior Court has notified me that at a recent meeting of the justices it was voted to re-establish the practice of referring motor vehicle tort cases to auditors in an effort to diminish the backlog of cases pending on the docket in this county.

REBUILDING WALL AT DEER ISLAND.....$60,000

The Building Commissioner has notified the Penal Institutions Commissioner that the east wall of the new prison is in an unsafe and dangerous condition, is becoming progressively worse as time goes on, and it is not unlikely that a collapse will occur.

GARBAGE AND REFUSE CON- TRACTS.....$39,573

The original estimate submitted to cover costs of contracts for the collection and disposal of garbage and refuse was found to be insufficient when bids were opened in March of this year.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT, PERSONAL SERVICES.....$35,000

The original request of the Library Department for Personal Services was reduced $86,000 by the Administrative Services Department. A further study of library requirements for the balance of the year indicates the necessity for an additional appropriation of $35,000.

MAINTAINING OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.....$32,000

This appropriation is necessary to properly maintain the suburban off-street parking areas now in operation and the ten additional areas to be opened during the current year.

CONVENTIONS AND ENTERTAINMENT OF DISTINGUISHED GUESTS..$25,000

A legislative act recently passed increased by $25,000 the amount which the city is authorized to appropriate for the above purpose. Based on the experience of the first four months, I feel this additional appropriation is warranted.

REPAIRS TO VARIOUS BUILDINGS..$23,125

The Assistant Commissioner of Real Property has informed me that many necessary repairs for the upkeep of our municipal public buildings have arisen since the submission of his original budget.

SPOTLIGHTS.....$22,634

The upkeep of existing spotlights has been transferred from the jurisdiction of the Boston Traffic Commission to the Public Works Department. Since no appropriation was made in the Boston Traffic budget, it is necessary to submit this supplementary request.

RENTAL OF BOOKMOBILE.....$16,000

It will be necessary to rent one bookmobile pending delivery of the new bookmobile to be purchased through the Departmental Equipment Loan.

ARTS FESTIVAL.....$15,000

The Boston Arts Festival Committee has requested an additional appropriation of $15,000 to broaden the scope of activities of the annual arts festival. Because of the pleasure afforded many thousands of people, I feel this additional appropriation is warranted.

CLEANING OF VACANT LOTS....$12,000

At the present time the city holds, through tax titles, over 3,000 vacant lots. Since the formation of the neighborhood rehabilitation councils the number of complaints of the conditions of city-owned lots has increased considerably. We must not allow city-owned lots to be unsightly and unsanitary.

UNSAFE BUILDINGS.....$10,000

Based on experience of the first four months, the Building Commissioner has informed me that an additional appropriation for the removal of unsafe buildings will be necessary.

REHABILITATION OF FRANKLIN PARK ZOO.....$10,000

A recent communication from the Parks and Recreation Commissioner indicates that many of our cages at the Franklin Park Zoo are empty. This appropriation will provide for the purchase of additional animals and the installation of a new boiler in the bird house.

JAIL OVERTIME.....$10,000

The commitment of six men on January 12, 1956, charged with being members of the group which robbed the Brink Company of over $1,000,000 in 1950, made it necessary to supplement the regular forces by having officers work on days and nights off and day men work extra on Sundays and on night duty.

It is believed that all six men, plus those lately apprehended, will be confined at Suffolk County Jail before and during the trial in Suffolk County Superior Court and additional security measures will have to be maintained.

BUILDING SUPPLIES, HOUSE OF CORRECTION.....$10,000

The severe winter storms caused a great deal of damage to the House of Correction. The purchase of these supplies will make it possible for the major portion of this work to be performed by inmate labor.

I respectfully recommend adoption of the appropriation orders herewith submitted in connection with the supplementary budget recommendations.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

NEW ORDINANCE TO CURB LITTERING OF STREETS IS OFFERED BY MAYOR HYNES

Stating that the present city ordinances concerning the littering of streets "are not comprehensive enough to be effective," Mayor John B. Hynes, on Monday, May 21, submitted to the Boston City Council a new ordinance refining the present ordinance.

"It is essential that indiscriminate littering of streets and public alleys should be controlled or stopped entirely," declared the Mayor, adding that the new proposed ordinance, prepared by the Commissioner of Public Works, on advice of the Law Department, seeks to establish this control.

The proposed new ordinance, which was referred to the Council's Committee on Ordinances, reads as follows:

AN ORDINANCE

PROVIDING FURTHER AGAINST THE LITTERING OF STREETS.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947 is hereby amended by striking out section 39 and inserting in place thereof the following six sections:

Section 39. No person in any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works shall, whether in or upon a vehicle or on foot, deposit, drop or throw upon such way, alley or place or any roadway or walk thereof, and suffer to remain there, any filth, rubbish or other substance, unless it is deposited, dropped or thrown into a receptacle provided for the purpose by the public works department.

Section 39A. No driver of any vehicle upon any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works shall permit to drop or fall from such vehicle onto such way, alley or place or any roadway or walk thereof, and suffer to remain there, any substance except in the maintenance or repair of such way, alley or place.

Section 39B. No person shall sweep, throw or otherwise remove into any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works, or into any roadway or walk of any of them, from any building or structure or from any land not constituting a part of such way, alley or place, any filth, rubbish or other substance and suffer the same to remain there; provided, that filth, rubbish or other substance which by law or by arrangement is to be collected and removed by the public works department (whether through employees in its service or through an independent contractor acting for it) or by a person having a permit under section fourteen of this chapter or section 31A of chapter 111 of the General Laws, may, after five o'clock in the afternoon of the day preceding the scheduled time of such collection, be placed by the owner or occupant of an estate upon the sidewalk of any such way or alley abutting such estate in a covered metal receptacle or, if no garbage or putrescible matter or substance is included, in a securely tied bundle or in a receptacle with its contents so arranged that any light matter or substance is not likely to be scattered or blown about. No person placing a receptacle upon the sidewalk of any way or alley as aforesaid shall suffer the same to remain upon such way or alley or any roadway or walk thereof more than twelve hours after such collection.

Section 39C. No person shall in any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works or upon any roadway or walk thereof rummage in or through rubbish or refuse of any kind or interfere with any bundle of rubbish or refuse or any receptacle containing rubbish or refuse.

Section 39D. No person shall deposit, drop or throw any filth, rubbish or other substance into a drum or other barrel with a diameter of more than twenty inches or a height of more than twenty-eight inches if by law or by arrangement such filth, rubbish or other substance is to be collected therefrom by the public works department (whether through employees in its service or through an independent contractor acting for it) or by a person having a permit under section fourteen of this chapter or section 31A of chapter 111 of the General Laws.

Section 39E. No person shall deposit, drop or throw into a drum or other barrel with a diameter of twenty inches or less and a height of twenty-eight inches or less any filth, rubbish or other substance which by law or by arrangement is to be collected therefrom by the public works department (whether through employees in its service or through an independent contractor acting for it) or by a person having a permit under section fourteen of this chapter or section 31A of chapter 111 of the General Laws if such drum or barrel will thereby be filled so high that such filth, rubbish or other substance or any part thereof is likely to drop or fall from such receptacle while it is being moved in the process of such collection.

BD. OF EXAMINERS RE-ELECTS CHAIRMAN AND SECRETARY

In accordance with procedure the Board of Examiners, on Monday, May 7, 1956, held its annual organization meeting.

Mr. John Guarino was unanimously re-elected chairman, and Mary D. McMackin continues as permanent secretary.

EVERY STREET IN BOSTON TO BE CLEANED DURING SPRING CLEAN-UP DRIVE FROM MAY 21 THRU 31

Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland announced this week that every street in Boston will be cleaned at least once during the annual spring Clean-Up Drive from May 21 to 31, inclusive.

The Clean-Up Drive on the streets started Monday, May 21, in the Back Bay section.

In connection with the effort the Public Works Commissioner stated as follows:

PLEASE DO YOUR PART

Every person even remotely connected with the day-to-day operation of the City of Boston or of Suffolk County should consider it an obligation in charity to buy a ticket to the annual Mayor's Field Day, June 25.

Real effort on behalf of this most worthy undertaking begins when you sell additional tickets. The work of the annual Mayor's Charity Field Day fund deserves every effort you can give it.

Please help me, as your Mayor, on your behalf, to relieve distress in the steady stream of worthy appeals which come to my office.

MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES.

ABANDONED DWELLINGS

Following is a recapitulation showing by wards the number of buildings and structures in the City of Boston which are vacant and abandoned, dilapidated, and otherwise unfit for occupancy as shown by survey dated May 18, 1956:

The parking problem presents one of our biggest obstacles in keeping the streets clean. This is particularly true in many residential streets throughout the city where cars are parked continuously day and night.

The Police Commissioner has pledged the full cooperation of the Police Department in controlling parking during the spring Clean-Up Drive, so as to make certain that we will be able to clean each and every street in the city. Parking on alternate sides of the street is the only solution to the parking problem which hampers snowplowing work as well as street-cleaning operations.

Therefore, we have made arrangements with the Police Department whereby the district foremen of this department, in all sections of the city, will request the assistance of the local police captain in putting into effect an alternate parking regulation on those streets where the problem is particularly acute, and where we experience a great deal of difficulty in street-cleaning work.

We will open the Clean-Up Drive Monday, May 21, by thoroughly cleaning and washing every street in the rectangular section of the Back Bay, bounded by Boylston street, Arlington street, Beacon street, and Massachusetts avenue. In this particular area there is a great deal of twenty-four-hour parking and it is most essential, therefore, that we put into effect the alternate parking regulation for an eight-hour period on Monday, May 21, starting at 7 A.M., and terminating at 3 P.M. We expect to clean every street in this area during this eight-hour period, if we receive the cooperation of the motorists in carrying out the following regulation:

Between 7 A.M. and 11 A.M., no parking will be permitted on the odd-numbered side of any street in the above-referenced area on Monday, May 21.

Between 11 A.M. and 3 P.M., no parking will be permitted on the even-numbered side of any street within the above-described area on Monday, May 21.

I have discussed this matter with the police of Station 16, and they have pledged their wholehearted cooperation in enforcing this particular regulation.

If it works out in this section of the city, there is no reason why it cannot be extended to many areas in the city, with particular reference to other sections of the Back Bay, South End, and Beacon Hill.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.
Purchasing Division.

Laundry Equipment

The Mayor, on May 16, approved the award of a contract, by the Purchasing Agent, without advertising, for laundry equipment, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Bids on laundry equipment for the Dover Street Laundry of the Parks and Recreation Department were publicly opened and read in this office on March 28, 1956.

A thorough investigation of the various types of equipment bid on has been made by this division with the collaboration of the Parks and Recreation Department. Commercial installations of the various types of equipment were visited and seen in operation. It was decided that the equipment bid on by the Henrici Laundry Machinery Company on their alternate bid was the most acceptable type. By using one Hydraxtor, the two 48-inch extractors can be eliminated and, at the same time, the efficiency of the operation can be increased considerably, resulting in more production per man hour of labor with less manual labor for operators. Consequently, the items to be purchased will not correspond exactly with the items requested on the public bid but will do the same work more efficiently.

It is therefore requested that permission be granted me to reject all bids, dispense with further advertising and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Henrici Laundry Machinery Company, for the following items as selected by the Purchasing Agent and Parks and Recreation Department representatives. All items will be as per specifications to be included in the contract.

One 36 x 36 "Comet" model washer, $2,900; two 42 x 96 "Comet E-Z Out" model washers at $6,020 each, $12,040; one 30-inch extractor, $1,200; one Hydraxtor extractor with compressor, $7,500; one 100-gallon soap maker, $182.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $23,822, net.

It is my opinion that the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract as requested.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Rock Salt

The Mayor, on March 20, approved an emergency contract for rock salt for the Public Works Department, as follows:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition for 322 tons rock salt to be delivered immediately, as directed, to the Public Works Department Paving yards. Due to present weather conditions, the only available source of supply is the Monsanto Chemical Company, Everett, Mass.

Inasmuch as the salt is needed immediately and the only present source of supply is Monsanto Chemical Company, it is respectfully requested that permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to this company for 322 tons of rock salt at $14 per ton to be delivered immediately, where requested, in the Public Works Department.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $4,508, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

The work to be done includes the installation of duct, cables, transformers, and switch gear at the primary side of the service.

The approximate cost of the work will be $1,522. The Trustees of Boston City Hospital voted at a meeting held May 4 to request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Boston Edison Company.

This service is an extension of the service owned and operated by the Boston Edison Company.

INVOCATION BY REV. MARTIN T. COGAVIN.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Almighty God, our Creator and Judge, we beseech Thee to bless our beloved country and those to whom Thou hast given authority—that we may know universal peace.

We beseech Thee to bless our homes and families that we may possess individual peace.

We beseech Thee to bless our legislators here assembled. Give them the light to know the right and the courage to follow it. Help them to put aside selfish aims and desires that the good of all may be served by these chosen few. May their public and private lives please Thee Who has granted them authority over their fellow men. May they be rewarded for their sacrifices.

We ask all these things in the name of Your Son, our Lord and Savior—Jesus Christ. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

CLEARING OF STREETS OF PARKED VEHICLES FOR STREET CLEANING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to your resolution of May 7, 1956, relative to clearing the streets of parked vehicles so that every street might be given a thorough cleaning.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 14, 1956.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of May 7: "Whereas, The City of Boston is about to open a drive to clean-up, paint-up, and fix-up in our city; and

"Whereas, Due to the heavy traffic in Boston our efforts to clear the streets of litter are often hindered by the vehicles parked on the streets; now, therefore be it

"Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of requesting the Police Commissioner and the Public Works Commissioner to confer on the possibility of clearing the streets of parked vehicles at specified times by their joint action so that every street might be given a thorough cleaning."

The above-referenced order recognizes the difficulty that we have in cleaning streets that are used almost continuously for the parking of motor vehicles. Therefore, the recommendation is a most practical one, and I have taken it up with the Police Commissioner, who has wholeheartedly endorsed the idea, and has pledged the full cooperation of the Police Department in clearing certain streets of parked cars at the request of the district foreman in charge of street cleaning operations in the city.

This arrangement should prove most beneficial in helping this department clean every street in the city at least once during the clean-up period from May 21 to May 31.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUBLIBRARY IN HEMENWAY SCHOOL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 11, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Director of the Boston Public Library in regard to your order of April 16, 1956, relative to installing in the Hemenway School, located nearby, a sub-library, to care for the needs of children up to the sixth grade in that district.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Public Library,
May 10, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At its meeting on April 16, 1956, the City Council passed an order requesting that a conference be held with the Director of the Boston Public Library and the members of the Boston School Committee for the purpose of ascertaining the possibility of installing in the Hemenway School, located near to the Phillips Brooks Branch Library in Readville, which latter is shortly to be discontinued, a sublibrary to care for the needs of the children up to the sixth grade in that district. This order was passed on the premise that the proposed discontinuance of the Phillips Brooks Branch Library in Readville would leave the children of that district without easy access to proper reading matter.

Actually, during the past year, the Public Library has already been providing library service to the Hemenway School through placing deposits of books in the individual classrooms for classroom use by the children in the several grades. The practice is to replace the original deposits with fresh material that will serve the curriculum and reading interest needs of the individual classrooms whenever the teachers indicate that fresh material is desired; for example, since the beginning of the year exchanges of books have been made for five classrooms by sending out fresh deposits of books to them. In this way, service is being given regularly and directly to all second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grade pupils in the Hemenway School.

In addition to direct service of this sort, the Public Library will shortly inaugurate a bookmobile service to the Hemenway School in anticipation of the period when by the end of the summer months the present quarters of the present Phillips Brooks Branch Library will have been discontinued. Under this arrangement one of the Library's three bookmobiles will go to the school regularly at least once a week. At that time the children from the individual classrooms will go to the bookmobile, class by class, there being allowed for this purpose enough time for the individual child to choose, under the supervision of trained bookmobile librarians, books that may be taken or home reading.

Thus the children will have available to them (1) classroom deposits in the school itself of fresh expertly selected titles to stimulate the children's interest in reading and to supplement their formal textbooks; and (2) access to a live selection of additional educational and recreational books in a Bookmobile, with a resulting minimizing of difficulties of travel and exposure to inclement weather.

Thus, under the above-described arrangements, there will be available in the school itself deposits of books to meet the needs of the children up to the sixth grade in the Readville area. The situation will be watched carefully by the Public Library in order that adjustments may be made in these provisions of book service when, and if, necessary.

The order of the City Council was brought to the attention of the Library Trustees at their meeting on Friday, May 4, 1956. They requested that the above information be provided in order that the City Council may have assurance that the needs of the children in the Readville area are being and will continue to be borne actively in mind for the period ahead.

Respectfully,
MILTON E. LORD, Director.

POSTING OF "TOW AREA."

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner in regard to your order of April 30, 1956, relative to posting the no parking signs with the words "tow area" in those areas where vehicles are subject to being towed for violation of the parking law.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
May 8, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to an order of the City Council dated April 30, 1956, and introduced by Councillor Piemonte, directing that in those areas where vehicles are subject to being towed for violation of the parking law, there be conspicuously posted "No Parking" signs with the words "Tow Area" printed thereon, I submit the following report:

This subject was considered after the towing law became possible as a result of legislation and we discussed the matter with the State Department of Public Works which, by law, must approve our rules and regulations before they can be considered enforceable.

According to normal processes, regulatory signs are to be placed every hundred feet and, therefore, if signs were required by the State Department many thousands of dollars would be required for the erection of signs throughout the downtown area at intervals of every hundred feet.

It was the opinion of the State Department that such signs were not necessary insofar as the general regulation had the same force as other general regulations such as pertaining to speeding—the two-hour parking limit, etc. Accordingly, since the expense of such signs was not required we did not provide for such an expenditure in our budget and, therefore, no funds are available for this purpose at the present time. It would be necessary to seek a supplementary appropriation for this purpose.

There is a question in some minds as to the desirability of such signs inasmuch as it is only one of several penalties which may be applied in case of a traffic violation. It is conceivable that other signs might be requested which would set forth other penalties in the downtown area and, technically, there is no reason why this particular violation should be enunciated by signs. The towing law is a regulation which applies to the entire downtown area and is used as a means of enforcement of established traffic regulations which, themselves, are made known by existing signs. Thus, a motorist is informed that a specific area is not one in which he may park because a sign is posted "No Parking Anytime." That is the traffic rule which applies. There is no mention of the fact that a fine for first offense is $1 and a second offense $2, etc., and, likewise, there is nothing which indicates that the car may be towed away. Whether the car is tagged or towed depends upon the seriousness of the situation. For example, a car might be parked at the narrow intersection of Washington and Summer streets—in which case, no doubt, it would be towed away. If the car were parked further on in the wide part of Washington street, between intersections, perhaps the car would merely be tagged.

These are some of the reasons why many do not feel that a given area should be marked as a towing area by means of special signs. At the fringes of the towing area obviously a large number of persons might be induced to park on one side of such a sign, knowing it is outside the towing area and thus cause congestion at that point.

However, the fact which deters us from adopting the City Council order is, first, that it is not required by the agency which established the standards in the interests of uniformity throughout the Commonwealth; and, secondly, because if an appropriation of money could be made at this time we feel that such money would contribute more to public safety if it were spent on traffic lights than on tow area signs.

We recognize the need for traffic lights at many intersections and we are delayed in making installations because of the limited resources at our command.

Respectfully yours,
Wm. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

PAPER BALLOTS AT EACH VOTING BOOTH.

The following was received:
City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners relative to your order of April 30, 1956, in regard to providing paper ballots at each polling booth.
Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Election Department, May 11, 1956.
Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:
I have your communication of May 8, 1956, together with attached order of City Councillor Foley—"That the Board of Election Commissioners consider the advisability of providing paper ballots at each polling booth."

May I point out that at polling places where voting machines are used the law provides for the use of voters, voting in person, whose right to vote is challenged, official ballots marked "Challenged Ballots." For each such polling place the law provides ballots so marked to a number not less than five for each hundred registered voters entitled to vote thereat.

Other than the above, there is no provision in the law to permit a voter a choice of voting by paper ballot in a voting machine precinct. Such being the case, the Election Commissioners cannot consider the advisability of the request stated in City Council order dated April 30, 1956.

Very truly yours,
BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
DAVID LASKER, Chairman.

PROPOSED REVISION OF ELECTION BALLOT.

The following was received:
City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners in regard to your order of April 30, 1956, relative to making the election ballot in the so-called "Machine Precincts" intelligible to the voter.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Election Department, May 11, 1956.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:
I am in receipt of your communication of May 7, 1956, together with Councillor Foley's order of April 30, 1956.

May I point out that the size of type on ballots must follow the law. All ballots and ballot labels for voting machines will be furnished by the state this year, without cost to the city—in city elections this office is charged with the responsibility of preparing and printing the ballot. A professional "layout man" so called, would be of no value to this department, and would be just an additional expense.

In so far as the use of different colored inks and paper for each office are concerned, the cost would be prohibitive.

May I point out further that every newspaper carries a facsimile of the ballot, at least two or three days before the election, so that all voters have a chance of becoming acquainted with the appearance of the ballot and the location of the candidates' names of their choice. It would be impossible to have this printing of the ballot placed in the rotogravure section of two Boston Sunday newspapers, because there would always be friction and conflict as to which of the newspapers were to be used. Furthermore it would result in an unnecessary expenditure that might run into a large sum of money.

I hope that this information which I have given you in behalf of the commission will prove of benefit.

Very truly yours,
BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
DAVID LASKER, Chairman.

RECOMMENDING THAT CITY COUNCIL ORIGINATE ORDER FOR LOAN OF $5,000,000 FOR SCHOOL BUILDING CONSTRUCTION.

The following was received:
City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit to you herewith a communication from the Chairman of the School Committee which contains the request that a recommendation be submitted to your Honorable Body for the incurring of debt in the amount of $10,000,000 for the construction of school buildings, acquisition of land, and original equipment and furnishings thereof.

In consideration of other much-needed capital improvements for which I will propose loan authorizations within the debt limit, and inasmuch as under existing provisions of law it appears that the Mayor lacks authority to recommend a loan order for school purposes to your Honorable Body, I recommend that a loan order in the amount of $5,000,000 be originated by the City Council for school building construction. The authorization of this amount will make possible the preparation of plans and the acquisition of land, where necessary, for all of the proposed projects and the construction of all except the new Boston Technical High School. It is estimated that a year to fifteen months' time will be required for the preparation of plans for this project. When these plans have been completed and approved by the School Building Assistance Commission, I will recommend that an additional amount be authorized outside the statutory debt limit in accordance with chapter 465, Acts of 1948, as amended by chapter 528, Acts of 1950.

It is necessary under the provisions of section 10, chapter 44, of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 56, Acts of 1952, to secure the approval of the Emergency Finance Board before any indebtedness may be authorized in excess of 2½ per cent and less than 5 per cent of the average assessed valuations of the preceding three years less abatements. This approval has been requested and a hearing thereon will be held on either Thursday, May 17, 1956, or Monday, May 21, 1956. I am very confident that this hearing will result in favorable action.

Under existing statutes, 34 days must elapse after a first reading of a loan order before the same can become fully effective. In order to permit commencement of the school construction program contemplated under this loan order at the earliest possible date, I recommend that a loan order in the amount of $5,000,000 be introduced at today's meeting. This action will be in conformity with legal requirements.

I further recommend that your Honorable Body originate and approve a loan order in the above-stated amount.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
School Committee, March 6, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:
At the meeting of the School Committee held on March 1, 1956, the accompanying letter to your Honor with reference to a bond issue for additional school accommodations was presented.

On roll call, the members agreed to submit the communication to your Honor.

Very truly yours,
AGNES E. REYNOLDS, Secretary.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

My dear Mayor Hynes:
In each of the years 1953 and 1954 the City Council approved a bond issue in the amount of $5,000,000 for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing public schoolhouses, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses.

These bond issues total $10,000,000 and this entire amount has been allocated for land, plans, construction, and furnishing of necessary new school buildings and in certain cases additions to existing school buildings. Under our current building program the additions to the Curtis Guild and the James J. Chittick buildings will be ready for occupancy by April 1, 1956; the new building in the Columbia Point area will be ready for occupancy by September 1, 1956; the construction contracts have either been awarded or are about to be awarded on five other buildings or additions; and four of the remaining five projects are far advanced in the plan stages.

The school system is in need of far more construction than it has been possible to achieve under these two bond issues. The following school accommodations are only a few of those urgently needed to properly house our school pupils:

Lowell District, Jamaica Plain—elementary school, to replace Lowell School Building.

Emily A. Fifield District, Dorchester—addition of gymnasium for girls, Dorchester High School.

Henry L. Higginson District, Roxbury—addition to David A. Ellis School.

Harvard District, Charlestown—elementary school, to replace Prescott and James A. McDonald Buildings.

Dillaway District, Roxbury—addition to Nathan Hale School and abandonment of Abby W. May School.

Boston Technical High School, Back Bay Fens or Franklin Park area, Roxbury—high school, to replace Boston Technical High School Building, to accommodate 1,500 pupils.

Edmund P. Tileston District, Mattapan—new elementary school, Almont Street Playground.

Wendell Phillips District, West End—new elementary school, Winchell-Mayhew area.

Christopher Gibson District, Dorchester—new elementary school, to replace Christopher Gibson and Atherton buildings.

James A. Garfield District, Brighton—new elementary school.

Enlargement of outdoor play areas.

In order to finance at least part of these urgent projects, the School Committee hereby respectfully requests that your Honor recommend to the City Council that it originate an additional $10,000,000 loan order for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses and additions, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses and additions.

The School Committee will seek to have each new school and addition approved by the Massachusetts School Building Assistance Commission under Mass. St. 1946, ch. 645, as amended, and thereby obtain a state grant of approximately 20 per cent of the cost of each school and addition, including furnishings, to help meet the payments on the loan.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH LEE, Chairman.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

ORDER FOR LOAN OF $10,000,000 FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Legislation authorizing the City of Boston to borrow, outside its limit of indebtedness, for the construction of additional off-street parking facilities was approved on June 20, 1955. Herewith is an order authorizing the City Treasurer to borrow $10,000,000, from time to time, for the construction of off-street parking facilities within the City of Boston.

At the present time, it is estimated that an additional ten to twelve thousand off-street parking facilities are necessary in Boston to meet current demands, and the demands generated by the John F. Fitzgerald Artery.

Although approval is requested of the City Council of the full amount of the loan authorization, it may well be that the growing interest of private capital in the construction of off-street parking facilities will make it unnecessary for the City of Boston to make use of the full loan authorization.

However, there is no assurance that this will happen. We cannot be certain that private capital will keep abreast of current or future demands for parking facilities. Consequently, the city must be prepared to go forward without delay in the construction of parking facilities in those areas of the city which have been designated by the City Planning Board, and the Board of Real Estate Commissioners as desirable areas for such facilities.

In order that your Honorable Body may have at your disposal the views of these bodies, I attach herewith copies of the most recent report of the City Planning Board, and the recommendations of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners.

At the present time, in the downtown area three parking facilities, one completely financed by the city, and two partially financed by the city, are in operation. These facilities are located at Lincoln and Essex streets, Winthrop square, and Post Office square. Likewise, at the present time, a ramp-type facility fully financed by the city is under construction at St. James avenue. A mechanical-type facility at Hayward place will shortly be open for bids. If no private capital is forthcoming for the construction of this facility, the city will proceed to its construction and bear the full cost of its financing. Land-taking proceedings have been initiated for a facility site in the Central-Kilby Streets area, but further action has been suspended awaiting the outcome of court proceedings brought to restrain the city from going forward at this particular site.

Private capital, completely independent of city financing, is now in the process of building a parking facility on Lincoln street, at the site of the old United States Hotel; and also in the process of planning a parking facility on Province street, between Bromfield and School streets. At this point, I wish to extend the official gratitude of the City of Boston to the gentlemen who are responsible for the building of these two facilities, without seeking any financial aid from the city.

In the opinion of the City Planning Board and the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, it is imperative that at least nine more parking facilities be constructed in Boston, with or without the financial aid of the city. In addition to the nine areas set forth in the Planning Board report, the Board of Real Estate Commissioners recommends a facility in the North Station area.

These areas are set forth in the accompanying recommendation of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners. Within the areas designated, specific sites for the construction of a facility will be chosen by the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, after giving due consideration to all the factors at hand, traffic counts, and pertinent surveys. This Board will be, and must be under the law, the final arbiter of the specific sites for parking facilities.

In the construction of the facilities, there is, and can be, no inflexible priority order. Those sites which can be built upon without untoward delays, without restraining orders, and without too great an impact on owners or tenants, will be given prior consideration. At this point, it cannot be determined which sites will fall into this category.

Unless further legal obstacles are thrown in our way, and unless private capital proceeds to the building of parking facilities within the areas outlined, it is very probable that the city will proceed to the construction of two or three or more facilities at approximately the same time.

To preserve the value of downtown buildings; to relieve traffic congestion and eliminate street parking as much as possible; to make headway against the constantly increasing demand for parking spaces; and to make it possible for shoppers and others using the downtown area to find a convenient parking facility, is a responsibility the City of Boston cannot shirk, without dire results. The loan order, submitted herewith, and the expected availability of private capital, will enable the city to go forward with a program that will create an additional 7,350 off-street parking spaces.

ORDINANCE FIXING FEES FOR LICENSES AND PERMITS AND CHARGES FOR CERTAIN SERVICES AND WORK.

The following was received:

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1956.

Chapter 222 of the Acts of 1949 empowered the City of Boston to fix by ordinance the fees for most licenses and permits granted under the authority of statutes where the entire proceeds of the fee form part of the income of the City, and also the charges to be paid for services rendered or work performed by the City for any person or class of persons unless the service is rendered or work performed as part of the general services furnished for the benefit of the citizens of the City as a whole. By an express provision in the statute, unless its terms are explicitly nullified by a subsequent statute, a fee or charge fixed thereunder shall apply notwithstanding any general or special law fixing a different fee or charge, or imposing any limitation on the amount thereof, or designating a particular board or officer to fix said amount.

Ever since the passage of Chapter 222 of the Acts of 1949, as opportunity has from time to time presented itself, members of the Law Department have worked upon an ordinance which not only would exercise in a comprehensive way the broad power vested by said chapter but also would serve as a general index to licenses, permits and special services and to the provisions of law pertaining thereto. At long last, the work of preparing this ordinance has been completed, and it is transmitted to you herewith, together with a table of changes setting forth in summary fashion the chief differences between existing fees and charges and those proposed.

In the preparation of the ordinance, consideration has been given to the report made by the Boston Finance Commission on February 7, 1956, as well as to many suggestions from other sources concerning proper fees and charges. Suffice it to say that, in the light of current conditions, present fees and charges would be reasonably adjusted by the ordinance transmitted herewith. I recommend its adoption.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

To my mind, nothing is more important to our city than a well-conceived program for parking facilities, which can move with reasonable speed. Every large city is currently planning, or constructing, a series of off-street parking facilities in its downtown area in full realization that convenient, downtown parking facilities are the most effective antidotes to business decentralization. It is, I believe, redundant to state that no city needs parking facilities more than the City of Boston, the business life of which is confined to such a comparatively small area.

I am hopeful that the members of your Honorable Body will give early approval to the order herewith submitted. No money is now available to proceed to the planning, and acquisition of land, in any of the areas as designated. Therefore, any long delay in the approval of this order will be costly to our city. The authority to borrow up to $10,000,000 will not be exercised unless needed. It is well to bear in mind that even if the city does acquire the land and does completely finance all of the structures in the various areas, the return to the city by way of lease rentals will fully amortize the debt, with no loss whatsoever to the city.

For the reasons above stated, it is my hope that the members of your Honorable Body, after due deliberation, will authorize the continuance of the off-street parking program of the city. I recommend the passage of the attached order.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Real Property Department,
May 11, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following votes of the Real Property Board were taken at its duly constituted meeting on May 11, 1956:

Voted, That the Real Property Board concurs with the report of the City Planning Board recommending that off-street parking is necessary within the following areas:

1. Scollay Square-Court Street area.
2. Bedford-Kington Street area.
3. Fort Hill square.
4. South Station area.
5. Congress street and Atlantic avenue, south side of Central Artery, city to construct after tunnel construction, probably in two years.
6. Lower Washington Street area.
7. Copley Square area.
8. Kenmore Square area.
9. Commercial and South Market streets, adjacent to Central Artery; and, in addition, the Real Property Board recommends that a facility be provided in the area of the North Station, in accordance with the needs of that area.

Voted, That the chairman is directed to inform the Mayor of the above vote of the Real Property Board and request his Honor to take the necessary steps in requesting the City Council to authorize the borrowing of $10,000,000, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 450, of the Acts of 1955.

Your Honor will please note that each parking facility structure that is planned within the areas enumerated in the foregoing vote, will accommodate an average of 600 cars. Our experience has been that the construction cost is approximately $2,000 per car space. If it becomes necessary for the city to construct these various facilities with its funds, the cost of construction will exceed $12,000,000. This figure is exclusive of the cost of land takings.

It is also the opinion of the Board that some of the sites within the recommended areas will be leased by 40 lessees and that the structures will be built by the said lessees at no construction cost to the city; thus releasing some of the funds for the payment of land damages, so that in all probability we will be able to provide the required number of car spaces for an amount within the $10,000,000 loan limit.

I, therefore, by direction of the Real Property Board, request your Honor to obtain authorization from the City Council for the borrowing of $10,000,000, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 450, of the Acts of 1955.

Respectfully submitted,
HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property,
Chairman, Real Property Board.

City Planning Board,
May 9, 1956.

Herman Carp, Chairman, Real Property Department.

Gentlemen:

Concerning your request for additional locations for garages, let me first comment on our conviction regarding the soundness of our off-street parking report, dated December, 1954, but actually not released until March of 1955.

In the first place, the background of the report was based on an intensive staff study to bring up to date the number of, and geographic distribution of, person trips to downtown Boston by all modes of travel and to examine the relative importance of various nonresidential land uses in the downtown area in terms of their person trip generating power.

The most recent cordon and origin and destination counts available at that time were used with adjustments which involved a certain amount of field survey made to fit 1954 conditions.

The report was also based on work done on our Central Business District Study wherein an evaluation has been made of future floor space requirements in the downtown area which may generate additional trips into the area, also an evaluation of the effect of the expressway construction which would attract more motor vehicles into downtown Boston.

A special study was made wherein a proposed circulation plan was devised which would take into account Massachusetts D.P.W. estimates on traffic flows at the Central Artery ramps. Field checks were made at several garages and parking lots to determine rate of turnover. A field check also showed that currently the ratio of persons per passenger car has dropped from 1.7 to just under 1.6. A lower figure for this factor was actually used in the report so as to make allowance for the trend towards an increased number of cars.

In short, the report was based on all factors at hand, economics, traffic counts, and pertinent surveys of this particular area. Though conservative, it attempts to estimate 1965 conditions.

The only new factors to consider are the cordon count made by the Traffic Commission in 1954 and the O. & D. count now being processed by the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority and the D.P.W.

The first factor, which shows that there are now 162,000 passenger cars daily entering the inner cordon, substantiates our future estimate of 190,000 cars for the Central Business District.

The results from the second factor will not be available until the first of August and it is very doubtful that the zone and sector counts for the business districts will have an appreciable effect on the garage site locations in the report.

You will note that in the report in the downtown area the site locations roughly fall into two categories: (1) an inner ring wherein the sites have been selected as close as possible to the retail area without encroaching on valuable property; and (2) an outer ring wherein sites have been picked just inside the Central Artery with due consideration of ramp locations. Both rings comprise a chain of locations 600 to 800 feet apart. Incidentally, though this report was made completely independent of a survey made in 1941, it turns out that six of the seven sites proposed in the inner ring exactly coincide with selections made fifteen years ago. Several other sites in the report were also selected at that time.

It is now submitted that garages should be built on the Court Square site to serve the Scollay-Court Square area and at Kingston and Bedford streets. In the outer ring it is recommended that the Fort Hill Square site be acquired as soon as possible and that a site in the South Station area be selected. Tentative sites are in the rear of the United Shoe Building and on Congress street. Also it is recommended that the Washington and Dore streets site be acquired. This site is about 600 feet away from the privately operated Eliot Street garage and the Beach Street garage. This site might be considered as part of the proposed New England Medical Center Redevelopment Project, but that would probably mean at least a four-year delay just to obtain federal aid on site acquisition.

In the Back Bay a site should be acquired at the corner of Dartmouth and Newbury streets.

In the Scollay Square area we have a mixed situation regarding need for additional spaces. The report prognosticated a need for 1,000 spaces. 500 of which were proposed either as an underground garage or in close proximity to the State House and which should be the responsibility of the state government. In re-evaluating the report it is found that the 700 existing spaces in the Bowdoin Square garage were credited to the zone northeast of Cambridge street. It is now felt that this was an error and that one half of the garage capacity, or 350 spaces, should be credited to the Cambridge Street-Scollay Square area, thereby cutting the required estimate to be supplied by the city to 150. In view of the fact that the Scollay Square frontage can be considered to be partly served by the two large parking lots on Hanover and Brattle streets and by the proposed garage at Court square it appears that for the time being the Scollay-Court Square area may be considered as one zone which the Court Square garage would serve. If at some time in the future and after the Court Square garage is built, the demand builds up for a site at the Cambridge Street end of Scollay square it might well be at the corner of Cambridge and Somerset streets, proximate to the Court House.

In the area bounded by Causeway, Staniford, Cambridge, and Hanover streets and the Central Artery, a simple perusal of the parking facility map shows that the only area that can be at all considered as needing garage space is the triangle composed of six blocks bounded by Causeway, Merrimac, and Canal streets. Several checks show that the parking lots on Nashua street, opposite North Station, are only filled to 80 per cent of their capacity except when events are taking place in the Boston Garden. If a site is to be taken it appears that it should be on the business side of Causeway street to serve the six blocks referred to above. Also it should be borne in mind that the Portland Street garage, with a capacity of 600 cars, closed out some three years ago, ostensibly because of lack of patronage, but quite possibly, too, because it was an elevator garage. Nevertheless, if sites are desired, the choice might well be the small block bounded by Causeway, Merrimac, and Lancaster streets which is of sufficient size to erect a mechanical garage.

ORDER FOR LOAN OF $10,000,000 FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.—Concluded.

SUMMARY.

Public and private off-street parking facilities in the planning stage or under construction:

1. St. James avenue—ramp type, under construction, 600 spaces.
2. Hayward place—mechanical type, plans completed, demolition started, 600 spaces.
3. Central street—land-taking proceedings initiated, 500 spaces.
4. Province street—in planning stage, being developed privately, 350 spaces.
5. Old U. S. Hotel site on Lincoln street being privately developed as part of a new building, 200 spaces.

Total, 2,250 spaces.

Additional Site Proposals.

1. Scollay Square-Court Street area, Court Square site, 500 spaces.
2. Bedford-Kingston street, 600 spaces.
3. Fort Hill square, 500 spaces.
4. South Station area—tentative sites, rear of United Shoe Building or on Congress street, 600 spaces.
5. Congress street and Atlantic avenue, south side of Central Artery, city to construct after tunnel construction, probably in two years, 500 spaces.
6. Lower Washington street at Dore street, 600 spaces.
7. Copley Square area, corner of Dartmouth and Newbury streets, 600 spaces.
8. Kenmore Square area, 600 spaces.
9. Commercial and South Market streets, adjacent to Central Artery, 600 spaces.

Total, 5,100 spaces.

Under construction or in planning stage, 2,250 spaces.

Grand total, 7,350 spaces.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS F. McDONOUGH, Chairman.

Ordered, That under the authority contained in chapter 450 of the Acts of 1955, the sum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) be, and hereby is appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Real Property Board, for the establishment of off-street parking facilities, and that the Collector-Treasurer be authorized, with the approval of the Mayor, to issue from time to time, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount, said issues to be outside the limit of indebtedness of the city.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

AN ORDINANCE

FIXING THE FEES FOR LICENSES AND PERMITS AND THE CHARGES FOR CERTAIN SERVICES AND WORK.

In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

SECTION 1. Massachusetts Electrical Contractors Association, Inc.,

5 Boylston Street, Cambridge,

April 30, 1956.

Hon. Edward J. McCormack, Jr., President, Boston City Council.

Dear Mr. McCormack:

As you are aware, a City of Boston Administrative Department reorganization some time ago placed the Department of Electrical Inspection under the supervision of the Building Commissioner.

Since the reorganization there have been, increasingly, complaints on the part of electrical contractors working in Boston of a rapidly declining efficiency, and, seemingly, a growing demoralization, in the Electrical Inspection Department, with a resultant increase in contractors' operating costs.

More than a year ago associations in the industry made these contentions to the Mayor, the then director of administrative services, and to other city officials. The situation seems only to have deteriorated further.

Would you have the kindness to investigate the workings of both the electrical inspection and electrical permit divisions of the office of the Building Commissioner in the effort to determine the basis of trouble and suggest a remedy.

Gratefully and respectfully,
GERARD G. McDUFF, President.

THANKS TO DIRECTORS AND STAFF OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL RESEARCH BUREAU.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, The Boston Municipal Research Bureau was requested by the Boston City Council to provide technical assistance during the period of its processing of the annual municipal budget;

Whereas, The Boston Municipal Research Bureau responded to said request and provided such assistance without cost to the taxpayer, be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council expresses its thanks to the Board of Directors and staff of the Boston Municipal Research Bureau.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Housing Authority be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the usefulness to the Boston Housing Authority in selling the New York Streets Area of the following suggestions:

1. Providing railroad access from the northerly end of the area from the present railroad bed contiguous to the northern boundary of the area.

2. Adoption for the New York Streets Area of a model building code of nationally accepted standards.

3. Immediate revaluation of New York Streets Area with funds provided by the City Council looking toward a land value map and a rule for building valuation in accord with previous City Council orders.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

BOND ISSUE FOR NEW SCHOOLS

The following letter to be sent to His Honor, the Mayor, John B. Hynes, with reference to a Bond Issue for additional school accommodations was presented:

March 1, 1956.

Honorable John B. Hynes

Mayor of Boston

City Hall

Boston, Massachusetts

My dear Mayor Hynes:

In each of the years 1953 and 1954 the City Council approved a bond issue in the amount of $5,000,000.00 for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing public schoolhouses, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses.

These bond issues total $10,000,000.00 and this entire amount has been allocated for land, plans, construction and furnishing of necessary new school buildings and in certain cases additions to existing school buildings. Under our current building program the additions to the Curtis Guild and the James J. Chittick buildings will be ready for occupancy by April 1, 1956; the new building in the Columbia Point area will be ready for occupancy by Sept. 1, 1956; the construction contracts have either been awarded or are about to be awarded on five other buildings or additions; and four of the remaining five projects are far advanced in the plan stages.

The school system is in need of far more construction than it has been possible to achieve under these two bond issues. The following school accommodations are only a few of those urgently needed to properly house our school pupils:

Lowell District, Jamaica Plain—Elementary School to replace Lowell School Building.

Emily A. Fifield District, Dorchester—Addition of gymnasium for girls, Dorchester High School.

Henry L. Higginson District, Roxbury—Addition to David A. Ellis School.

Harvard District, Charlestown—Elementary School to replace Prescott and James A. McDonald buildings.

Dillaway District, Roxbury—Addition to Nathan Hale School and abandonment of Abby W. May School.

Boston Technical High School, Back Bay Fens or Franklin Park area, Roxbury—High School to replace Boston Technical High School building, to accommodate 1500 pupils.

Edmund P. Tileston District, Mattapan — New elementary school, Almont Street playground.

Wendell Phillips District, West End — New elementary school, Winchell-Mayhew area.

Christopher Gibson District, Dorchester — New elementary school to replace Christopher Gibson and Atherton buildings.

James A. Garfield District, Brighton — New elementary school.

Enlargement of outdoor play areas.

In order to finance at least part of these urgent projects, the School Committee hereby respectfully requests that your Honor recommend to the City Council that it originate an additional ten million dollar loan order for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses and additions, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses and additions.

The School Committee will seek to have each new school and addition approved by the Massachusetts School Building Assistance Commission under Mass. St. 1948, ch. 645, as amended, and thereby obtain a State grant of approximately 20% of the cost of each school and addition including furnishings to help meet the payments on the loan.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) JOSEPH LEE
Chairman.

On roll call, the Chairman was authorized by the following vote to transmit the foregoing communication to His Honor, the Mayor:

YEAS—Messrs. Carr, Hurley, Lee, and McMorro—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. McInerney—1.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

AGNES E. REYNOLDS
Secretary

REPORT OF EASTERN DISTRICT CONFERENCE AMER. HEALTH ASSO. BY MARY T. GIBBONS

Following is the report of Mary T. Gibbons, Assistant Director, Department of Physical Education, Boston School Department, on her attendance at the Eastern District Conference of the American Health and Physical Education Association, April 22-26, 1956:

I respectfully submit the report of my attendance at the Eastern District Conference of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, held at the Ambassador Hotel, Atlantic City, April 22-26, 1956.

At the opening session on Sunday evening, Lloyd M. Jones, past president of the Eastern District Association, presided. The address "Faith and Fitness" was given by Reverend Dr. Raymond Kistler, President of Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pennsylvania. He stressed the building of character and ideals in the education of today to insure the kind of world we want tomorrow. Dr. Kistler believes that students should be instilled with faith—faith in themselves, faith in their country and, above all, faith in a Supreme Being.

On Monday morning, the research panel discussed "Physical and Physiological Effects of Exercise on Experimental Armadillos," "The Effects of Certain Types of Motivation on Physical Performance," "The Effect of Instruction on the Development of Throwing for Accuracy of First Grade Children."

The Monday afternoon panel on school health education had Harry Firger of Roxbury Memorial High School giving a detailed statistical report of health education teaching as he saw it in his travels as a Ford scholar. Ann M. Cotter of Kenmore, New York, spoke on "Sex Education As An Aid to Social Adjustment." Cornelius Keller of Union, New Jersey, gave a demonstration and explanation of student constructed materials in the teaching of health education.

The second general session found Marion Purbeck, president-elect, presiding. Dr. Ruth Abernathy, past president, A.A.H.P.E.R., of the University of California, gave a stimulating address "It Takes All Kinds." She stressed the need for hundreds of creative teachers with imagination and sympathy to work toward a knowledge of young people so that we may understand why they act as they do. We must help them to express the best that they have in them and also learn to evaluate accurately, assessing quality performance.

Tuesday morning, the panel on measurement and evaluation was highly technical, with topics such as "Place of Strength Testing in the Assessment of Physical Fitness," "The Use of Flexibility Measures in the Assessment of Physical Fitness," "Place of Cardiovascular Tests in the Measurement of Physical Fitness."

The Tuesday afternoon dance panel was excellent. "Recreation Education in Dance" was discussed by Harlan Metcalf, of State University of New York, and Richard Kraus, Teachers College, Columbia University. Mr. Kraus demonstrated with an audience group the teaching of square dance calling. Dorothy Madden of the University of Maryland spoke on "Modern or Contemporary Dance Education." The modern dance group of the Ocean City, New Jersey, high school performed "Dance Americana, Circa 1500-1875."

Tuesday evening at the Atlantic City high school "A Program of Physical Education Activities" was presented. Panzer College, Seton Hall University, Rutgers University, Temple University, and Glassboro Teachers' College participated.

Wednesday at 8.30 A.M., the all-states breakfast was held. Massachusetts was fifth in the number of delegates attending.

Following the breakfast, the Physical Education Division discussed the topic "Are We Achieving What We Should in Physical Education?" The panel consisted of George Grover, New York State Education Department; Dorothy Mohr, University of Maryland; Grover Mueller, Philadelphia Board of Education; and Richard Robinson, Superintendent of Trenton, New Jersey, Public Schools.

The Wednesday afternoon session on public school physical education was one of the best of the convention. Dr. Julia Webber Gordon, assistant in Child and Youth Study of the New Jersey State Department of Education, spoke on "Growth and Development, the Basis for Physical Education Programs." She stressed two basic concepts: (1) All healthy human beings do follow a normal pattern of development; (2) there is a wide variation in the rate at which children go through the normal pattern. Keeping the two concepts before us, we may ask: "Do our programs accomplish what they are intended to accomplish? Are we selecting our materials scientifically and adjusting them to growth variations?"

Thursday morning Don Begnau of Queens College was chairman of the dance section. His topic was "Social Dance, Its Place in the Program." A demonstration of the teaching of social dance at the high school level was given by Mrs. Mae Russell and Stanley Marczyk of Holy Spirit High School, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The convention ended at noon, Thursday, April 26, 1956.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY T. GIBBONS,

Assistant Director of Physical Education.

NOTE.—This report is published in the City Record in compliance with the provisions of Sect. 3, chapter 274 of the Acts of 1914.

While the officer was questioning him he noted that he fitted the description of the man wanted for holding up a bank in Brighton on January 16, 1956. Patrolman McLaughlin searched him and found a loaded revolver in his possession. When confronted by the victims of the holdup he was positively identified as the man who had held them up, and later under questioning admitted his guilt.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize the keen observation and devotion to duty shown by Patrolman McLaughlin in effecting this important arrest which undoubtedly prevented the commission of additional serious crimes.

General Order No. 2,217.

No. 22

SUPERVISOR OF BUDGETS POST CREATED AS CITY COUNCIL APPROVES ORDINANCE PROPOSED BY MAYOR HYNES

Mayor John B. Hynes, on Tuesday, May 29, signed an ordinance passed by the City Council on the previous day, creating the position of Supervisor of Budgets in the Department of Administrative Services.

Henceforth the Director of Administrative Services will be relieved of the details involved in the preparation of the annual budget and of keeping in close touch with every item of departmental income and expenditures. With this direct responsibility off his shoulders the newly-appointed Director of Administrative Services, John A. Breen, will be able to turn his whole attention to the primary duties of this recently created office, the gradual coordination of departmental activity into a more efficient and streamlined city government, and of maintaining that efficiency when finally achieved.

The ordinance creating the Supervisor of Budgets, as finally passed by the Council, contained several amendments to the Mayor's original proposal as submitted on April 16. In three functions of the Supervisor of Budgets—preparation of the budgets, drafting of orders covering transfer of funds, and supervision of departmental estimate sheets on all new city appropriations—the new ordinance, as finally passed and signed by Mayor Hynes tightened phraseology to read: "under the direction of the Mayor and in consultation with the Director of Administrative Services."

The new ordinance increases the membership on the Administrative Services Board from five to seven, the additions being the new Supervisor of Budgets and the Assessor of Taxes. The other members of the board are: The Administrative Services Director, Chairman; the Supervisor of Personnel, the Purchasing Agent, the City Auditor, and the Collector-Treasurer, ex officio. The addition of the Assessor of Taxes to the Board was specifically requested by Mayor Hynes to "assure full coordination of the Revaluation Program," currently in the planning stages.

Creation of the budget supervisor post was a foremost recommendation of Charles J. Fox upon his retirement early this year as Director of Administrative Services. Mr. Fox had been called back from retirement as City Auditor in 1953 by Mayor Hynes to direct the Mayor's city government reorganization program. In recommending that his successor, whoever he may be, should be relieved of the responsibility for the details of the annual and supplementary budgets and other time-consuming duties of a budget director, Director Fox stated that this job, often unofficially referred to as the position of "deputy mayor," demanded the undivided attention of the official filling it upon the multitude of problems involved in making Boston's city government more efficient. With the close supervision of the budget out of the way, Mr. Fox pointed out, the Administrative Services Director can make solid gains in the city government reorganization plan and solidify those gains into permanent business-like formulas.

The views of Mayor Hynes on the need for a budget supervisor were expressed in his message to the City Council of April 16 as follows:

"Effective budget work entails not only the assembly of statistical data which can readily be delegated to subordinates but also extensive policy making which of necessity must be conducted by appointive officials and not subordinates, and concerns the administration of the budget after its adoption as well as its preparation for adoption. If the Director of Administrative Services is to be personally responsible for the budget, this time-consuming policy making must be done by him personally. Experience has shown that this diverts too much of his time from his major function as administrative overseer, policy reviewer, and general liaison officer under the Mayor, and thus operates to defeat the prime purposes of the Administrative Services Director."

Appointed by the Mayor as Supervisor of Budgets was John C. Pickett, a career man in the city service. He had been senior budget analyst in the Administrative Services Department. Forty-one years of age, the father of five sons, Mr. Pickett resides at 35 Newcroft Circle, Mattapan. He entered the municipal service as a clerk in the Welfare Department, and has a total of 17 years' experience as an account examiner, the last five with the Budget Division. He served in the Army during World War II, enlisting as a private. He was discharged as a captain in the Quartermaster Corps. The salary of Supervisor of Budgets is $9,500 a year.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

BOSTON MUST FACE ITS TRAFFIC CONGESTION AS A CRISIS

PARKING SPACE IN HUB VITAL TO ECONOMY OF WIDE AREA, SAYS COUNC. EDW. F. McLAUGHLIN

This is the fifth and last of a series of reports by five members of the City Council on Boston problems before a recent Boston College Seminar.

Boston's off-street parking problems as they affect the economic well-being of the whole metropolitan area were discussed by Councillor Edward F. McLaughlin, Jr., one of the five panel members representing the City Council, at the final Boston College seminar of the 1955-56 season, conducted at the campus, April 10, 1956.

Councillor McLaughlin spoke as follows:

On December 7, 1954, our very capable chairman of the Boston Traffic Commission, William Arthur Reilly, addressed a similar group at this institution and ventured a prediction:

"Historians may well observe that in the interests of national welfare and security:

"In the 1920's and 1930's we dealt with the crisis of unemployment."

"In the 1930's and 1940's we dealt with the crisis of housing."

"In the 1950's and 1960's we dealt with the crisis of traffic congestion."

Not a Critical Report

In a meagre effort to make this prediction a reality, but, more because I am convinced that the problem of traffic congestion is one of the most serious matters presently confronting our city, I should like to speak with you today on the question of off-street parking.

It is not my purpose to make a critical report. Rather, I shall try to give you, in capsule form necessarily, because of time limitations, the history of the program to date, and, its present status. And, then I should like to discuss, as I see them

(1) the future of the program;
(2) the steps Boston and her neighbors should take in developing this future;

(3) the interrelation of this specific solution to the traffic problem with several others of equal importance.

I shall limit my remarks to the downtown area for the most part. One Word of Caution. I am not an expert in the fields of traffic, parking, or transportation. My views are, therefore, those of a layman whose position in public office requires him to vote on legislation affecting this critical problem. You gentlemen have a deep concern in this problem. I think you are entitled to know how I think—and why.

That there is a need is—Without Question. The only query is—how many spaces do we need and where should they be located.

Five Installations

In 1946 the Legislature enacted chapter 474 of the General Laws. This is the basic legislation which enables the City of Boston, acting through its Board of Real Estate Commissioners, to establish off-street parking facilities. It granted to the city many powers, including the power to acquire property for off-street parking facilities by eminent domain, and the power to borrow $5,000,000 outside the debt limit.

On December 16, 1946, the City Council approved a loan order in this amount. With the funds so provided, five installations were eventually placed in operation:

- (1) Winthrop Square garage, 750 cars.
- (2) Essex and Lincoln Streets garage, 365 cars.
- (3) Post Office Square garage, 950 cars.
- (4) Franklin and Pearl Streets garage, 211 cars.
- (5) Copley Square (open-air garage), 625 cars.

When Copley square is finally completed these five installations alone will have cost the city approximately $4,500,000 in land acquisition, and $1,500,000 in construction costs.

In 1951, the Legislature again provided the city with the authority to borrow an additional $5,000,000 in excess of the debt limit for this purpose. The loan order for this amount was sent to the City Council in February of 1955. These funds were to be used in eight specific areas, if possible. These areas were:

1. Atlantic avenue, Congress and Purchase streets.
2. Fort Hill square.
3. Kingston and Bedford streets.
4. Washington street and Hayward place.
5. Bromfield and Province streets.
6. Central and Kilby streets.
7. Washington and Hollis streets.
8. Scollay square.

Filed Loan Order

In the course of the Council's frequent and lengthy deliberations over this matter, it developed that there was a difference of opinion as to the site priorities, not only between the Council and various groups who conferred with us on the order, but also among these groups themselves.

There was doubt in the minds of some councillors as to the propriety of granting $5,000,000 when, in their judgment, we had little to show for the first $5,000,000 granted in 1946. It was with this thought in mind that Councillor Ahearn filed a loan order for $1,500,000; Councillors Foley, Ahearn, and McCormack filed a loan order for $2,000,000; and the same three councillors filed a resolution calling for a comprehensive plan for off-street parking facilities. These three matters were filed on April 7, 1955, and referred to the Executive Committee. There were then pending before this committee three loan orders for off-street parking—the two just referred to and one for $5,000,000 which I had filed on February 28, 1955, in substitution for the Mayor's original order.

Text of Resolve

On March 14, after further deliberation and conference with the Mayor, the $5,000,000 order received its first reading—all nine councillors voting in the affirmative. This was done, however, only because of a resolution adopted at the same time. This resolution set forth the Council's views and his Honor the Mayor agreed to honor it although it had no legally binding effect. This resolution read as follows:

Whereas, The Boston City Council has adopted a loan order for off-street parking in the amount of $5,000,000; and

Whereas, This loan order is passed for the express purpose of expediting this over-all program; particularly as it pertains to the downtown area of the city, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council recommends that these funds be used for those sites in the general vicinity of

1. Atlantic, Congress, and Purchase Streets area;
2. Fort Hill Square area;
3. Kingston and Bedford Streets area;
4. Washington and Hayward Streets area;
5. Bromfield and Province Streets area;
6. Central and Kilby Streets area; and be it further

Resolved, That the Boston City Council strongly urges that this money borrowed under this $5,000,000 loan order not be used for acquisition and clearance of sites for off-street parking in the general vicinity of Washington and Hollis Streets area and/or the Scollay Square area.

In City Council March 28, 1955. Adopted.

Three Locations

These last two sites engendered quite some discussion. It was the Council's view, with which I was in complete agreement, that the facilities should be built as close as possible to the heart of our business district if they were to be of any value to the section that bears the lion's share of the city's real estate tax burden. As to when, if ever, Washington and Hollis streets, and the Scollay Square area should be used as sites, we expressed no opinion at that time. This problem will probably be discussed again in the very near future.

On March 28, 1955, the loan order received its final reading and passage.

What has been done with this money?

To date, we have borrowed no money but all of it has been allocated. Three definite locations are already planned:

(1) Hayward place and Harrison avenue, 700 cars, automatic parking, demolition commenced April 1, 1956, construction to start about

June 15, to be built by lessee at no cost to the city.

(2) Central and Kilby streets, 700-car garage, temporary injunction.

(3) Fort Hill square, 600 cars, automatic parking, land being transferred from the Commonwealth, to be built by lessee at no cost to the city.

No Lack of Money

Department engineers are working on plans for the following areas:

1. North Station area.
2. Scollay Square area.
3. South Station area.
4. Tremont Street area.
5. Washington Street at the fringe of shopping district.
6. Court Square.
7. Province and Bromfield streets.

It has been said by some critics that three garages and two parking lots in the downtown area in ten years, can hardly be called steady progress in solving the parking problem. I don't imagine we can argue very much about that. The delay was caused, not by lack of money, but, rather by administrative and technical problems. We now have, as a result of a study by the Boston Planning Board, released in December of 1954, an over-all plan and somewhat of a schedule. We are now planning for several facilities at one time. This will prevent delay when legal and other problems crop up in connection with a given site—such as Central and Kilby streets. It will also enable private investors to have a better idea of what is coming and better enable them to assay the economic problem involved, and thus encourage private enterprise to develop the program. This, of course, upon the proviso that we do not overpopulate the area with parking facilities.

If all the proposed sites are developed it is estimated that 12,000 off-street parking spaces will be realized. But, more money than is presently available, will be needed. To facilitate this program, the Legislature, in 1955, again empowered the city to borrow beyond its debt limit—this time in the amount of $10,000,000. It is expected that a loan order for all, or a large portion of this amount, will be presented to the Council in the next few weeks.

And—now the question? Where do we go from here?

The Planning Board report of 1954, and I recommend it to you all as an outstanding analysis of the problem, advises that the city must provide 12,000 off-street parking spaces for our central business area within the next ten years. By its own admission, this is a conservative figure, and is based upon higher turnover in the use of each space, than is presently being experienced.

At the present time we have constructed 3,000 spaces.

Definitely in view, 1,925 spaces.

We, therefore, need 7,075 spaces, to reach this goal.

Problem Still Acute

I believe these figures are reasonable. I shall support every effort to reach this goal, reserving the right at all times, however, to state my views as to the merits of a particular location.

I feel we must speed up the program greatly. I do not think we should wait ten years to complete these spaces. We must keep as close a pace to the construction of new highways leading into Boston from north, south, and west, lest we be swamped. But, I also believe that before we plan for any off-street spaces beyond these 12,000 we should proceed with extreme caution.

I do not believe we can argue the point that highway improvements, such as the Central Artery and the erection of parking facilities do, temporarily at least, ease the traffic problem and its sister problem of parking. But, within a relatively short time of completion, such improvements also serve to attract more motorists into the business area and soon the problem is as acute as before.

We can do one of two things. We can continue to build off-street parking facilities by taking more presently tax-producing property within the critical area. This would in turn help for a while, then attract still more motorists, and the vicious circle continues. Carried to its ridiculous end, we would have more parking facilities than business properties, and there would still be a shortage of spaces. It is apparent that we cannot supply the necessary spaces for all who would like to drive their cars into Boston. Nor should we. Our interests must be centered on those to whom the automobile is an essential tool of business and upon the shoppers, not on those for whom it is primarily a convenjence. We must also keep in mind the fact that the Boston Common garage with space for over 3,000 cars is approaching reality and this must be considered in our future planning. The proposed development of the Boston & Albany Railroad yards in the Back Bay is another factor. Should this become a reality, 6,000 additional spaces would be available. To do other than this will defeat our main purpose, which is to stimulate the economic life of our downtown area and increase property value.

Or, we can take strong steps to stop the unessential automobiles before they reach the downtown area. It is this approach that I strongly recommend for immediate study, planning, and action, by governmental and business leaders, not only of Boston, but of the communities within the Greater Boston perimeter.

Human nature being what it is, and with our 20th century desire for maximum comfort and convenience, we cannot expect the motorist to voluntarily abandon his automobile. Stricter laws and enforcement will be necessary.

M.T.A. — Life's Blood

Many of the points I shall make have been studied before. They are not original with me. But, I do not believe they have been studied in a coordinated manner nor with a view to definite action.

Mass transportation, particularly as represented by the M.T.A., is our life's blood. We should encourage its use by improved service, both as to frequency and comfort. We should increase the parking facilities at all major M.T.A. terminals, not only in Boston, but in Cambridge and other communities as well. These facilities should be conveniently located and properly surfaced and staffed. It should be noted that the M.T.A. has the power to take property by eminent domain for this purpose. Cost should not be the primary consideration.

Statistics show that three out of four downtown shoppers use mass transportation of one kind or another. Yet, further development of rapid transit facilities is at a standstill. Cities and towns in the transit district, hard hit by rising tax rates, hesitate to support expansion of rapid transit facilities because they directly pay the bills. Municipalities outside of the district, and, which definitely benefit from the transit system, want no part of the problem.

This was clearly shown once again when on April 3 of this year the House of Representatives defeated a bill which would require the fourteen fringe cities and towns, who are serviced indirectly by the M.T.A., to pay 25 per cent of the system's annual multimillion dollar deficit. Yet, I am firmly convinced that not only is this essential legislation which we must press again and again, until passed, but, I also believe that the rapid transit system must be extended north, south, and west. Further, some degree of subsidization is a must if the fare is to be continued at a level where mass transportation can compete with the automobile.

See Gilbert Speech, May 19, 1955, at page 130.

Prohibit Parking

We must further encourage use of our mass transportation by discouraging the motorist whose car is not essential to business from driving into downtown Boston. This can be done in several ways:

(1) Increase substantially the fines assessed for illegal and overtime on the street parking and be absolutely strict in the matter of enforcement. Favorite parkers must be stopped.

(2) Increase the use of the towing laws.

(3) Increase parking meter rates and garage rates to increase turnover, and substantially decrease, if not eliminate, the unessential "All Day" parker.

(4) As rapidly as off-street parking spaces become available, we should reduce the number of "On-Street" spaces. The Planning Board suggested in 1954 that the reduction be 25 per cent of the off-street spaces made available. This should be the minimum and I should like to see ultimately a complete prohibition of parking on the streets in the heart of our downtown district. New York City, with wider and straighter streets than we, is far ahead of us in this regard. We should not delay in this planning any longer. While it is true we do ban parking on some streets during business hours and at all times on others, these bans are not rigidly, nor universally, enforced, as I am sure you all know. Such enforcement is essential and should be done immediately.

That the public will use the railroads and M.T.A. was clearly proved during the recent blizzards.

The increase was so great on the M.T.A. that if such increase was maintained during the year, its annual deficit of $6,000,000 could be erased. This would be a boon to Boston's taxpayers who bear the large portion of this deficit.

We must force the use of mass transportation and maintain its use by decent service in comfortable equipment.

What I have said with regard to the M.T.A. I believe applies to the railroads' commuter service as well. The advice and assistance of the officers of these roads should be solicited. Indeed, their co-operation is an essential element of any successful solution to our problem.

More Thoughts

There are three more thoughts I should like to leave with you before I conclude.

(1) Truck Terminals.—We should immediately plan for truck terminals at strategic points outside of the outer perimeter of downtown and preferably at the outer edges of our city. We could then prevent the entrance into our congested areas of trailer trucks, which not only tie up traffic, but do great damage to our roadways. We could require the use of smaller trucks for deliveries, and in decreased numbers than are used at present; and, we could effectively limit the sizes to be used. We should require side doors on these trucks so that deliveries could be made while parked parallel to the curb. And, finally, we should give serious consideration to requiring night time deliveries in our congested areas.

(2) An Off-Street Parking Department.—Off-street parking is not a simple thing, nor a passing fancy. It is a full-time job. It is vital to our economic well-being. Since our Board of Real Estate Commissioners have many other important duties to perform, perhaps an authority, or at least a separate department is in order.

(3) New Commercial Construction.—It is possible today to include in certain type buildings, parking facilities. This possibility should be carefully studied and exploited to its fullest.

Boston is also developing off-street parking lots in our residential district shopping areas. This program has problems peculiar to it, but time does not permit a discussion here.

The solution to this problem of traffic and off-street parking is not simple. But, because it is not, is no reason to avoid it. We might do well to adopt the slogan of the Sea Bees of World War II fame "The difficult we do immediately—the impossible takes a little longer."

Nor do I have any illusions that these suggestions of mine form a panacea for this problem. Yet, may I remind you that in the realm of the blind, the one-eyed man is king.

Conclusion

In the final analysis, however, it is the attitude toward the problem that is far more important, than the mechanics by which the solution is to be accomplished. No given plan will satisfy all persons. But, we must plan—and soon—to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest numbers. This planning must be a cooperative venture on the part of all those agencies who are involved—not only in Boston—but within the greater Boston area. In this connection—allow me to read to you what Governor Herter said at a seminar in 1955:

"And, speaking of planning; I could not possibly leave without expressing my own belief in the necessity for a competent, effective, planning agency for the area. In the matter of transportation alone such an agency is essential. Trying to solve the problems of the M.T.A., the commuter services of three railroads, the extent and direction of new arterial highways, the downtown street and off-street parking dilemmas, as if these were not all part of a single object, is the height of folly."

I know it will be difficult to overcome the anti-Boston feeling of our neighbors. We can—and must—show them that it is in their own best interest to cooperate with us now, because it is as clear as crystal that as Boston goes, so go our neighbors, and the Commonwealth as a whole. By working together in this fashion we can restore Boston to her rightful place among the leading cities of America.

While nothing can be done to help Boston except as a joint undertaking, the initiative must come from within Boston itself.

I know we have the talent, the financial resources, and the technical "know-how." I like to think we have the necessary desire and the courage.

TUNNEL RECORD

On Friday, May 25, a new record for vehicles using the Sumner Tunnel in a 24-hour period was established.

On that day, 41,086 vehicles used this highway facility. It is believed that this is the largest number of vehicles that have ever passed through a single-tube, two-lane vehicular tunnel in this country.

PUBLIC ALLEY NO. 104 TO BE DISCONTINUED

The Public Improvement Commission has ordered the discontinuance of Public Alley No. 104, Boston Proper district, as a public highway, from Commercial street to North street, as follows:

The highway named Public Alley No. 104 is hereby discontinued as a public highway, from Commercial street to North street.

Said Public Alley No. 104 as hereby discontinued is bounded:

Easterly by Commercial street, ten and 70-100 feet; northerly by the northerly line of Public Alley No. 104 by two measurements, fifty-four and 35-100 feet and sixty-three and 70-100 feet; westerly by North street, twelve and 67-100 feet; and southerly by the southerly line of Public Alley No. 104, sixty-three and 68-100 feet; easterly by the easterly line of said Public Alley No. 104, two and 67-100 feet; southerly by the southerly line of said Public Alley No. 104, fifty-eight and 19-100 feet.

This action was approved by Mayor Hynes on May 23.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Catering Services

The Mayor, on May 21, approved the award of a contract for catering services in connection with the observance of Bunker Hill Day, based on the following communication from the Director of Public Celebrations:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In conjunction with numerous other activities to take place in this city in public celebration of June 17, Bunker Hill Day, I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Fitzpatrick Brothers, Inc., caterers, 342 Pearl street, Malden, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $2,150, providing for the preparation, furnishing, and delivery on June 18, 1956, of ham sandwiches, hot coffee, brick ice cream, cake and macarooms, together with appropriate paper plates, spoons, cups and napkins, to various organizations and locations and as designated and apportioned in the following:

Hen Club, $250; David Cleary Chapter 109, DAV, $150; Charlestown Chapter 71, DAV, $150; Walter W. Lacey Post, Amvets, $150; Col. Bogan Camp, SWV, $150; Charlestown Post 544, VFW, $150; Army Navy Union-Bunker Hill Garrison (1775), $150; Knights of Columbus, $250; American Legion-Bunker Hill Post, $250; Chief Marshal, William Bowden, $100; Daniel Foley, Committee, $100; William Flynn, Committee, $150; James Kelly, Committee, $150. Total, $2,150.

This contractor has successfully demonstrated on a number of prior occasions that it has the ability, experience, and all the facilities at hand required to properly and satisfactorily carry out such an assignment. In addition, since the prices for the aforespecified commodities are uniform, it is not considered that advantage would be gained by the city as a result of a public advertisement for bids for these services.

As was the case throughout the course of last year's public celebration of June 17, tickets of admission will not be required.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN D. BROWN,
Director of Public Celebrations.

PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS.

Fireworks

The Mayor, on May 23, approved the award of contracts, without advertising, for Fourth of July fireworks displays, based on the following communication from the Director of Public Celebrations:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Authority is hereby requested to award contracts, without public advertisement, in the City Record, for fireworks displays on July 4, 1956, to the following companies:

Providence Fireworks Company, Pearl Fireworks Company, Rockland Fireworks Company, Inc.

These displays will be given at the following locations and at the following contract sums:

Columbus Park, South Boston, and Smith Field, Brighton, at a total cost of $2,500, to the Providence Fireworks Company.

Boston Common, at a total cost of $2,500, to the Pearl Fireworks Company.

Jamaica Pond, and Franklin Field, Dorchester, at a total cost of $2,500, to the Rockland Fireworks Company, Inc.

These companies have established by their performances in the past years that they are able to execute these fireworks displays in a safe manner. They employ trained pyrotechnicians who are under the direct supervision of the managers of these three companies. These companies are covered by insurance for personal and public liability.

Inasmuch as the nature of the skilled service involved and the quality of goods necessary for proper and safe fireworks displays are such as would be extremely difficult, if not impossible to obtain through public bidding, it is felt that no advantage will be gained by publicly advertising for proposals.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN D. BROWN,
Director of Public Celebrations.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Cleaning Catch Basins

Several Districts.

The Mayor, on May 24, approved the award of contracts by the Public Works Department, for the cleaning of catch basins, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of May 9, 1956, publicly advertised proposals were received for cleaning catch basins in City Proper, East Boston, Charlestown, South Boston, and Roxbury, and the lowest proposal was received from the Albany Contracting Company, 440 Albany street, Boston.

The following is a listing of the proposals as received on that date, after publicly advertising in the City Record, issue of April 28, 1956:

Albany Contracting Company, $24,570.
Joseph DeVirgilio, $26,190.

William J. Banfield, $29,610.

James A. Freaney, Inc., $31,050.

Included among the standard provisions of our contract form is one which authorizes the city to expend 25 per cent over and above the total amount of the bid for items of work listed in the proposal and at the unit prices submitted by the contractor in his proposal in respect thereto.

Under the circumstances, the City Auditor sets up an encumbrance based on the contract amount, plus 25 per cent of such amount. An examination of our budgetary allowances discloses that there are insufficient funds to encumber the above contract sum of $24,570, plus 25 per cent. We have, however, an appropriation adequate to encumber the latter amount.

Therefore, I recommend that the publicly advertised bids be rejected, and that a contract be awarded to the lowest bidder at the total contract bid price of $24,570, under the same terms and conditions of the contract document for which publicly advertised proposals were submitted, except that we will delete from the contract document the provision which permits the expenditure of 25 per cent in excess of the estimated contract sum.

I respectfully request therefore your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the Albany Contracting Company, in an amount not to exceed $24,570, covering cleaning catch basins in City Proper, East Boston, Charlestown, South Boston, and Roxbury on the basis of the itemized bid price that was submitted by this contractor on Wednesday, May 9, 1956, as a result of publicly advertising for proposals.

Respectfully yours,

Cleaning Catch Basins

Dorchester

The Mayor, on May 24, approved the award of a contract, by the Public Works Commissioner, for cleaning of catch basins, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of May 9, 1956, publicly advertised proposals were received for cleaning catch basins in Dorchester, and the lowest proposal was received from Joseph DeVirgilio, 25 Brookdale avenue, Dedham.

The following is a listing of the proposals as received on that date, after publicly advertising in the City Record, issue of April 28, 1956:

Joseph DeVirgilio, $19,380.
Albany Contracting Company, $20,520.
William J. Banfield, $28,025.
James A. Freaney, Inc., $30,400.

Included among the standard provisions of our contract form is one which authorizes the city to expend 25 per cent over and above the total amount of the bid for items of work listed in the proposal and at the unit prices submitted by the contractor in his proposal in respect thereto.

Under the circumstances, the City Auditor sets up an encumbrance based on the contract amount, plus 25 per cent of such amount. An examination of our budgetary allowances discloses that there are insufficient funds to encumber the above contract sum of $19,380, plus 25 per cent. We have, however, an appropriation adequate to encumber the latter amount.

Therefore, I recommend that the publicly advertised bids be rejected, and that a contract be awarded to the lowest bidder at the total contract bid price of $19,380, under the same terms and conditions of the contract document for which publicly advertised proposals were submitted, except that we will delete from the contract document the provision which permits the expenditure of 25 per cent in excess of the estimated contract sum.

I respectfully request therefore your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Joseph De-

Virgilio in an amount not to exceed $19,380, covering cleaning catch basins in Dorchester, on the basis of the itemized bid price that was submitted by this contractor on Wednesday, May 9, 1956, as a result of publicly advertising for proposals.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ing communication from the Public Works Commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of May 10, 1956, publicly advertised proposals were received for emergency repairs to sewers, and the lowest proposal was received from James A. Freaney, Inc., 1 West street, Hyde Park.

The following is a listing of the proposals as received on that date, after publicly advertising in the City Record, issue of April 28, 1956.

James A. Freaney, Inc., $16,128.50; A. Vozzella & Son, $16,925; R. A. Buccella & Sons, Inc., $20,025; Roslindale Contracting Company, $23,025; J. F. Stack & Company, $25,671; C. Russo, Inc., $39,300.

Included among the standard provisions of our contract form is one which authorizes the city to expend 25 per cent over and above the total amount of the bid for items of work listed in the proposal and at the unit prices submitted by the contractor in his proposal in respect thereto.

Under the circumstances, the City Auditor sets up an encumbrance based on the contract amount, plus 25 per cent of such amount. An examination of our budgetary allowances discloses that there are insufficient funds to encumber the above contract sum of $16,128.50, plus 25 per cent. We have, however, an appropriation adequate to encumber the latter amount.

Therefore, I recommend that the publicly advertised bids be rejected, and that a contract be awarded to the lowest bidder, at the total contract bid price of $16,128.50, under the same terms and conditions of the contract document for which publicly advertised proposals were submitted, except that we will delete from the contract document the provision which permits the expenditure of 25 per cent in excess of the estimated contract sum.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to James A. Freaney, Inc., in an amount not to exceed $16,128.50, covering emergency repairs to sewers throughout the city and on the basis of the itemized bid prices that were submitted by this contractor on Thursday, May 10, as the result of publicly advertising for proposals.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

On May 23, the Mayor approved the following:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request from your Honor written authority to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to enter into a separate contract with Field Station-

ART DIRECTOR FOR SCHOOLS REPORTS ON EASTERN ARTS ASSO. CONVENTION IN N. Y.

Following is the Art Director's report on attendance at Eastern Arts Association Convention, New York City, March 11 to 14, 1956:

"You the Teacher" was the theme of the Eastern Arts Association's forty-second convention in New York City, March 11 to 14, 1956. In the theme address, Mary A. McKibbin, past president of the Eastern Arts Association, made the point that the success of any art program depended upon the teachers being alert and adventurous in tackling art problems and possessing a deep and sincere interest in the children themselves.

Dorothy Gordon, moderator of the New York Times Youth Forum, at the second general session, spoke on "Education and Television." We had previously watched her telecast of the New York Times Youth Forum discussing art.

Dr. Lauretta Bender of Bellevue Hospital, talking on "The Teacher and Mental Health," spoke of the use of the child's art expression in the therapy program at Bellevue and urged the teacher in the art classes to teach skills, to encourage the child in the expression of his own ideas, and to encourage the exchange of ideas. She warned against the layman's attempting to interpret the symbolism of children's art.

The final two speakers looked ahead to the expanding boundaries of the art field. Gyorgy Kepes, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in his address "Art Education in the Age of Science" pointed out that art and nature are still related, but that now through modern scientific developments the "new landscape" includes many features which previously were too large, too small, too fast, or too slow to be seen. He substantiated his claims with a set of slides of microphotographs, X-rays, aerial and stop-motion photographs, etc., which showed remarkable design patterns and bore a striking resemblance to the work of those modern artists whose aim is a dynamic rather than an aesthetic form of expression.

Looking still further ahead, Marshall McLuhan, chairman of the Ford Seminar in Culture and Communication, in the final address showed that since telegraphy gave instantaneity of expression to the newspaper, artists likewise have been attempting to paint landscapes which include more than one space impression at a time. Using the comparison of today's newspaper as a "global snapshot" and the effect that it is having on our "book culture," he predicts that art educators must look for more effective relations in our means of communication.

During the workshop periods I was particularly interested in the sessions on In-service Workshops for the classroom teachers and on the Subject Area, i.e., problems of curriculum and subject matter, evaluation, etc. Although some of the school situations described and discussed were too different from our own to have any practical value, there were worth-while points to be had from both discussions.

I served on the Exhibits Committee of the convention and during the week also met with other members of the National Art Education Association's Informational Service Committee, on which I serve.

I was able to photograph and bring back colored slides of one of the professional ceramists at work in her studio (for use in our art appreciation classes) and also slides of demonstrations and student exhibits for use in our in-service workshops for teachers.

The convention was a stimulating and refreshing experience, and I appreciate the opportunity to attend.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH H. GILLIGAN,
Director of Fine Arts.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL MEETING AT DENVER, COLO., REPORTED BY GERALD F. O'DONNELL*

Following is the report of the annual meeting of the Department of Elementary School Principals, held in Denver, Colorado, March 7 to 10, 1956, submitted by Gerald F. O'Donnell, President, Elementary Principals' Association of Boston:

Thirty-five panels and discussion groups under eight major headings were built around the conference theme, "The Principal's Role in Instructional Leadership." They included:

- (1) Deciding what to teach.
- (2) Evaluating the instructional program.
- (3) Working with individual teachers.
- (4) Group planning for instructional leadership.
- (5) Keeping up with materials of instruction.
- (6) Using specialist resources.
- (7) Administrative phases of instructional leadership.
- (8) Preparation for instructional leadership.

Five assemblies covered the subject matter areas of arithmetic, language arts, reading, science, and social studies.

At the first general session, which took place at 3 p.m., March 7, 1956, Dean Laurence Haskew, of the University of Texas, addressed the gathering of elementary school principals who had traveled to Denver from almost every state, the District of Columbia, and the Philippine Islands.

He advised the 2,000 principals to limit their duties to those things they can do best. Much as a principal would like to be perfect in every respect, he has to compromise by being adequate in a few areas, excellent in one or two, and simply regretful about the others.

The attention given to the instructional role is influenced by the attention he must give, or chooses to give, to other roles. He has a role in community relations, another in parent cultivation, another in pupil guidance and control, and in numerous other areas.

The principal is the pivotal figure in improving the instructional program. He may initiate ideas himself, but he should be equally receptive to ideas which teachers propose. Such ideas, regardless of their origin, need to be examined objectively by the staff. Once they are accepted, they can result in improved instructional programs that emphasize the importance of meeting children's needs in this fast-moving, ever-changing world where new means of communication affect children's attitudes and behavior to a greater degree than most other factors in their environment.

The assemblies dealing with the subject matter areas were so arranged that it was possible for each principal to attend two of the meetings. Glen O. Blough, Associate Professor of Education, University of Maryland, addressed the educators on "Basic Essentials of the Elementary School Science Program." At another assembly, John U. Michaelis, Professor of Education, University of California, presented the "Basic Essentials of the Social Studies Program."

Three special conferences were held by presidents of Elementary School Principals' Associations in large cities. These meetings were attended by about thirty principals who were representing cities of 400,000 population and over. Problems that are common to large cities were discussed and information exchanged.

It was particularly encouraging to observe that Boston had demonstrated sound leadership in most of the areas suggested for discussion. Principals from other cities were very interested in our organization for curriculum planning, and in the newly-organized youth service council. Through this exchange of information and ideas each principal accumulated additional experience which would further enrich the various programs in their own school system.

REGIONAL CONFERENCE ON TRAFFIC SAFETY REPORTED BY DR. FREDK. J. GILLIS*

Following is the report of Dr. Frederick J. Gillis, Assistant Superintendent, on attendance at the Eastern Regional Conference of the President's Committee for Traffic Safety, held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, May 1 and 2, 1956:

The President's Committee for Traffic Safety held its Eastern Regional Conference in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on May 1 and 2, 1956.

The conference objective was to attract, stimulate, inform, and assist those persons who can most effectively create, finance, and conduct state and local citizens' traffic safety organizations.

The problem, succinctly stated, is that more than 1,000,000 Americans have been killed in traffic accidents.

In 1955, 38,300 were killed; 1,350,000 were injured. Economic loss amounted to more than $4,000,000,000.

The cost of traffic congestion is even greater than the money cost of accidents.

It is estimated that by 1966 there will be approximately 82,000,000 motor vehicles registered in the United States, and 90,000,000 drivers will cover 825,000,000,000 miles a year. This would be an increase of 34 per cent in vehicles, 25 per cent in drivers, and 47 per cent in mileage over 1955. If the present rate of 6.4 deaths per 100,000,000 miles of travel continues, 53,000 will die in traffic accidents in 1966.

Accidents and congestion are both symptoms of deficiency in the highway transportation system. The rapid increase in number and use of motor vehicles has far outstripped the construction of needed traffic facilities and the development of adequate legal and social controls.

The present highway traffic situation presents a major security problem for the nation.

Unless the motor vehicle can carry a steadily increasing load of people and goods safely and economically in our expanding national economy, a limitation is imposed on the growth of the economy itself.

If we could apply what is now known to be needed in the states and communities of the nation, traffic accidents could be cut in half.

Nearly everyone is affected by the traffic problem, and nearly everyone has an opinion on how to solve it. In actuality, there is no single, simple solution to the traffic problem. Those states and communities with consistently good traffic records have found that the key to success is a well-rounded program emphasizing all phases of traffic-accident prevention the year round. This well-rounded program of proved techniques has been developed over the last thirty years. It is spelled out in the Action Program.

In summary, the Action Program is the recommendations of more than 600 members of eight technical committees in the fields of:

Accident Records.
Education.
Enforcement.
Engineering.
Laws and Ordinances.
Motor Vehicle Administration.
Organized Public Support.
Public Information.

In full, the Action Program consists of eight basic reports totaling more than 270 pages in the original editions. It was first compiled in 1946 and was revised in 1949. It has been endorsed by the President's Committee for Traffic Safety and all major safety organizations, and it has been approved repeatedly by official delegates of the 48 states.

Organized citizen action is needed in every state and community to generate informed public opinion in support of constructive official action.

Public officials have primary responsibility for engineering, enforcement, and education — the three E's of traffic safety. Yet public officials alone cannot solve the traffic-safety problem, and they are the first to admit it. They must have the support and cooperation of the citizens of the state and community if they are to administer an effective program. However competent public officials may be, and however enlightened their proposals, their programs will fail if they go beyond what the public is ready to accept. In a democracy, no program can succeed without the understanding, assent, and positive support of the general public who must pay the bills and obey the regulations.

To date, too few of us have been willing to give active support to the steps necessary to put the Action Program into full effect in every state and community. Until we demonstrate that we will support an adequate traffic safety program, traffic will continue to be a community, state, and national problem.

The general operating policies recommended for community and state safety organizations are as follows:

The organization shall operate as a nonprofit, nonpolitical association devoted exclusively to accident prevention and relief of traffic congestion.

The organization shall operate in the general public interest, serving the community as a whole. It shall serve no special interests.

The organization shall work closely and cooperatively with official agencies having legal responsibility for safety. It shall avoid public criticism of public officials. It shall rather advance positive, constructive plans for improving safety conditions and shall actively work for their application.

The organization shall encourage and help all responsible local agencies, organizations, groups, and individuals to engage in accident-prevention activities within their spheres of influence.

The organization shall not endorse any commercial product or enterprise.

The organization's program shall be based upon competent analysis of the accident problem in the area served, with major attention given to major needs.

The organization shall have a written statement of its objectives and operating policies.

The organization shall make a formal appraisal of its operation, in terms of objectives and program goals, at least annually.

The Action Program frequently cited during the conference was first published in 1946. There is no royal road to highway safety. Only through a balanced program supported by the public can we produce the desired result. Any gap in our program for a united front against the accident enemy is a potential setback. There must be a complete understanding of the problem, the need, the program, and the specific application of that program. Each segment of it must be applied vigorously and continuously by every community and every state.

The principal elements of a balanced program embrace the positive and practical measures that experience has shown are necessary to curtail street and highway accidents. First assembled in 1946 by committees on Laws and Ordinances, Accident Records, Education, Enforcement, Engineering, Motor Vehicle Administration, Public Information, and Organized Public Support, and brought up to date by these committees in 1949, these measures constitute a basic guide for highway safety. Together with the detailed activities included in the individual reports of the committees, they constitute the Action Program for highway safety recommended by this conference.

The Action Program regarding education recommends that American schools at all levels conduct traffic-safety programs which will give adequate guidance in accident prevention to more than 30,000,000 young people and which will prepare them to shoulder their future responsibilities in a motor age. Education for safety is an essential part of the modern school's program for producing good citizens. Specific recommendations to this end for elementary and secondary schools are:

Elementary Schools:

(a) State departments of education and local school systems should prepare or revise courses of study or guides in safety for elementary schools to include sufficient stress on traffic problems and should provide day-by-day instruction based on immediate needs and local situations.

(b) Group activities emphasizing traffic safety should be encouraged.

(c) The school administration should assume the responsibility for establishing a safe environment; and school, home, and community programs should be coordinated.

(d) School safety patrols should be established where traffic surveys indicate a need.

Secondary Education:

(a) School administrators should as far as practicable provide driver education and training as an integral part of the curriculum when students are near driving age; and, whenever possible, should offer similar courses during the summer and at night sessions, and for adults in the community.

(b) They should determine the adequacy of instruction programs and practices in relation to safety, correlate them with present courses, and plan for the utilization of cocurricular activities and student organizations.

Experts with national outlook spoke at the general sessions.

Group sessions were held for representatives from large and small metropolitan, county, and rural areas.

Action workshops were held on uniform traffic laws, accident records, engineering, enforcement, and education for safety.

Individual sessions to effectuate the conference objective in each state and plan for the coordination and mobilization of active public support, essential for the success of the program on a nationwide basis, completed the program.

MARY W. CAULEY REPORTS ON SCHOOL HOME ECONOMICS SESSION IN NEW YORK CITY

Following is the report of Mary W. Cauley, Director of Home Economics, School Department, on attendance at the North Atlantic Home Economics Education Regional Conference, New York City, New York, March 5-9, 1956:

In this report, I wish to state that I attended all the sessions scheduled in the program of the North Atlantic Home Economics Education Regional Conference held at the Barbizon-Plaza Hotel, New York City, March 5-9, 1956. The theme of this conference was "The Place of Homemaking Education in the Total Program of Education for Home and Family Living." This conference was sponsored by the Home Economics Branch of the Division of Vocational Education of the United States Office of Education.

The conference was attended by one hundred and thirty-five educators from the North Atlantic Region, holding key positions in home economics either as state or city supervisors or college professors in this field. It was most stimulating to have an opportunity to consult with the directors from New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburg, and other large cities, as well as those from local areas such as Newton, Brookline, Haverhill, and Holyoke. It also was very revealing to have reports from those who had done research in the field of home economics education at the college level.

The Goals of the Conference Were As Follows:

1. To consider significant new developments and current problems and their implications for program planning in home economics education.
2. To assist conference members to clarify goals of home economics education as they contribute to education for home and family living.
3. To stimulate creative thinking about current and persistent problems in achieving the goal of education for home and family living.

Group Meetings

One of the most helpful features of the program was the small group meetings of conference participants having similar interests. At these group meetings, the city supervisors exchanged ideas in regard to the procedures for formulating new courses of study, the selection of home economics equipment, the implementation of homemaking in the total school program, and the interpretation of home economics to school administrators and to parents. In the hope that it might prove to be of value to those attending these meetings, it was agreed among the supervisors to exchange selected printed or mimeographed educational materials formulated under their direction for use in their own home economics departments. Already, I have received several worth-while suggestions from this exchange.

The Changing Patterns of American Home Life

In considering new developments in home economics education, it was brought out in a panel discussion that there was need for a new emphasis in this field, due to the changing pattern of American home life. With 60 per cent of all the American women working for salaries earned outside the home, the dowry of today's bride is no longer considered in terms of the household linens for the new home. It is the earning capacity by which she will help finance the newly-established family that will be her contribution as her dowry.

The tendency of wives to work outside the home has resulted in the husband, as well as the children, assuming more household responsibilities than ever before, such as marketing, meal planning, food preparation, and table service. Therefore, in home economics classes, emphasis should be placed on work simplification in order that these tasks may be accomplished pleasantly, efficiently, and may not be too time-consuming.

Earlier Marriage

It was further emphasized in these discussions that, in home economics education, it was essential to recognize the present trend towards earlier marriage. In consequence, the social problems of high school pupils today appear to be more serious and complex in regard to "dating" and "going steady" than formerly. In present-day school life, the establishment of correct standards of social behavior becomes the province of parents, of teachers of home economics, as well as of all other faculty members and, last but not least, of the students themselves.

The school must help parents and youth with present-day social problems. Teenagers are open to suggestions, and most of these young people want to follow correct standards of behavior. Teenage is not synonymous with juvenile delinquency. Teachers and parents must recognize that most high school pupils have quite a different point of view from that of adults. Wendell Wilkie once said, "If you are not a radical at 18, examine your heart. If you are a radical at 30, examine your head." While teachers of homemaking are in a strategic position for giving instruction in family life, they should be quick to recognize that ideas and ideals of home living are established by every teacher of every subject from kindergarten throughout the grades.

Increase in the Population of Older People

Another important factor that is changing the pattern of American family life is the ever-increasing number of aging people. In the past in every culture, honor has been extended to the elderly in the home. In the small American home of today, the care of older people, with this longer span of life, presents a serious social problem.

At the present time, older people through Social Security, pensions, etc., have been able to maintain a certain financial independence. As a result, either by choice or necessity, most elderly people are living alone or in nursing homes. In home economics education, attention should be focused on the seriousness of the problem of the aged. Young people should be made to realize that they have an obligation to supply love and companionship to older people of their family, whether or not these older members remain within the home circle. On the other hand, the young people should be trained for their own extended old age and should be encouraged to develop qualities that make for a fuller enjoyment of their expected years of retirement.

Education Needs to Stress Spiritual Values

Life education, as a whole cycle, needs new building blocks and home economics should broaden in order to contribute more fully in that area. While the family life program is the concern of teachers of all subjects, the home economics teacher has a special contribution in making good citizens with healthy, human relationships. Home and family life education should present joyous goals. In so doing, the whole program of home economics will be enriched.

Home economics has a unique contribution, as the activities make real life opportunities which stimulate pupils, build up confidence, and develop managerial abilities. Desirable attitudes need stressing. Pupils should be given a chance to develop appreciation of the social skills as well as the mechanics of homemaking.

When a pupil gains confidence through success in the technical side of a subject, she feels her own growth in achievement. This is a big factor in building assurance, which can greatly influence her emotional nature. However, one must first conquer one's self and next one's environment if there is to be a firm basis for future hope.

Our pupils are living in the atomic age, when a single bomb can kill a hundred thousand people with one blast. These are arresting thoughts. As educators we should try to build a barrier of defense against such situations. Our goals should be spiritual. The home, the church, the school, and the nation must assemble forces in the present struggle for peace and tranquillity.

Dusk will come down upon our country if our pupils are unprepared to face and solve these problems. Our young people must stand to control not alone the physical realm with all its efficient technologies, but they must also have the moral and spiritual stature to withstand modern foes. Therefore, they must be trained in the love of God, as well as love of family, neighbor, and country, in order that our people will not feel lost in the years to come.

MARY W. CAULEY,
Director, Department of Home Economics.

The Reverend George C. Huntress, of St. Columbkille's Roman Catholic Church, Brighton, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. GEORGE C. HUNTRESS.

Almighty and Eternal Father, we pray Thee this day to bless this assembly and to guide their deliberations, that they may discharge their duties with esteem, honesty, and ability. Let them be governed in their proceedings by prudence and justice, by courage and temperance, but, above all else, by a love for their fellow man, based on their love for Thee.

We pray Thee, God of might and wisdom through Whom all authority is rightly administered, to assist with Thy holy spirit of counsel and fortitude, the proceedings of this Council. Let the light of Thy wisdom shine forth in all their enactments, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge.

Direct, O Lord, the actions of these men by Thy holy inspiration, and carry them on by Thy gracious assistance, so that each of their works may begin always with Thee, and by Thee be happily ended.

May the blessing of Almighty God descend upon this Council and remain forever. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

ORDINANCE RE LITTER ON STREETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 21, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

The present city ordinances concerning the littering of streets are not comprehensive enough to be effective. A new ordinance, refining the present ordinance, has been prepared by the Commissioner of Public Works, upon advice of the Law Department. This ordinance I submit herewith.

It is essential that indiscriminate littering of streets and public alleys should be controlled or stopped entirely. This ordinance seeks to establish that control.

I recommend its passage.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 21, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I enclose a proposed ordinance to replace the existing section 39 of chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947.

This proposed new ordinance should be effective in reducing the amount of litter on the streets and alleys of the city, if its provisions are enforced.

It is far more comprehensive and inclusive than the existing section 39, and I recommend, therefore, that it be submitted to the City Council for approval by that Body.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

City of Boston.
In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six.
An Ordinance Providing Further Against the Littering of Streets.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947 is hereby amended by striking out section 39 and inserting in place thereof the following six sections:

Section 39. No person in any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works shall, whether in or upon a vehicle or on foot, deposit, drop or throw upon such way, alley or place or any roadway or walk thereof, and suffer to remain there, any filth, rubbish or other substance unless it is deposited, dropped or thrown into a receptacle provided for the purpose by the public works department.

Section 39A. No driver of any vehicle upon any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works shall permit to drop or fall from such vehicle onto such way, alley or place or any roadway or walk thereof, and suffer to remain there, any substance except in the maintenance or repair of such way, alley or place.

Section 39B. No person shall sweep, throw or otherwise remove into any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works, or into any roadway or walk of any of them, from any building or structure or from any land not constituting a part of such way, alley or place, any filth, rubbish or other substance and suffer the same to remain there; provided, that filth, rubbish or other substance which by law or by arrangement is to be collected and removed by the public works department (whether through employees in its service or through an independent contractor acting for it) or by a person having a permit under section fourteen of this chapter or section 31A of chapter 111 of the General Laws, may, after five o'clock in the afternoon of the day preceding the scheduled time of such collection, be placed by the owner or occupant of an estate upon the sidewalk of any such way or alley abutting such estate in a covered metal receptacle or, if no garbage or putrescible matter or substance is included, in a securely tied bundle or in a receptacle with its contents so arranged that any light matter or substance is not likely to be scattered or blown about. No person placing a receptacle upon the sidewalk of any way or alley as aforesaid shall suffer the same to remain upon such way or alley or any roadway or walk thereof more than twelve hours after such collection.

Section 39C. No person shall in any public way, public alley or other public place under the charge of the commissioner of public works or upon any roadway or walk thereof rummage in or through rubbish or refuse of any kind or interfere with any bundle of rubbish or refuse or any receptacle containing rubbish or refuse.

Section 39D. No person shall deposit, drop or throw any filth, rubbish or other substance into a drum or other barrel with a diameter of more than twenty inches or a height of more than twenty-eight inches if by law or by arrangement such filth, rubbish or other substance is to be collected therefrom by the public works department (whether through employees in its service or through an independent contractor acting for it) or by a person having a permit under section fourteen of this chapter or section 31A of chapter 111 of the General Laws.

Section 39E. No person shall deposit, drop or throw into a drum or other barrel with a diameter of twenty inches or less and a height of twenty-eight inches or less any filth, rubbish or other substance which by law or by arrangement is to be collected therefrom by the public works department (whether through employees in its service or through an independent contractor acting for it) or by a person having a permit under section fourteen of this chapter or section 31A of chapter 111 of the General Laws if such drum or barrel will thereby be filled so high that such filth, rubbish or other substance or any part thereof is likely to drop or fall from such receptacle while it is being moved in the process of such collection.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

SUPPLEMENTARY APPROPRIATIONS OF $754,301.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 21, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I submit herewith supplementary budget recommendations for City and County Departments totaling $754,301. In the main, the appropriations recommended are to provide for departmental needs which have developed since the submission of the '56 budget estimates.

Supplementary budget estimates submitted by City and County Departments totaled $898,732. Against these requests, appropriations totaling $754,301 are herewith recommended.

The following brief comments are offered in explanation. Department officials will be available to present detailed information in support of the appropriations herewith submitted:

RECONSTRUCTION OF PARKWAYS AND ROADWAYS.....$230,000

Although legislation is now pending to turn over to the Metropolitan District Commission certain park roadways, I feel it is necessary to re-submit this appropriation.

MASTERS AND AUDITORS.....$100,000

The Chief Justice of the Superior Court has notified me that at a recent meeting of the justices it was voted to re-establish the practice of referring motor vehicle tort cases to auditors in an effort to diminish the backlog of cases pending on the docket in this county.

REBUILDING WALL AT DEER ISLAND.....$60,000

The Building Commissioner has notified the Penal Institutions Commissioner that the east wall of the new prison is in an unsafe and dangerous condition, is becoming progressively worse as time goes on, and it is not unlikely that a collapse will occur.

GARBAGE AND REFUSE CONTRACTS.....$39,573

The original estimate submitted to cover costs of contracts for the collection and disposal of garbage and refuse was found to be insufficient when bids were opened in March of this year.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT, PERSONAL SERVICES.....$35,000

The original request of the Library Department for Personal Services was reduced $86,000 by the Administrative Services Department. A further study of library requirements for the balance of the year indicates the necessity for an additional appropriation of $35,000.

MAINTAINING OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.....$32,000

This appropriation is necessary to properly maintain the suburban off-street parking areas now in operation and the ten additional areas to be opened during the current year.

CONVENTIONS AND ENTERTAINMENT OF DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.....$25,000

A legislative act recently passed increased by $25,000, the amount which the city is authorized to appropriate for the above purpose. Based on the experience of the first four months, I feel this additional appropriation is warranted.

REPAIRS TO VARIOUS BUILDINGS.....$23,125

The Assistant Commissioner of Real Property has informed me that many necessary repairs for the upkeep of our municipal public buildings have arisen since the submission of his original budget.

SPOTLIGHTS.....$22,634

The upkeep of existing spotlights has been transferred from the jurisdiction of the Boston Traffic Commission to the Public Works Department. Since no appropriation was made in the Boston Traffic Commission budget, it is necessary to submit this supplementary request.

RENTAL OF BOOKMOBILE.....$16,000

It will be necessary to rent one bookmobile pending delivery of the new bookmobile to be purchased through the Departmental Equipment Loan.

ARTS FESTIVAL.....$15,000

The Boston Arts Festival Committee has requested an additional appropriation of $15,000 to broaden the scope of activities of the annual arts festival. Because of the pleasure afforded many thousands of people, I feel this additional appropriation is warranted.

CLEANING OF VACANT LOTS.....$12,000

At the present time the city holds, through tax titles, over 3,000 vacant lots. Since the formation of the neighborhood rehabilitation councils the number of complaints of the condition of city-owned lots has increased considerably. We must not allow city-owned lots to be unsightly and unsanitary.

UNSAFE BUILDINGS.....$10,000

Based on experience of the first four months, the Building Commissioner has informed me that an additional appropriation for the removal of unsafe buildings will be necessary.

REHABILITATION OF FRANKLIN PARK ZOO.....$10,000

A recent communication from the Parks and Recreation Commissioner indicates that many of our cages at the Franklin Park Zoo are empty. This appropriation will provide for the purchase of additional animals and the installation of a new boiler in the bird house.

JAIL — OVERTIME.....$10,000

The commitment of six men on January 12, 1956, charged with being members of the group which robbed the Brink Company of over $1,000,000 in 1950, made it necessary to supplement the regular forces by having officers work on days and nights off and day men work extra on Sundays and on night duty.

It is believed that all six men, plus those lately apprehended, will be confined at Suffolk County Jail before and during the trial in Suffolk County Superior Court, and additional security measures will have to be maintained.

BUILDING SUPPLIES, HOUSE OF CORRECTION.....$10,000

The severe winter storms caused a great deal of damage to the House of Correction. The purchase of these supplies will make it possible for the major portion of this work to be performed by inmate labor.

I respectfully recommend adoption of the appropriation orders herewith submitted in connection with the supplementary budget recommendations.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

APPROPRIATION FROM PARKMAN FUND INCOME.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 21, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen

I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, requesting the appropriation of $75,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

The 1956 budget estimates for the personal service requirements of the Park Department included an estimate of the total yearly income from the George F. Parkman Fund. The budget allowances made provision for the appropriation of this income as it accrued for the purpose of defraying the cost of work actually performed on the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an order appropriating the sum of $75,000, the accrued income now available from the Parkman Fund, and respectfully recommend its immediate passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Parks and Recreation Department,
May 16, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

You are respectfully requested to ask the City Council to transfer from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $75,000 which is now available, to be expended under the direction of the Parks and Recreation Commission, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of.....$75,000

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1956, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from Item 100, Permanent Employees, with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1956, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Parks and Recreation Department.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK R. KELLEY, Commissioner.

Ordered, That the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) be, and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of.....$75,000

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

REPORT OF JOS. A. TRONGONE ON CONFERENCE OF MUSIC EDUCATORS AT PITTSFIELD*

Following is the report on the attendance of Joseph A. Trongone at the Massachusetts Music Educators Conference which was held in Pittsfield, April 5 through April 7:

Most of the first day was spent in registering and greeting fellow educators from all parts of the state. In the evening we enjoyed the Host Night program which began with greetings and words of welcome by the Hon. Harvey E. Lake, Mayor of Pittsfield, and Dr. Edward J. Russell, Superintendent of Schools and General Chairman of the Conference. The program was divided into three sections—elementary, junior high, and high schools. The elementary schools were represented by a grade IV flutophone group, a grade V square dance group, and a grade VI chorus. The entire elementary school exhibition lacked purpose and coordination. The compositions performed were artistic and interesting, but the methods used were not progressive. The junior high school program displayed more finesse and self-expression of the arts by the young performers, but left much to be desired as to constructive and creative music education. The high school mixed chorus, orchestra, and band carried off the honors for Pittsfield. Their choice of music and general appearance did credit to their very able teachers.

On Friday morning, April 6, we heard the West Springfield High School band, Donald C. Abbe, director. This is a fifty-piece organization which meets twice a week in school time. It is a well-trained and good-sounding band. Later, we listened to the Madrigal Singers, high school girls and boys from Classical High School, Springfield. Mr. Warren Amerman, their director, led them through a most interesting and inspiring program. This group, numbering about twenty, sang "a cappella" and displayed a fine sense of pitch, tone quality, and vocal technique. In the afternoon, Dr. Frances M. Andrews, Professor of Music Education, Pennsylvania State College, conducted a "Junior High School Methods and Techniques Workshop." Using a group of eighth grade students from Pittsfield junior high schools, Dr. Andrews convincingly demonstrated some of the latest methods in the field of progressive music education.

In my opinion, the high light of the conference took place at the banquet, Friday evening, in the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood ballroom. A group of two hundred and fifty mixed voices from Nott Terrace High School, Schenectady, New York, rendered a program of very fine vocal music which was both interesting and inspiring. We were all given a program and an explanation of the schedule procedure of this wonderful choir, which rehearses three periods a week and proves what can be done when a sufficient time allotment is allowed for music education.

Saturday morning, Miss Marguerite V. Hood, Professor of Music Education, University of Michigan, conducted a workshop which was appropriately called "The Fivefold Program of Music Education at Work." Miss Hood, competently and forcefully demonstrated with children from the Pittsfield elementary schools the value of

1. music education during the present social-cultural changes in our everyday life;
2. music education in the lives of our girls and boys;
3. the superior and progressive methods and teaching techniques being used throughout the country;
4. mutual understanding of peoples of other countries through music education;
5. the continued growth of music education toward the end result—the intelligent, well-informed, and cultured citizen.

The final program of the conference took place on Saturday afternoon in the Pittsfield High School auditorium where the All-State orchestra, All-State band, and All-State chorus gave splendid performances. The members of these groups were carefully selected from all parts of the state and after three days of diligent rehearsing under nationally known leaders they gave this concert for the benefit of the visiting delegates. This year two boys from the Boston public schools were chosen, as a result of auditions, to play in the All-State orchestra. One of the boys, Michael L. Neiland, violinist, from Boston Latin School, was selected to be concertmaster, and the other boy, Alfred Puopolo, clarinetist, from English High School, was assigned to the solo clarinet position.

In summation, the entire conference was a complete success and I am most grateful to Superintendent Dennis C. Haley and the Boston School Committee for giving me the privilege of attending this worth-while activity.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH A. TRONGONE,
Associate Director of Music.

PORT TONNAGE UP

The highest foreign trade movement by vessel at the Port of Boston over the past ten years was recorded for 1955 with a total volume of 5,010,000 long tons. That tonnage of export and import commercial shipments (excluding transshipments and defense cargoes) was a gain of 774,100 tons or 18.3 per cent more than that of 1954. Dry cargo ship tonnage amounted to 1,909,300 tons, an advance of 441,100 tons or 30 per cent. Total tanker tonnage movement was 3,100,700 tons which was an increase of 333,000 tons, or 12 per cent, as reported by the United States Department of Commerce. Just the handling of almost 2,000,000 tons of dry cargo (441,000 tons more than in 1954) provided important and essential work and wages for many of our citizens.

BANK DEBITS UP 3.6 PER CENT

Bank checks paid in eleven leading Massachusetts centers during March totaled 3.6 per cent more than a year ago, as reported by the Federal Reserve Bank. Pittsfield showed the greatest gain, 14.3 per cent. Lowell was up 7.7 per cent, Worcester, 5.7 per cent, Holyoke, 5.6 per cent, Lynn, 5 per cent, Boston, 4 per cent, and Brockton, 2.5 per cent. The Lawrence-Andover-Methuen area in March broke even with a year ago in amount of checks paid. New Bedford dropped 1.7 per cent, Springfield, 3.6 per cent, and Fall River, 5 per cent.

MILITARY PRODUCTION

Prime military contracts awarded in Massachusetts from July, 1950, through December, 1955, amounted to $3,315,922,000 or 2.6 per cent of the total awarded in the United States. FORECLOSURES IN U. S.

For the third consecutive year, the level of nonfarm foreclosure activity in the United States has advanced gradually upward. Estimated nonfarm real estate foreclosures for the year 1955 totaled 28,529, or 9 per cent above 1954 and more than double the 1946 and 1947 lows.

Even considering recent rises, the number of distress actions have been very low throughout the past thirteen years. At the current rate of foreclosures, there would be less than three foreclosures per year for each 1,000 nonfarm properties which are mortgaged.

BOSTON ARTS FESTIVAL PREPARES TO PLAY HOST TO THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION PEOPLE

Between one-half and three-quarters of a million people, estimated, will converge on the Public Garden over a period of 16 days and 16 nights as guests of Boston's fifth annual arts festival which opens Saturday evening, June 9, with a brief formal ceremony presided over by Mayor John B. Hynes.

This arts pageant is conducted as a nonprofit, educational activity dedicated to the development of the cultural resources of Boston and New England. Its funds are provided, in part, by the City of Boston, but more largely by the grants of persons and corporations interested in its objectives. The festival is governed by its Board of Trustees who are assisted in matters of planning and programming by several committees.

From every corner of New England arts-minded visitors will come into Boston to mingle with the hundreds of thousands of Greater Bostonians and thousands of out-of-state residents who will be in this part of the country at the height of the school and college commencement season—all to enjoy a free pageant of the fine and lively arts. The festival's unsullied motto, as it enters its fifth year, is: "Quality Without a Price Tag." Excursions from Canada and groups from a dozen states will be numbered among the visitors.

The audiences will find that the best of New England fine arts have been assembled for them in rows of gaily-striped tents. Also, an exciting series of evening programs will be performed on the festival stage, including ballet, drama, poetry, opera, dance, and jazz.

Main feature of the art events is the New England competition. Conservative or modern, over 2,500 New England artists are preparing their painting, sculpture, and graphic art for submission to a nationally recognized jury who will select some 280 works for exhibition. Twenty prizes totaling $2,300. will be awarded by both the jury and by public ballot in the Public Garden. Another object of great public interest will be the New England craft demonstrations and exhibitions.

The big musical attraction of 1956 is Gian Carlo Menotti's contemporary opera, "The Saint of Bleecker Street." Four performances will be given on the huge festival stage by members of the original Broadway cast. A jazz concert has been scheduled and will feature Herb Pomeroy and the Japanese pianist, Toshiko Akiyoshi.

Dance evenings will be highlighted by the arrival of Maria Tallchief, Andre Eglevsky, and members of the New York City Ballet. On another evening, folk dancers in native costumes of seven countries will perform. A Scottish Highland band will pipe the grand finale of the evening. This will be an invitation to the public to join the performers in a series of simple steps "dancing on the green."

The 1956 festival poet is Archibald MacLeish. The Pulitzer Prize winning writer will read a new poem written "On the Occasion of the Festival."

A small task force of carpenters, riggers, engineers, painters, electricians, and telephone men—to say nothing of the Park Department's gardeners and mowers—have been working at full speed for the last 10 days in the Public Garden.

The most dramatic structure is the new lakeside stage. A specially designed, demountable structure, it will provide improved visibility and audibility for a capacity audience of 15,000, with seats for 6,000. All materials for the structure were donated. The only cost to the festival was the labor.

This year the tents straddle the blacktop paths in the Public Garden to avoid excessive wear and tear on the grass. Tents containing the work of New England artists are distinguished by a painted backdrop of blue; those housing the Invitational Exhibit of watercolors will have a green backdrop.

On Monday, June 25, the task force of workmen will report for duty again. Within a week they will have struck the tents and the structures, and return the Public Garden to the flowerbeds, the swanboats, and the casual passer-by.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NEW HOSPITAL BILLING FOR WELFARE PATIENTS
NOT SETTLED IN BOSTON

Three important procedural changes in the Welfare and Hospital Departments are recorded in the annual report of the Administrative Services Department, after a thorough survey during the year 1955, as follows:

1. Transfer of billing from the Welfare Department to the Hospital Department for hospital care to all persons determined to be the responsibility of jurisdictions other than the City of Boston.
2. Transfer of function from the Welfare Department to the Hospital Department of conducting interrogatories necessary for settlement determinations covering "Unable to Pay" admissions at the City Hospital.
3. Confining settlement determinations by the Welfare Department to cases previously determined by the Hospital Department as "Unable to Pay." This change reduces the estimated work load for settlement determinations from over 10,000 cases annually to approximately 3,000 cases.
